30 Football Teams To Vie Over Country

East-West Grid Classic Pits Behemoths; Rose Bowl To Draw 100,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—(AP)—Now come the battles of the bowls—three today and a dozen on Monday—with 30 football teams ending the season's hysteria.

The two day program offers one of the most enticing of all Bowl weekends. There haven't been many year-ends when so many major attractions figured so close, on paper, anyway.

The 15 games are expected to draw some 650,000 fans and total receipts of more than $2,500,000. Many more, of course, will sit in at a distance by television and radio, wherever available.

The punting, passing and pushing starts today with the East-West Shrine charity clash at San Francisco; the Blue-Gray contest at Montgomery, Ala., also an all-star affair pitting seniors from North and South against each other, and the Raisin bowl meeting at Fresno, Calif., between San Jose (Calif.) and Texas Tech.

The program hits high gear on Monday, which will feature the Rose bowl at Pasadena, the Cotton bowl at Dallas, the Sugar bowl at New Orleans, and the Orange bowl at Miami, Fla.

The East rules a 7 1/2 pound favorite over the West and has one of its most powerful squads of all time. It will have Army's Arnold Gifford pitching passes to another all American, Notre Dame's end extraordinary, Leon Hart.

The biggest crowd of all—103,000—looks for Monday's Rose bowl extravaganza in which Pappy Waldorf's Golden Bears of California are a 6-point favorite to beat the Big Ten's representative, Ohio State.

Oklahoma's Sooners, unbeaten and untied in their 10 regular games and second only to Notre Dame in the AP standings, are favored by eight points to beat ninth-ranked Louisiana State (3-2-0) in the Sugar bowl.

Rice is the choice by 7 1/2 points over North Carolina in the Cotton Bowl, where attendance figures to be around 75,000.

The Orange bowl will accommodate an estimated 65,000 for the game between Kentucky and Santa Clara, which seems a virtual toss-up. Kentucky's Wildcats are a 3-point pick with most odds makers.

The Gator bowl game at Jacksonville, Fla., where 35,000 persons are expected, brings together Missouri and Maryland and this one really has the experts stumped.

Rounding out Monday's bowl schedule are: Sun Bowl, El Paso, Tex., Georgetown (D.C.) vs. Texas Western; Cigar Bowl, Tampa, Fla., Wake Forest vs. Florida State; Pineapple Bowl, Honolulu, Hawaii vs. Hawaii; Tangerine bowl, Orlando, Fla., Emory and Henry vs. St. Vincent (Pa.); Oleander Bowl, Galveston, Tex., McMurry (Tex.) vs. Missouri Valley; Salad Bowl, Phoenix, Ariz., Arizona State (Tempe) vs. Xavier (Ohio); Prairie View Bowl, Houston, Tex., Fisk vs. Prairie View.

Boxer Slightly Improved After Knockout Battle NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—(AP)—Carmine Vingo, 20-year-old Bronx boxer, was slightly improved today "but still definitely on the critical list" at St. Clare's hospital after suffering the first knockout of his brief career. Earlier the fighter was given no more than an even chance of surviving. Dr. Vincent Nardiello, New York State Athletic commission physician, said last night Vingo was in "very serious" condition after being stopped by Rocky Marciano, unbeaten Brockton, Mass. heavyweight, at 1:46 of the sixth round at Madison Square Garden. Nardiello said X-rays of the injured fighter revealed "a brain contusion, a very serious thing—much more serious than a concussion, as if the brain had been torn." Vingo's left side is paralyzed but it will take 24 or 48 hours before the real extent of his injuries can be determined. Much depends on his reaction after rest. Last rites of the Roman Catholic church were administered during the night. The boxer, who celebrated his 20th birthday Thursday, regained consciousness momentarily in the ring after he was counted out. But he lapsed again and was carried to his dressing room on a stretcher. Later he was removed to the nearby hospital where X-rays showed no signs of a fracture. Referee Harry Ebbs, a former light heavyweight boxer, said Vingo banged his head hard on the ring padding when he went down from a left uppercut that sprawled him on his back.
