

ENTERTAIN—Bringing back to some ex-servicemen a memory of the army and navy days they spent in the Hawaiian islands is this group of young hula dancers. The girls, all students of Sally Hilt's dancing class, were among the entertainers at the American Legion's big Christmas party held Tuesday night in the armory. They are Carolee Rutherford, Frieda Fullmer, Margaret Taylor and Lillian Woolsey. (Picture by Paul Jenkins).

BAPTIST WOMAN'S SOCIETY HAS HOLIDAY PROGRAM AND MEETING

The Baptist Woman's Society met Thursday in the church parlors for a one o'clock luncheon with members of Marion Beebe circle as hostesses and Mrs. Fred Lumm, Mrs. Sig Madson and Mrs. N. E. Jacobson as chairmen.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, conducted the meeting, which opened with group singing and was followed by Mrs. C. H. Wickham presenting the devotion and Mrs. James Richie reading the scripture lesson.

Mrs. R. D. Knige presented a solo and Mrs. Clarence Mobley, assisted by Mrs. Bobbie Hughes, Mrs. Sig Madson and Mrs. Ruth Reese, presented the Christmas program entitled, "Shining Stars."

Mrs. Hollingsworth read a letter of thanks from Rev. W. T. Willis for articles sent to the mission in Larry, Okla., and to the Sunshine Mission in Arizona. The next meeting will be January 19 at the church parlors. All women of the church are invited as the work for the new year will be started.

COP DIRECTS STORK

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Policeman Clifton L. Panciera was directing traffic. A woman came up and told him her daughter was about to have a baby.

Panciera tried to flag a cab to take her to the hospital. But they were all full. So he gave a boy a dime to telephone for an ambulance.

He went to the home and found the baby was due to arrive any minute, which it did, with Panciera doing "what they told me in rookie school."

DUPEROVICS HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING

The Dupervics of the Horizon club held an important business meeting Monday to make plans to go caroling Friday night at seven-thirty o'clock. The group spent the social hour practicing Christmas carols.

War Hero's Wife Killed In Automobile Crash

SOCORRO, N. M., Dec. 22—(AP)—Mrs. Richard F. Breckenridge, wife of a Parkland, Wash., war hero, was killed Tuesday in an auto accident near Socorro.

State police said she apparently fell asleep while driving. The auto left the road and hit a bridge.

The woman's husband, winner of the Navy cross and congressional medal of honor, received a broken right thigh. Their daughter, Sally, 21, was unhurt. Breckenridge is in the School of Mines hospital. His condition is serious.

Thy Throne," by Matthews. At 8 p.m. the choir, directed by Miss Gloria Wunch, will present a program of Christmas folk carols. Mrs. Homer Grow will be the organist. The Scott string quartet, as guests of the choir, will present several selections.

The program will be as follows: Organ vespers, "The Birth-day of a King," Neidlinger, played by Mrs. Grow; "The Westminster Carol," old French, by the choir; invocation, Dr. Roach. The choir will sing "O Come,

Thurs., Dec. 22, 1949—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 9

O Come Immanuel," Gregorian, eighth century; "Come, All Ye Shepherds," Moravian Melody, 1750; "What Child Is This?" old English, followed by scripture and prayer by the pastor, and offertory, played by Mrs. Grow.

Then the choir will sing "My Sheep Were Grazing," German, 17th century; "The Sleep of the Child Jesus," old French noel; "March of the Three Kings," Provençal, 13th century.

The Scott string quartet will play "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn; "Andante Con Moto," from the Fifth Symphony, Beethoven; and "Molto Lento," Opus 17 No. 2, Rubinstein.

The choir will conclude with "Ukrainian Carol," (Ring Christmas Bells) by M. Leontovich; "Rise Up, Shepherds, an' Foller," Negro spiritual; and "A Joyful Christmas Song," Francis A. Gevaert.

Rev. Mr. Roach will pronounce the benediction, which will be followed by the postlude, "Adoremus Te" by Palestrina, played by Mrs. Grow.
