

SEATTLE, Dec. 8.—(AP)—The Seattle Rainiers had two new players today, but the Pacific Coast league baseball club also had three less old ones.

General Manager Earl Sheeley, reporting from the minor league meeting in Baltimore, said straight cash transactions had sent southpaw Herman Besse to Los Angeles, outfielder Neil Sheridan to San Francisco and outfielder Tom Neill to Nashville of the Southern association.

On the incoming side of the ledger were pitcher James Wilson, 28, purchased from Buffalo of the International league, and catcher Dewey Williams, drafted from Tulsa of the Texas league.

The amount of cash involved was not disclosed.

EUGENE, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Dick Wolfe, 151, Klamath Falls, and Davey Ball, 157, Bakersfield, Cal. fought to a 10-round draw here last night in the main event of a boxing card.

Two knockouts figured in the preliminaries. Whitey Kirsch, 160, Eugene, put Harry Hughes, 160, Eugene, on the canvas for the count in 1:15 minutes of the fourth round. Bobby Henry, 130, Dexter, knocked out Tony Daed, 132, just before the bell sounded for the end of the second round.

Proposed World Labor Charter Is Aimed At Reds

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A proposed charter for a new world anti-Communist labor group called today for freedom and security for workers everywhere.

A draft constitution of the new group was laid before an organizational meeting of 261 representatives from 53 countries, including the United States.

It proposes naming the new organization the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions. Its preamble proclaims the right of individuals:

"To social justice;

"To work and choice of employment;

"To security of that employment and of their persons;

"To mutual protection of their interests through forming and joining trade unions which shall be free bargaining instruments and which derive their authority from their members; and

"To democratic means of changing their government."

Free labor, economic democracy, social justice and security, in the preamble, "are foundations on which to build lasting peace."

The new confederation, representing about 50,000,000 workers, would hold a congress every two years.

Earl Flora, Sox publicity director, said the Souchock sale was part of the transaction announced Tuesday when Chicago bought outfielder Bill Wilson from Sacramento for cash and two players. One player, probably a minor leaguer, still is to be announced.

Souchock, formerly a New York Yankee, hit 230 in 84 games for the Sox last season. He had 13 doubles, five triples and seven homers, driving in 36 runs.

PHILADELPHIA.—(AP)—Lightweight champion Ike Williams was fined $500 Wednesday by the Pennsylvania Athletic commission for "actions detrimental to boxing" in his Monday night pre-fight statement that he had been told his bout with Freddy Dawson was "fixed."

The fight went the distance, and Williams was awarded a close decision.
