Hal Boyle Laments: Even Santa Can't Keep Little Nina From Growing Older

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK-(P)-There isn't a darn thing Santa Claus can hrow my way this Christmas.

For all I care the old boy can get stuck in a chimney in Des Moines. I'm not bothering to hang up my sock, because there isn't a thing in Saint Nick's bag of tricks I can use.

The one thing I'd like even Santa Claus can't give, I want him to make time stand still and keep a girl I know from growing older—and from going away.

The girl is half past two, her name is Nina, and everything about her is wholly wonderful. Even her nose runs in a nice way.

Agar Seeks Patch-Up With Shirley Temple

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—(P)—John Agar, divorced husband of actress Shirley Temple, hopes for a reconciliation, the Herald-American said here.

Agar left by plane for Holly-wood Thursday, carrying two imported French dolls as Christ-mas presents for the couple's daughter, Linda Susan.

The Herald-American, in a story by Bob Clinnin, who was a school chum of Agar when both lived in suburban Lake Forest, quoted Agar:

"Maybe if all this furore quiets down a reconciliation isn't im-possible." Agar has declined to comment at length on the divorce since it was granted Dec. 6.

Clinnin said Agar told him:
"Look, Bob, take it easy on your story. This is pretty important to me. I sure hope Shirley and I can get back together again."
