DIAL-LOG

Celebrating its Tenth Anniversary of broadcasting today is Radio Station KUIN, Grants Pass, which first hit the air on December 16, 1939. At that time Grants Pass was less than half its present size, with a population of about 4,000. The city mushroomed during and since the war to its present size of about 10,000. KUIN opened in 1939 as an "Independent" and joined the Mutual-Don Lee Broadcasting system in 1942. The original staff of three persons has now grown to 11. It is the only radio station in Josephine county and Grants Pass. Its F. M. Station KGPO went on the air in January, 1948.

SATURDAY: Slated for the "Comedy Playhouse" production Saturday evening is Charles Dickens' "Christmas at Dingley Dell," adapted for this broadcast by producer-director-host Jack La Frandre and starring the Gold Coast Players (7-8 p. m.). To be interviewed for the "Meet the Press" broadcast at 8:30 will be former Air Force Major George Racey Jordan, whose revelations on the Mutual-Don Lee Jr. commentaries over MDL have prompted two congressional investigations (8:30-9 p. m.).

SUNDAY: Stars galore on the schedule this Sunday start with "The Joyful Hour" at 5:30, when more than 15 outstanding stars of stage, radio and screen will be spotlighted. Bing Crosby, Dennis Day and "Met" stars Licia Albanese and Giuseppe di Stefano will be heard as soloists on the program. They will sing liturgical music specially linked with the Christmas holiday celebration. Dramatic and narrative roles on the program will be taken by Ann Blyth, Maureen O'Hara, Ann Jamison, Jeanne Craine, Pedro de Cordoba, and others (5:30-6:30 p. m.). "Salvation Army Star Salute" at 7 will feature Lawrence Tibbett, the Carmen Dragon orchestra, Kirsten Flagstad, and Jean Hersholt (7:7:30 p. m.).

Christmas Tree Cutting Beneficial, Govt. Says
WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Department of Agriculture raised this question—are we ruining our forests by cutting down so many Christmas trees—and answered: No.
Sparing the tree may spoil the woodland, the department said in a statement, because "in dense stands the thinning of trees stimulates the growth of remaining trees."
What's more, it said, many New England farmers sell Christmas trees which they clear from pasture land. "If the Christmas tree market did not exist, much desirable thinning or pasture clearing might remain undone because of labor costs."
The department estimated that 28,000,000 Christmas trees will be put on the market this year.

Wandering Bulldozer Found in 8-Foot Puddle
SALEM, N. H., Dec. 16.—(AP)—The mystery of the missing bulldozer is solved.
It wasn't missing at all — it was hiding.
Contractor Paul Garabedian left the $14,000 machine at a building site Monday night. Warm, rainy weather caused the frozen ground to thaw. The next day the bulldozer was gone. A long search ended last night when someone spied the machine's tall exhaust pipe sticking out of an eight-foot puddle.
A 12-man crew using three pumps and a tractor pulled the bulldozer out.
