

Uncle Sam Goes Into Business Of Baby-Sitting

By JANE EADS
WASHINGTON.—Uncle Sam has gone into the baby-sitting business. Units of the United States Employment Service (USES) in various parts of the country are now registering and classifying applicants for baby-sitting, and the projects are reported a huge success.

The USES classifies the job as "child monitoring" and goes on to explain that a child monitor could also be termed a "bratter, child nurse or part-time sitter." The monitor is also described as "one who complies with any reasonable request of a child."

In Johnstown, Pa., where the project is sponsored by the Baby-Sitters Advisory Council of Greater Johnstown, in cooperation with the USES, more than 100 'teen-age girls received B. S. (Baby-Sitter) degrees after a briefing course.

At Uniontown, Pa., the Pennsylvania State Employment service conducts a course to teach would-be sitters that "the baby comes before the radio." The plan was set up in conjunction with the Fayette County chapter of the Red Cross, the Uniontown senior high school and local civic groups. Instruction is given in "attitudes and responsibilities, accident prevention and simple first aid," and each sitter is equipped with a pamphlet of instructions before taking a job.

In the capital of the government's baby-sitter service, while still in the organizational stage, is going over with a bang. Mrs. Mildred Mitchell, supervisor of the household unit of the local USES says her office is "swamped with requests." In addition to registering applicants Mrs. Mitchell sent out several thousand notices announcing the service to married couples, picked from a Washington social listing.

Mrs. Mitchell says she has listed among baby-sitters those who can mix a cocktail as well as change a diaper, or those who can help do a bit of housework while "sitting." She has persons to fill all requirements. Her files show sitters ranging from 16 to 70 years of age and of all nationalities. All have references attesting to their abilities, honesty, sobriety and dependability.

The prevailing wage here is 75 cents an hour plus car-fare. Mrs. Mitchell says, however, that the range is from 50 cents to $1, with many folks only too willing to pay more if they can get a good sitter to mind Junior while they take a spin on the capital merry-go-round.

Israel Defies United Nations Plan For City

(By the Associated Press)

Israel has moved to make Jerusalem her permanent capital in defiance of a United Nations decision to internationalize the holy city.

Some responsible diplomats at Lake Success speculated that a special spring session of the United Nations Assembly would be needed to deal with the problem.

Israel Prime Minister David Ben Gurion said in a parliamentary speech that the transfer of government offices from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem would be speeded up. He said Israel had always planned to make the holy city its seat of operations. He called it "Israel's eternal capital." Ben Gurion and his personal staff left for Jerusalem Wednesday.

At Lake Success the trusteeship council has voted to proceed with plans for trying to set up the framework for an international regime for Jerusalem. Many diplomats said Israel was presenting the U. N. with a fait accompli (the deed done) and the U. N. program looked impossible.

Weyerhaeuser Co. Seeds More Logged-Off Land

CENTRALIA, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Paul Lauterbach, in charge of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company's Centralia office, has announced reseeding by air of more than 1,000 acres of the company's logged-off land in Lewis and southern Thurston counties has been completed. A helicopter was used in the project, with about one-third pound of Douglas Fir seed per acre being used.

Reseeded were 950 acres at McDonald, in Lewis county, and 110 acres in the Vall area of Thurston county. Preliminary work, including rodent control, was started in October. Earlier this year the company reseeded 1,000 acres in Pacific county and a smaller area in Skamania and Clark counties that is known as the old Yacolt burn.

Innocent Defendant Pays Judge $5 For Lecture

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Traffic Judge Roger A. Pfaff delivers a long lecture on safety before meting out punishment to offenders. But he didn't realize his oratory was this good.

Truck Driver Charles R. Lanese, 41, was in court for driving without a tail light. He listened to the judge's sermon. Then when his case was called, he proved the tail light had been fixed.

Judge Pfaff suspended as $5 fine.

"Your honor," Lanese protested, "this appearance in your traffic court has been a great experience. I want to pay the $5. I want to give it to you."

The judge agreed to forward Lanese's donation to the National Safety Council.

Youth To Get Yule Wish—Tombstone

MONTOURVILLE, Pa.—(AP)—Eleven-year-old Bobby Lovell is going to get his Christmas wish—a tombstone for his mother's grave.

Bobby's mother died in October, 1948, and was buried in the Montourville cemetery.

Several days ago, the youngster—who lives in a trailer camp with his father, an unemployed laborer on relief—decided to find his mother's unmarked grave.

His search proved unsuccessful Tuesday after he had enlisted the aid of Police Chief Stanley C. Zartman.

"Some day I'll have enough money to buy a marker for my mother's grave," Bobby told Zartman.

The police chief related the story to a newspaper and the J. E. Gibbons company offered to donate a tombstone, engrave it and have it in place by Christmas.

Bobby examined the firm's stock, passed by a number of ornate stones and selected a two-by-three foot marker.

"I would like very much to have that one," he said. "Now I can find mother's grave and put flowers on it."

Meanwhile, local merchants promised Bobby's Christmas would not be without gifts, including a permanent movie pass. And Zartman said he was making arrangements to find Bobby a new home "under different environment."

Episcopal Bishop Ordains Own Son Into Priesthood

SEATTLE, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A retired Episcopal bishop of Wyoming ordained his son into the priesthood at St. Mark's cathedral here today.

The Rt. Rev. Winfred Hamlin Ziegler performed the ceremony for the Rev. George Ziegler, now vicar of St. Matthew's church in Auburn, Wash.

Young Ziegler is one of the first World War II veterans to be ordained. Originally planning a career in law, he was a student at the University of Wyoming when the war began. He decided upon the ministry after wartime service and 19 months in a German prison camp.

He was taken prisoner when the plane on which he was a bombardier was shot down over Germany. At today's ceremony he was presented by the Rev. Walter McNeil Jr., who was a chaplain with the field artillery division which liberated young Ziegler from the prison camp.

COVENANT DOOMS BUILDING

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Louis Burman, real estate man, built a store building. Then a resident of the neighborhood brought up an 1881 covenant which prohibited buildings from extending closer than 30 feet from the sidewalk.

Burman went to court and lost. The case went to the Supreme Court, which refused to rule.

"I guess I'll have to tear down the whole building," Burman said—but I'm seriously considering setting up a tombstone on the vacant lot."
