MR. AND MRS. ELTON JACKSON, who held open house at their home Sunday, Dec. 11, honoring the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Jackson. Left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Jackson

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Jackson celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary at a charming open house affair Sunday, Dec. 11, at the attractive home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jackson, at Winchester. Guests were asked to call between two and five o'clock in the afternoon.

The decorations carried out the ruby red motif as the ruby is the symbol of the fortieth wedding anniversary. The serving table was centered with ruby red carnations, matching chrysanthemums and two ruby-colored wedding bells flanked by red tapers. The fireplace mantel was centered with a large wedding ring with red carnations forming the ruby sets. Holly and heather completed the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were married December 14, 1909, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Findlay, in Edenbower. Rev. K. M. Meers performed the ceremony. Mr. Jackson is a former Sheriff of Douglas county and was grand master of the Grand Lodge of I.O.O.F. of Oregon in 1926-27.

During the reception, they enjoyed a telephone call from their son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. James F. Hilgenberg, (formerly Dorothy Dale Jackson) who are now stationed at the air force base in Omaha, Neb., since their recent return from Adak in the Aleutian islands. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brockley, former residents of Roseburg, called from Astoria to congratulate the Jacksons.

Mrs. Jackson was charming in a gown of turquoise blue trimmed with beaded embroidery. She wore an orchid corsage. Those assisting with the affair wore attractive formal afternoon gowns and corsages of gardenias.

Music for the occasion was played by Mrs. Bernard Saar, Mrs. Sam Warg, Mrs. Gordon Stewart and Carolyn Jackson. Serving from two to three o'clock were Mrs. J. Earl Picken, who poured; Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, serving the punch, and Mrs. Alvia Wetherell cutting the cake. From three to four o'clock, Miss Cora Doure, Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner, Mrs. Nettie Wilbur, Mrs. Ruth Plumer, Evelyn Cyrus, Marion Patrick, Edith Sullivan, Doris Garrett and Nancy Jeannette Meigs, Anna Carson, LaVerne Nickens and the hostess, Essie Olson.

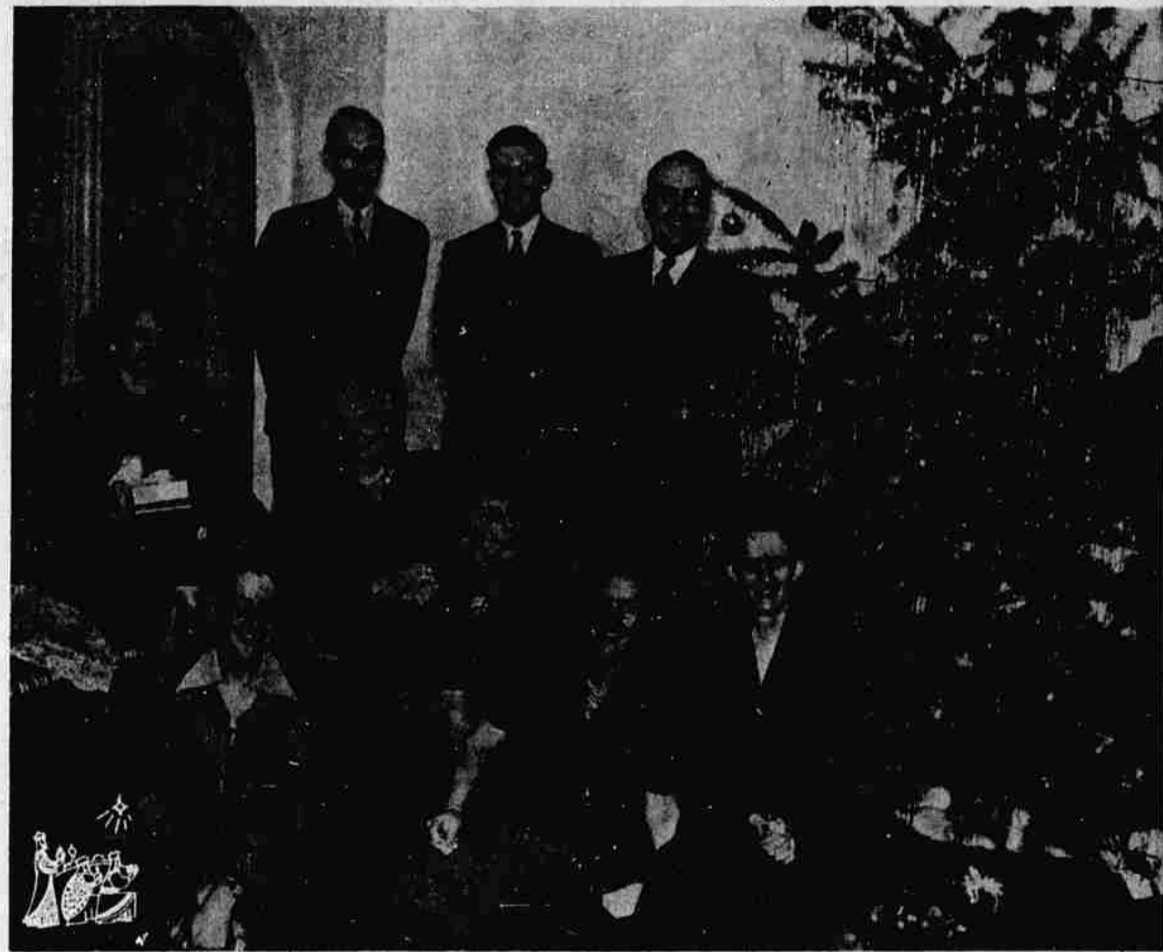

Gifts were exchanged by Secret Pals and cards and handkerchiefs were presented to those having birthdays in October, November and December.

The next meeting will be Dec. 30 at the home of the president, Mrs. Anna Peterson, 1026 Military street.
