Nobody's more human than people. Many of us complain to each other that our public officials aren't interested in economy. But when it comes to letting our congressmen, supervisors or councilmen know about it we're as silent as an about it we're as silent as an activity. pervisors or councilmen know about it we're as silent as an olled mouse. Most mail officials receive some from people who want handouts of some sort... so the idea grows that we all want something that doesn't include economy. If we really support the man we elect... both he and we might be pleasantly surprised. If you don't want anything, your public officials will be doubly happy to hear about it.

Setting a blistering pace from the floor and foul line, Iowa's Hawks romped to a one-sided 81-54 basketball victory lazz night over touring Oregon.

While the Ducks were absorbing the worst shellacking handed a northern division club this season, Washington State colle e returned to its home floor to snap a five-game losing streak. The Cougars nipped Central Washington 57-47.

The cage calendar is equally light tonight. Only one northern division coast conference team sees action, Washington State playing its second with Central Washington at Pullman. Seattle university goes to Portiand against Lewis & Clark and Idaho State goes across the border against British Columbia.

33 Of 41 Fouls

Iowa accounted for more than its 27-point victory margin at the foul line, converting 33 of the 41 shots allowed on 30 Oregon violations. The halftime count of 48.26 made a dead duck of the Oregon cause and the Northwest quintet failed to pick up in the second half against the Iowa reserves. Urban was the ione Oregon player to get into double figures, pacing the loser's scoring with 12 points. Oregon arrived at the field-house only 10 minutes before game time after traveling the last 90 miles to Iowa City by car when a minor wreck stalled their train at Clinton, Iowa, None of the players was hurt.

At Pullman, Washington State was hard put to beat out Central swashington despite the 10-point margin. The halttime count favored the Cougars 34.28 after a see-saw struggle. Lanky Gene Conley, WSC center, headed the victor's scoring with 12 points but bowed for individual honors to Fred Peterson, Central guard, who canned 16 points on eight long set shots.

Kiser, the Portlander who at one time was the most youthful matman ever to hold the coast light-heavy crown, is a spectacular performer who will fire away with sensational drop kicks and aerial maneuvers off the ropes against Young Detton, the brother of two top-flighters, Dorry and Dean. In defeating Billy McEuin recently, Detton used a spinning toehold to beat the veteran Texan.

O'Reilly won the title from Weaver in Pendleton recently and the return match is under NWA rules that allow the defeated titleholder a chance to regain his lost laurels. O'Reilly used a hammerlook in winning the title from Weaver, whose stepover toe hold and neckbreaker holds failed to pay off. Weaver, who missed last week's "Battle Royal" because of car trouble, has posted a $100 forfeit to guarantee his appaerance here this week.

O'Reilly, since his return to the I States two months ago, has lost only to The Great Atlas.

The Kiser-Detton opener will get underway at 8:30 p.m. Eiton Owen will referee both bouts.

Charlie Brickley, All-Time Great In Football, Dies

NEW YORK, Dec. 29 —(P)— Charlie Brickley of Harvard, one of the greatest drop kickers in American football history, died from a heart attack last night at the age of 58.

He was twice an all-America halfback—in 1913 and 1914—and in his three years for the crim-son set records that have never been surpassed.

In the 1913 Yale game, at the height of the Crimson's football heyday, he kicked five field goals for Harvard's only scoring and a 15-5 victory. Records Still Stand

Two of his records still stand. His 13 field goals in 1913 were the most ever kicked by a variety player in a single season. He also held the overall record of 34 goals out of 37 attempts for his three varsity years starting in 1911.

After graduating from Harvard he entered the brokerage busi-ness and in late years was an ad vertising salesman in New York. His death was discovered last night when a friend at the George Washington hotel heard groans coming from Brickley's room and called the house doctor. They entered with a pass key and found the former grid star lying on the floor. He was pronounced dead by Dr. Alan Moody, ambu-lance surgeon from Bellevue hos-rital

Coach Newby sent in a whole new team, but three more baskets by Amsburg, Craft and Don Hedgepath sent the Grants Pass total soaring. Dexter Garey sank the first two points for Roseburg, then Frank Olson, who turned in a good performance under the boards, tipped in Ronnie Strick-lling's attempted foul shot for an additional two points. In the second quarter, Olson and Strickling each added a point at the foul line, and Garey followed up with a field goal from 15 feet out, to end Roseburg scoring in that quarter. Fenner High Man Buster Fenner, high scoring Caveman with 11 counters, started hitting the hoop in the second quarter, garnered two field goals and a gift shot before the half ended. In the meantime, the orange and black organization scurried in vain from one end of the court to the other, looking like the victims of a game called "keep-away."

The visitors launched their drive with the opening whistle. Orv Miller, forward, took a pass after the jump and zipped the ball through for two points. The next four Cavemen points were
