JEAN MAXINE DUNCAN BECOMES BRIDE OF TANG EDWARD SMITH

Saturday evening, December 3, at seven o'clock Miss Jean Maxine Duncan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perry Duncan of Days Creek, became the bride of Tang Edward Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess J. Smith, also of Days Creek. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend E. W. Powell at his home in Myrtle Creek, with only the attendants and the parents of both the bride and groom present. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue dressmaker suit, with pink and black accessories, her corsage being of orchids. Miss Norma Duncan who was maid of honor for her sister, was dressed in a grey suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of rosebuds. The groom had as his best man, Richard Snyder, also of Days Creek. The bride's mother wore a black afternoon frock, while the groom's mother was dressed in rose colored crepe. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco and other points of interest in California, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Myrtle Creek where the latter will continue her work at the United States National bank where she has been employed since graduating from the Days Creek High school with the class of 1946. The groom who is also a Days Creek graduate is connected with the logging industry in the Myrtle Creek area.

Later Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Smith were honored with a reception at the Lavodours Hall mid-way between Days Creek and Milo. White crepe paper streamers and white and silver bells were used to form a decorative note about the room. After the bride and groom had cut the first pieces of the wedding cake, Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Jess Smith continued the cutting and serving. Among those signing the guest book were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Torrey and Mrs. Marvin Cornutt and son, Delvin, and daughter, Beverly, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ellefson and daughters, Judith and Camille, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strode and sons, Robert and Ronald, and daughters Charlotte and Clara Nell, of Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. NEW RELIEF!
For Stiffness, Coughs of Colds

You know—like millions of others—how wonderfully effective Vicks VapoRub is when you rub it on. Now...here's amazing, special relief when there's much coughing or stiffness, that "choked-up" feeling. It's VapoRub in Steam . . . and it brings relief almost instantly! Put 1 or 2 spoonfuls of VapoRub in a vaporizer or bowl of boiling water. Then—breathe in the soothing, medicated vapors. Every breath eases coughing spasms, makes breathing easier. And to prolong relief—rub VapoRub on throat, chest and back.

Use it in steam . . . Rub it on, too!
