Gift Boxes Filled
By Douglas County
Junior Red Cross

Junior Red Cross is rolling along on its enrollment campaign, and filling of gift boxes to be shipped in time for Christmas. To date $220 has been turned into the office from 37 schools, and two of these schools have more to add to this. This is considered an excellent showing when it is understood that much of this money is donated in pennies.

Three of the most remote schools are included in the above, these are at Reston, Calesville and Callahan Trail. One hundred fifty gift boxes were shipped last week to the area office in San Francisco for redistribution overseas. A few more are on hand and other schools are filling them, Roseburg Junior high school having asked for 80 to fill. St. Joseph's school, Benson and Elkton elementary have each filled around 30 boxes apiece, the two latter having filled the greatest number of any elementary schools last year, also.

Many schools and a Camp Fire group are at work on Christmas favors, decorations, etc., for the Veterans hospital. The following is a quotation from a response to a request: "We will make 100 menu covers for you. My room also is making 50 nut cups, and will include the assorted nuts with which to fill them. Both will be ready by the 19th." The Tennille school, Mrs. Bessie Smith, teacher-sponsor, is starting an afghan for a children's hospital. The third grade of Fullerton school, Mrs. Althea

K D N D
DIAL-LOG

Brigadier General Carlos P. Romulo's address at the dinner concluding the 54th Annual Congress of American Industry will be exclusively broadcast over the Mutual-Don Lee network, tonight—11 to 11:30 p. m. General Romulo is president of the United Nations General Assembly. He has titled his remarks "Hold High the Torch." Wallace F. Bennett, president of the N.A.M., will introduce General Romulo. (Tonight 11-11:30 p. m.)

SATURDAY: Richard Sheridan's ever-popular romantic comedy "The Rivals" will be specially air-adapted for "Comedy Playhouse" at 7 p. m. The Gold Coast Players are featured in leading roles, with Jack La Frandre, writer-director of the series, as host. (7:00-8:00 p. m.)

Dr. Morris Fishbein, retiring editor of the Journal of the American Medical association, will hold the press-conference-of-the-air on this week's "Meet the Press" session. (Saturday, 8:30-9 p. m.) Martha Rountree, producer of Mutual-Don Lee's headline-making "Meet the Press" program, received the "Look Applauds" salute in the issue of that national magazine which hit the news stands Tuesday, Dec. 6.

Our thanks go to Radio Station KUIN in Grants Pass for this week's presentation of "The Family Theater" (Sunday, 4:30-5 p. m.) . . . because, through a technical difficulty, we missed taping the production at its original release hour. But a quick call to KUIN solved the problem. Just by chance, that station had taped the show . . . and just by chance, a member of their staff is coming to Roseburg Sunday between the hours of 3 and 6. This week's dramatization, by the way (courtesy KUIN), is "Don Quixote."

Carroway, teacher, made two of these last year.

"China Challenge" Film
Will Be Shown Sunday

The Salvation Army, the Lutheran church and Presbyterian church of Roseburg are co-operating for the showing Sunday at 7:30 p. m. of the documentary film, "China Challenge." The program will be held in the Presbyterian church. The public is invited to attend. Rev. Willis Erickson will sing a solo, the Salvation Army youth band will play, and Bob Nason, who presents the film, will also sing.

The film has been presented in other parts of Douglas county and is considered an outstanding production of the life in China today.

CUTOFF CLOSED
BEND—(AP)—The Diamond lake cutoff is closed for the winter. The route, which crosses the Cascades between Diamond and Crater lakes, is blocked by snow, and will not reopen until spring.

Warren Mack To Sing At Service
Set For Sunday

One of Roseburg's most talented singers is scheduled to appear at the First Methodist church Sunday evening, Dec. 11, at the 7:30 service, the pastor, the Rev. W. A. MacArthur, announced. Warren Mack, recently moved to Roseburg from Eugene, and employed on the staff of the News-Review, will sing a series of three numbers at the increasingly popular and inspiring evening services at the Methodist church. Mack has chosen for these selections, "Hear My Prayer" by James; "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" by McGimsey, and "The Angel Song."

Combining a voice of extremely pleasant qualities, gentle and flowing easily in lyric fashion with three musical scores of tender appeal at this season, Mack's presentation promises to be one of exceptional enjoyment and inspiration, commented the Rev. Mr. MacArthur. The program will also include a song service of Christmas carols and congregational favorites, led by R. Cloyd Riffe. The pastor will conclude the hour with another of his series on the businessmen of the Bible, when he speaks briefly on "The Man Who Made A Corner In Pearls." This sermon will be illustrated with one of the ever-popular chalk drawings in full color, fabricated by the Rev. Mr. MacArthur in full view of the congregation. The public is cordially invited and urged to attend, the Rev. Mr. MacArthur said.

Eugene's 'Robin Hood' Shoots Mighty Arrow

EUGENE — (AP) — Police are looking for Robin Hood of Eugene—R. Cloyd Riffe, an individual who has taken another shot at a used car lot's "pylon" clock. The owner of the lot reported to police that he had found another arrow in the big marquee, just outside the clock ring. When the hardy bowman loosed an arrow the first time about three weeks ago he scored a bullseye. Local archers are mystified at the force that must have been used to imbue the arrow in the hard fir and have come to the conclusion that Robin is a mighty man.

WANTED: A DOCTOR
COULEE CITY, Wash.—(AP)—Coulee City wants a doctor in the worst way—badly enough, in fact, to offer six months free office rent if one will locate here. This community of more than 1000 has been without a medical man since its only doctor retired Nov. 1. The nearest medical aid is 24 miles away.
