Refrigerator Won By Jingle

By MRS. GEORGE EDES
A new 1960 model refrigerator, sponsored by the Crosley company and the Boucock Hardware company of Yoncalla was won by Mrs. John Hughes of Yoncalla last week, during a national jingle contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes live about seven miles south of Yoncalla, in what is known as the Red Hill district. Electricity was made available for the Hughes' just recently, and this new refrigerator will be a very welcome gift for her, her husband and five children.

The following is the jingle, which won for her this gift:

"Electricity at last, dreams galore,
I've got my eye on the new Shelvador.
Why should I have one? I haven't any.
And outstanding features, it has many.
Nutrition, economy, sakes alive,
Couldn't I fix a spread, for my family of five?
Ample space, freezers too,
I want one, wouldn't you?"

Mrs. Nimocks and Mrs. Paulsrud will be hostesses to a "Stanley" party at the Elkhead hall, Jan. 5. A potluck dinner will be served at noon. The entire community is invited to attend.

Dr. Sarah Nimocks, Mrs. Nellie White, Ola Paulsrud of Los Angeles and Jimmie Coulson of San Gabriel, Calif. are visiting at the Paulsrud and Nimocks homes for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kruse and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sefton attended the wrestling matches at Eugene, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDonald and daughter, Annabelle and son James of Burr Oak, Kans. visited at the Fred Reeves home at Elkhead last week. Mr. McDonald is a cousin of Mr. Reeves.

A visitor at the Fred Reeves home last week was Miss Marie Johnson of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Miss Johnson is on her way to Los Angeles to meet her fiancé, when he returns from service overseas. They plan to be married in Los Angeles and return to Iowa to make their home.

Pennsylvania was named in honor of Admiral William Penn, father of William Penn, founder.

UNHAPPY KING — Two-year-old Philip Burrows of Los Angeles wears an unhappy expression on his face and a toilet seat around his neck. It was like this: While his mother was upstairs, Phil got hold of a screwdriver downstairs, detached the seat. Then he decided it would be smart to walk around with the seat on his head, like a king with a crown. The crown slipped. Mama called a doctor. He tried greasing Phil's head, but the seat wouldn't slide off. Firemen finally came to the rescue with axes and saw, and King Philip lost his crown.

Protestant Heads To Aid Negroes In Racial Fight

ATLANTA—(AP)—Leaders of more than 28,000,000 U.S. Protestant church members voted here to help Negroes in a court battle to end racial separation.

Only Southern Presbyterians dissented as the policy was proclaimed in the heart of the south by the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

The council will intervene with a plea before the U. S. Supreme court in the case of a Texas Negro, Herman Marion Sweat, who is seeking admission to a white state university.

Sweat is attacking the traditional southern theory of "separate but equal" facilities for Negroes.

The church council will argue that separation itself is unequal, un-Christian and illegal discrimination.

Another report of Protestant leaders called for a reshaping of American policy in the Far East to help the masses of people toward better living conditions.

Catholic Pupils Banned From Classes In Sex

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 14.—(AP)— Archbishop John Gregory Murray has banned Catholic children from school classrooms where sex education is taught.

Denouncing sex lessons in public or private schools, the Archbishop said in his pastoral letter sex is a subject "for personal discussion between parent and child, physician and patient, or confessor and penitent."

The letter affects 337,200 Catholics in 27 south central Minnesota counties.

New York led the nation in Paper and Paperboard production in 1946.
