Vets Told How To Handle Insurance

A four-point reminder which will assist World War II veterans in keeping their national service life insurance in force with little difficulty has been issued by the veterans administration.

Here are the four points:

1. Checks, money orders or postal notes sent to the VA in payment of NSLI premiums should be made payable to the Treasurer of the United States and not to the VA or to an individual or to cash.
2. Checks, money orders and postal notes should be identified with the name and address of the veteran, as well as his insurance number and service serial number.
3. Veterans shouldn't take chances by waiting until near the end of the 31-day grace period before mailing the VA their premium payment. By waiting, they run the risk of allowing their insurance to lapse.
4. Veterans making premium payments by mail should use the premium envelopes furnished by the VA. If they do not use this envelope, they should identify fully the remittance by giving full name, address, insurance number and armed forces serial number. Also, they should make certain they address the envelope to the Insurance Service, VA District Office, Exchange building, Seattle 4, Washington.

New-Born Baby Survives Operation After Flight

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A new-born baby girl, flown here from Medford, Ore., by the military transportation service, survived an emergency operation at Stanford hospital early today.

The child, less than a day old on her arrival, was flown here for surgery to relieve a rare intestinal malformation.

The baby, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ritter, was kept under an oxygen mask during the flight.

LOBBYING OUTLAWED

SACRAMENTO —(AP)— Governor Warren has signed into law the Collier Anti-Lobbying bill.

The Collier measure is patterned after the federal laws on lobbyists.

The governor selected this particular bill from among three handed to him by the special session legislature which he called to enact anti-lobbying laws.

Ex-Gangster, In Delusion, Kills Wife By Mistake

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—(AP)—A one-time gangster whose testimony sent his pals to prison 16 years ago, awoke in a daze on Friday and fatally shot his wife, thinking "my old gang had come to get me."

Police Capt. John Enright said Julius Jones, 52, told him he fired on his wife, Grace, 45, and a man Jones had paid to escort her home from a neighborhood tavern. The man, John Fitzgerald, 50, was wounded slightly on the scalp and one ear. Mrs. Jones died of a bullet wound in the abdomen.

Capt. Enright quoted Jones as saying he had been living in fear of his life since he turned state's evidence in a kidnaping case in 1933.

When Mrs. Jones and Fitzgerald entered the Jones apartment early today, Jones said, he started up from his sleep and began firing.

"I thought members of my old gang had come to get me," he told police.

Jones fired six shots from a re-

Wife Kills Husband As He Embraces Her Rival

COLUMBUS, Miss., Dec. 30.—(AP)—A 36-year-old wife hysterically told police she killed her husband when she caught him in the arms of another woman.

Police headquarters reported a charge of murder was filed last night against Mrs. Vergie Holliday. She was under armed guard at a hospital where she was taken because of hysteria.

Mrs. Estelle Moore, 35, estranged wife of a greenhouse foreman, is being held in city jail as a material witness, police said.

The butterfly fish often swims backwards, its tail appearing to be its head.

Police said he kept under his pillow for protection.

Jones was indicted for the 1931 kidnaping of James J. Hackett who was ransomed after three days on payment of $75,000.

At the trial of the kidnaper, Jones turned state's evidence and was not sent to prison. His alleged accomplices received sentences ranging from 35 years to life.
