ROSEBURG FOLK MOTOR TO SALEM TO ATTEND RAWSON-WHARTON RITES

A wedding of interest to local residents was held in Salem, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 3 at St. Paul's Episcopal church when Miss Louise Rawson became the bride of Glenn William Wharton. The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and candles. The ceremony was read by the Rev. George H. Swift with Miss Ruth Bedford as organist and Gordon Pratt soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John P. Rawson and the late Mr. Rawson, of Salem, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wharton of this city.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, W. J. Stinson of Carson City, Nev. She wore an aqua blue floor-length afternoon gown of chiffon and crepe and complimented her wedding outfit with a small winter pink felt hat studded with pearls. She carried a hand corsage of gardenias, stephanotis and bouvardia with a shower of satin streamers.

Attending the bride was Miss Erna Hanna, who wore a gold crepe floor length gown with a tiny cap of bronze chrysanthemums. She carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. Edwin Harding was best man and usher. Mrs. Carter Hill and Stewart Adams.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Rawson, wore teal blue crepe with winter pink accessories. Mrs. Wharton, mother of the bridegroom, selected black crepe with black hat trimmed in winter pink. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

At the reception which followed at the Salem Woman's club Mrs. Frederick J. Brennan presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Jack Barnickol and Mrs. Albert Wickert, Jr. cut the cake. The bride's table was covered with a satin damask cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink rosebuds and shaggy pink chrysanthemums. Tiny porcelain bride's slippers, filled with forget-me-nots were arranged about the table. The bride's cake was topped with a larger slipper filled with forget-me-nots. White tapers in silver holders completed the table decorations.

Assisting were Mrs. Jess Daugherty and Mrs. George Bean. Miss Hanna was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a burgundy gaudinette tulle with grey accessories and Eng- and neighbors present. Well-wishers included the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sconce, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Hunter, Mr. Lawrence Haines, Mrs. Gerald Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stephens, Larry Sconce, Gloria Sconce, John Wilcox, Norma Jean Wilcox, Charlotte Slater, Kenneth Henry, Judy Bacon and Martin Crouch.

Roseburg Couple Weds In Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Louise J. Adamski

Chrysanthemums of white and fuchsia, decorated the altar at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic church in Portland Saturday morning, Nov. 26 when Miss Almee Povluk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Povluk of Litchville, N.D., became the bride of Louis J. Adamski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adamski, of Portland.

Both reside in Roseburg. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Edmund Hyland followed by nuptial mass. Candelight and greenery completed the decorations and Mrs. Millie Narad sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride's wedding gown, of white slipper satin, was fashioned princess style with a nylon yoke edged with ruffles of Chantilly lace. Full skirted, cut en train the gown was accented by a lace edged full veil which was held in place by a coronet of pearl beading. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and yellow rosebuds.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Schiel, sister of the bridegroom, wore pink satin made with a shirred bodice and full skirt. She complimented her dress with a pink net halo hat and carried chrysanthemums and pink rosebuds tied with autumn-colored ribbons.

Also attending the bride were Mrs. Thomas Walsh and Miss Phyllis Pedersen, both of Roseburg, who wore similar gowns of aqua and yellow with matching hats and bouquets of chrysanthemums and pink rosebuds. Little Delores Kudrna, niece of the bridegroom was flower girl, attractively dressed in a yellow floor-length gown trimmed with orchid and green ribbon. She carried a nosegay of chrysanthemums and yellow rosebuds.

Laudie Adamski, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Seating the guests were Oliver Kestell of Woodburn and Robert Herbage of Roseburg.

The bride's parents were unable to travel west for the wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua ensemble with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

A wedding dinner followed the ceremony in the parish hall at 12 noon. In the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents 5124 S. E. Ramona street from 2 until 4 o'clock.

The bride's table, carrying out an all-white motif, was laid with white lace cloth and tiered candles and the wedding cake decorated with white roses. Autumn greenery and chrysanthemums formed an attractive background for the guests and wedding party.

Mrs. Harvey Reinke, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Al Adamski presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Robert Herbage poured at the coffee urn. In charge of guest book was Mrs. Terry Connelly and Miss Lee Kollodge was in charge of the gifts.

The couple left on a trip along the Oregon coast. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue tulle with mauve accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and gardenias.

They have returned to Roseburg where they will take up residence. Mr. Adamski is manager at Wayne's Shoe store and the bride is on the nursing staff at Mercy hospital.
