

A. J. TUCK ENJOYS EXTENSIVE THREE MONTHS TRIP EAST

The many friends of A. J. Tuck are welcoming him back to Roseburg, following his three months trip to the east coast. He returned to his home in the Roseburg Hotel Wednesday evening.

Mr. Tuck stopped in San Francisco en route east and then went to Salt Lake City to visit his son, Dr. Ralph Tuck, before going to his former home in Cleveland, Ohio. He was joined at Le Roy, New York, by his daughter, Mrs. Gladys Clark, and her daughter, Ann, who took him to Toronto, Canada, to visit a cousin, whom he had not seen for 58 years.

While at Toronto, they witnessed the recent burning of the large Canadian ship, which suffered the loss of many passengers. At Nashua, N. H., Mr. Tuck was entertained by his grandson and bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, after which he went to Boston and visited and later enjoyed a stay with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seitz (formerly Ruth Tuck) and their son and daughter, Robbie and Judith, at Westport, Conn. Mr. Seitz was recently elected assessor at Westport.

Mr. Tuck reports an especially interesting stay in New York City, where he was on election day. He stated Times Square was so jammed with people, that it was almost impossible to move through the crowds. He spent Armistice day in Philadelphia and then visited in Daytona Beach, Miami, Tampa where he had Thanksgiving with friends, who were visitors here last year and St. Petersburg, Fla. He spent a few days in New Orleans and stopped over in New Mexico for a program presented by the Navajo Indians. In Los Angeles, he visited his sister and then went to San Diego to see the Marine and Navy bases, before visiting in Santa Barbara with friends, who formerly made their home in Roseburg. While in Santa Monica, he enjoyed a fine visit with Dr. Charles Edwards, retired Methodist minister and formerly of this city. Dr. Edwards is making his home with his son, John Edwards.

D. A. V. TO MEET THIS EVENING
Florence Nightingale tent No. 15, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will meet at eight o'clock tonight, Dec. 9, at the K. of P. hall. Election of officers will be held and plans will be made for the annual Christmas party, which will be held the evening of Dec. 19, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Essie Olson, 420 W. HELEN HUNT CIRCLE HAS INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY

Helen Hunt circle of the First Baptist church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Moreno. Mrs. Hollingsworth, president, opened the meeting by playing a lovely recording by Lucille Lavender, evangelist, and two poems by Johnnie Lavender, "He Conquers" and "Big Head." Mrs. C. R. Cameron offered a prayer and Mrs. Margie Gildersleeve led the devotions from the 12th chapter of Romans.

Mrs. Maude Connelly Doughty had charge of the Christmas program, which opened by group singing, after which she gave a talk on Christmas customs in different lands and on the meaning of Christmas. She closed with prayer, after which short prayers were given for the ill and shut-ins.

The White Cross quota was completed. Comforters were sent to two families who recently lost their homes by fire. Gifts were brought for the children's Mission in Arizona. Mrs. Tom Marrott closed the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Hollingsworth served lovely refreshments to Mrs. W. B. Glosland, Mrs. G. R. Cameron, Mrs. May Crawford, Mrs. Josephine Hagar, Mrs. H. L. Moreno, Mrs. Tom Marrott, Mrs. Margie Gildersleeve, Mrs. L. P. Roper, Mrs. Belle Stephenson, Mrs. Maude Doughty, Mrs. Charles Walker, Miss Helen Marrott, Miss Marguerite Muetzel and Mrs. Louis Kohlhaagen Sr.

The January 5th meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Glosland, 527 W. Cass street at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening. All members are urged to be present.

SUTHERLIN P. T. A. MEETING TO BE HELD ON MONDAY EVENING

The regular monthly meeting of Sutherland P. T. A. will be held at the scout hall in Sutherland Monday evening, Dec. 12, at 8 o'clock. A Christmas program will be presented by the different groups of grade school children. Some Favorite Dressing Recipes

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Mention stuffing for the Thanksgiving turkey and Gertrude Blair starts thinking fast. Outstanding American food expert with a long line of wonderful cooks for ancestors, Miss Blair gathers the following recipes from her memories of old-fashioned feasts.

"Grandmother's Sage and Onion Dressing which we regarded so fondly was one of the easiest to make, mostly because Grandmother prepared the bread in the easiest possible way. She merely dunked the dry bread in water until well soaked, then squeezed it to fluffy dryness. No crumbs to roll, no bread to cut in cubes."

Sage and Onion Dressing
(For 12-pound bird)
Two loaves (second-day) bread, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon dried sage, rubbed fine, 1-4 teaspoon each of dried rosemary, thyme, marjoram rubbed fine, 1-4 cup minced parsley, 1 cup celery leaves and top stems, cut fine, 1 cup finely cut onions, 1/2 cup melted drippings or butter or fortified margarine. Soak bread in cold water, then squeeze dry, handful by handful. Add remaining ingredients except melted fat. Toss with two forks until well mixed. Add melted fat slowly, tossing as added. Stuff bird lightly. Any remaining dressing may be baked in one corner of the roasting pan.

Dressing No. 2
A dressing made with soaked bread squeezed dry has a slightly pudding-like texture. If you prefer one that is lighter and with more "grain," use the same ingredients as in dressing above, but mix as follows: Slice the second day bread; then cut into small cubes. Toast in a hot oven until lightly browned. Add remaining ingredients, except the fat. Mix well. Then melt the fat in 1-2 cup boiling water. Pour slowly over the dressing, tossing until well mixed.

Variations:
a) Add 1-4 cup raisins; 2 tart apples, finely cut. Reduce onions to 1-2 cup.
b) Add one dozen oysters, each cut into several pieces. Use the oyster liquor as part of water in which to melt the fat.

Dressing No. 3
(Rich, fine, crumbly dressing for 12-pound bird)
One quart fine dry crumbs (can be made from 2 loaves bread), a cup coarsely chopped walnuts or pecans (optional), 1 large onion, finely minced, 1 cup celery leaves and top stems, finely cut, 1-4 cup finely minced parsley, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1/2 teaspoon liquor (dry and powdered), a cup butter or margarine, melted.

Mix ingredients in order named, tossing well to mix. Dressing for Duck or Spare Rib
One cup crushed pineapple drained of juice, 4 tart apples pared, quartered and sliced, 1/2 cup raisins, 1-8 teaspoon powdered ginger. Mix well. Use as stuffing for duck, spare ribs and any rich meat.

Here are pretty character miniatures for the walls of your child's room. See them at JOSSE'S Decorating Department. They combine charmingly with a whatnot shelf, for hanging over a desk or bookcase. Katrina and Adrian are a demure Puritan couple, and Chiko and Elena are romantic little pygmies. All are richly set in mahogany shadow-box frames. Looking for something light and modern? You'll find that at Josse's, too, in graceful ballet dancers with blue, pink and yellow costumes. They are set in egg-shell enamel frames. Godey Ladies in larger ovals, 8" x 10", are framed in mahogany. They'll go nicely in pairs near a Governor Winthrop secretary. If you're in doubt, ask one of the girls in the Decorating Department. You can always count on them to know what is in the best of taste.

Something else that's nice for your home... the electric clocks at LESTER'S GIFT SHOP. You've seen the alabaster clock with a swinging girl pendulum. There is a tiny light inside which shows an English garden scene. Yes, this one is electric, and has a sweep-style second hand. Looks Victorian, but is modern as tomorrow. For your kitchen wall, what could be quaintier than the little old Dutch Mill clock, with gay ceramic flowers along the corners? Or the Bird House, with a blythe bird perched on the roof? These are electric, too, with the sweep second hand. Bare-looking kitchen walls need not bore you any longer—just dress them up with gay clocks from Lester's. Go in and see them this week. Remember, there are only 13 more shopping days till Christmas!

Know what we're hungry for? Milk chocolate creams like you find at the ICE CREAMERY. Bet your Christmas hostess will be happy to get a box of milk chocolate Miniatures or Personal Choice milk chocolates. They carry the famous Schrafft's brand, and come in a number of assortments. The Exotic Package is a matchless assortment of fruit nougats, nut clusters and imperial creams, with soft or hard centers of every description. Only $1.25 to $3 per pound, too. Here goes the Ice Creamery's invitation to Helen Gordon, for a FREE lunch any day next week. Just clip this coupon out of Window Shopping and present it to Mr. McDonald, Helen.

Looking for something really special in Jewelry for a really special girl? Go to ASHCRAFT'S this week and choose from their Curta genuine hand-carved cameos. There are pendant-brooches with a pin across the back and a ring at the top, for wear either as a pin or on a neck-chain. There are matching earrings, set simply in gold. One pair of earrings so individual that they could be worn without any other adornment are tiny cameos with a single gold wing. Ashcraft's has stunning Van Dell pins, too. One is the Tiger Lily of gold with a zircon heart and white Czechoslovakian rhinestones at the tips of the stamens. A Wild Rose of rose gold with petals edged with yellow gold has a pearl heart and two pearl buds. A tiny leaf of green gold finishes the rose motif. This

Why buy stale bakery goods? Why not buy your rolls, buttermilk and cakes FRESHLY BAKED at CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY? Don't you despise to open coffee cake and have half of the icing oozing to the cellophane? At Cleo's, the luscious things fresh from the oven are carefully packed so that you can get home with your merchandise intact. Fresh bakery goods is more enjoyable and wholesome in every way. Prices? The CLOVER EXCHANGE is the place to go for inexpensive toys and novelties, all hand made. The Clover Exchange is at 2217 Harvard Avenue, just beyond Fairhaven. Hand made items of all kinds are sold there on consignment, including myrtlewood match holders and candlesticks, Christmas tree ornaments that are glittering stars with pins for hanging, and wall plaques with boy and girl Hummel designs applied under the glass. The new baby will love a cuddly stockinette doll or terry cloth lamb. Lambs and rabbits of terry cloth have washable "skins" that are removable, and you can choose from a number of enticing and whimsical colors. Other novelties are the bead-trimmed deerskin moccasins and bead and sequin ornaments to add color to a black or brown costume. One set has matching buttons, pin, and earrings of aqua sequins. You can imagine it with a black velvet cocktail suit. See them this week at the Clover Exchange—call 444-J-4 for further information.

Here's another gift that will please anyone on your list—Kodak albums from CLARK'S STUDIO. Leatherette albums in brown or maroon design in 8" x 10" up to 11" x 14" sizes. Real leather albums that have loose leaves and are expandable are priced at $7 to $17. These are in fine-grained and coarse-grained finishes. The popular Fotofolios that have dozens of plastic frames to keep your snaps in orderly arrangement are only $5. You can buy additional plastic holders for them at Clark's, too.

Are you dreaming of a white Christmas? Bing Crosby is—on a favorite recording at MILLER'S RADIO RECORD SHOP. A group of carols on one record offers Jo Stafford and Gordon MacRae as vocalists. Do you adore comedy songs? Ken Bushey will treat you to an audition of "All I Want for Christmas is My Two Front Teeth!" recorded by Spike Jones, or Yogi Yorgesson singing, "I Just Go Nuts at Christmas" and "Yingle Bells." For the best in radios and record-players, go to Miller's Radio-Record Shop. And if you need a phono-jack for 45 r. p. m. players on any radio, no matter how small, so that even the most modest home can enjoy good music.
