NANCY and ROGER (BUTCH) STEWART sit expectantly under their Christmas tree, with last year's presents (slightly the worse for wear) clutched tightly, evidently prepared to wait the advent of Santa Claus with all the patience they can summon. "Can that be Santa now?" Roger cocks an eye towards the fireplace chimney. Better watch closely, Butch; it could be. Roger and Nancy are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stewart, 1001 Casey avenue. Roger is four years old and Nancy, eight. She is in the third grade at Fullerton.—(By Paul Jenkins).
