

Bad Boy Boyle Backs Bashfully Out Of Doghouse; Gives Advice To Women Purchasing Neckties

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK — (AP) — Ladies, I've been a bad boy.

And if Santa Claus is to come my way this year, you're going to have to get me out of the doghouse.

How can you help? By going out and buying a big fistful of Christmas neckties and giving them to the men in your lives.

About a week ago I bemoaned the fact that women were allowed by law to present neckties as Christmas gifts. I suggested the formation of a society to stop the custom.

Well, I didn't expect to be nominated man-of-the-year for this suggestion. Nor did I expect grateful fellowmen to set up statues in my honor—minus a necktie—on every courthouse lawn.

On the other hand neither did I expect to end up in the doghouse. But here I am—stuck in it up to my cravat.

The first reaction came from my own wife.

"So you don't think women are smart enough to pick out neckties, Rover?" said Frances, baring a bicuspid. "You'll be lucky if you get even a bowtie from me, smarty. And where, anyhow, is that fur coat you promised me 12 years ago? Are you waiting for the minks to die of old age?"

Right on top of that, Byron Fish, columnist of the Seattle Times, wanted to know if I was trying to ruin his annual Christmas party.

Crab Fishermen Move After Mob Treatment
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13. — (AP) — Three Crescent City, Calif., crab fishermen, beaten up by a mob on the waterfront here Saturday, moved their fishing operations to the Oakland estuary.

Police said the mob of 40 or 50 men who engaged in the beating objected to the fishing practices of the three.
Damage was estimated at about $1,000 to the fishing boat, "Pastime," owned by George Thompson. He and his two crew members, Hardy Thompson and Darold Richcreek, were attacked. The latter two were severely beaten.

The international fishermen and Allied workers of America (CIO) local 34, said "out of port" fishermen provoked the violence. Crescent City is 300 miles north of here, near the Oregon state line.

U. N. Assembly Ends Session After 3 Months

Russia Takes Final Blast At Western 'Planning For War'

NEW YORK. — (AP) — The United Nations assembly adjourned its 1949 session Saturday after hearing Russia accuse the western powers of a "black plot against peace."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik said in the "war" note in the midst of the customary round of congratulatory speeches at adjournment time. They termed the assembly's work "unsatisfactory."

The 59-nation assembly had been in session since Sept. 20. Malik said the United States and Britain used the assembly meeting to cover up what the Russians call plans for a new war. He said Russia stands for peace and will continue to stand for peace.

Assembly President Carlos P. Romulo told the delegates he felt they could take justifiable pride in their achievements. He expressed the belief some progress is being made toward world peace despite the fact that "no startling results" are evident.

"The assembly has neither yielded to despair nor acknowledged failure," Romulo said. U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie also contended the big powers have taken some positive steps toward settling their basic differences.

"We have moved forward," Lie said, "to a point where the world has reason to hope for a step-by-step resumption of real negotiations between both sides. This, in itself, would be substantial improvement over the situation that has prevailed over the past three years."

U. S. Delegate John Sherman Cooper told the assembly a remarkable degree of unity had been achieved on such measures as the "essentials of peace" resolution which was supported by 53 out of the assembly's 59 members. The Russian bloc was against it.

The last major decision of the assembly was the adoption of the U. N.'s 1950 budget of $49,641,733, including $8,000,000 to finance the setting up of the proposed international regime for Jerusalem.

The assembly disposed of 68 separate items during its 12 weeks of deliberations. It held 57 plenary meetings and its seven major committees held 384.

Ex-Prisoners Of War Soon To Get Form For Claims

Ex-prisoners of war are advised that forms for filing claims under the war claims act of 1948 are being prepared, and will be available in Oregon as soon as they are printed. Only claims on the official form can be considered.

This word was received by the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs from Daniel F. Cleary, chairman of the war claims commission in Washington, D. C., the agency set up to administer the act.

The war claims act provides payment of one dollar for each day a U. S. armed forces member was subjected to malnutrition while held in an enemy prisoner of war camp during World War II. Although the act was approved by Congress in July, 1948, appointment of a commission was made only recently and the preparation of regulat-

Helicopters' amazing ability is working for Pacific Telephone in some places today...helping stop trouble.

How a new sky patrol protects your calls

1. You really get a bird's-eye view from a hovering 'copter. And it's proving a big help in checking our Long Distance routes... Air patrols watch for leaning poles, soil erosion, settling earth... anything that might cause future trouble. They do it fast, too. In one test, a crew recently checked 276 miles of buried cable route in nine hours; it would have taken about six days by land.
2. On-the-spot delivery of repairmen and materials is another use of the flexible helicopter. Since it can literally drop on a blanket, it comes in handy reaching isolated spots... or when snow or floods make roads hard to travel. Helicopter patrol is another example of how we keep looking ahead for the progressive developments that help keep your service always ready to work for you.
3. Keeping ahead of trouble helps keep your service valuable. Today it's more valuable than ever... the many new telephones that have been rushed into service make it possible for you to call more of the people you want to call. More can call you. And your telephone is still a bargain in these days of higher costs. After all, a few pennies buy a call.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains
