

Roseburg To Greet 1950

Roseburg will greet the New Year this evening in varied forms. Many will observe the quiet of their own homes listening to the New Year as it chimes its way across the country from coast to coast, via radio.

Others will seek "watch parties" in churches throughout the country and many granges are participating in social nights for their members. Private homes will be the scenes of smaller groups, having invited friends in for an evening of sociability.

Largest event will be at the Terrace ballroom in the Elks temple where the lodge with its large membership will hold its annual New Year's ball. Music for the occasion this year is being furnished by the Elks orchestra. Ladies in their formal gowns, noise makers and confetti will turn the ball room into a gala sight at midnight.

The Roseburg Country club members have been anticipating New Year's eve celebration for several weeks and reservations for their dance have been filled for some time.

As a climax, the double holiday find businesses throughout the state observing Monday as a free day from work. This will see an influx of visitors and Roseburgers on the highway visiting relatives and friends. Unfortunately for the younger generation, Tuesday morning will mean, "return to school" and a long stretch ahead until the next vacation day.

Public Ceremony Sees New Officers Installed For Jobs' Daughters Bethel

Miss Rose Emily Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond was installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 8, Daughters of Job, Thursday evening at the Masonic temple. Retiring honored queen is Miss Joanne Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Taylor. Majority degree was given three girls and the Book of Gold closed the evening's program.

Installing officers for the evening were Joanne Taylor, honored queen; Kay Holmes, guide; Susan Motschenbacher, marshal; Athalie Marcel, secretary; Ann Carter, chaplain; Georgene Shanklin, musician; Cynthia Turner, senior custodian and Lorraine Losee, junior custodian.

Assisting the new honored queen during her six months' term will be Joanne Ware, senior princess; Paula Helweg, junior princess; Mary Ellen Holbrook, guide; Nancy Allen, marshal; Molly Booth, first messenger; Carolyn Burr, second messenger; Marlene Jewel, third messenger; Barbara Brand, fourth messenger; Pat Humphrey, fifth messenger; Sandra Melba, chaplain; Donna Ellison, musician; Barbara West, recorder; Lois Patterson, treasurer; Marcia Newland, librarian; Joyce Knudson, senior custodian; Hallie Bond, junior custodian; Virginia Bouse, inner guard; Loneta Kelley, outer guard; Carolyn Pattison, assistant recorder; Janice Johnson, custodian of lights; Sue Brown, historian; Anne Mellis, scribe and Shirley Saar, choir director. Receiving their majority degree were three: Irene Trapolis, Geraldine Knudson Walker and Nancy Caskey Boyer. Installing officers for this degree were Miss Taylor, queen; Ann Carter, senior princess; Lorraine Losee, junior princess; Kay Holmes, guide; Susan Motschenbacher, marshal; Cynthia Turner, chaplain; Anne Mellis, first messenger; Sue Brown, second messenger; Yvonne Hlatt, third messenger; Shirley Helweg, fourth messenger; Christina Trapolis, fifth messenger and Janice Plummer, musician.

Honors and escorts included past honored queens, past guardians and associate guardians, past grand guardians, and supreme officers. Out-of-town visiting officers included Roy Colburn of Myrtle Creek, associate guardian of that Bethel.

An impressive flower drill was presented by a group of Daughters of Job at which time the girls offered the new honored queen, Miss Bond an arm bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Miss Sandra Melba sang a vocal number.

Maurice Newland, associate guardian of the Bethel, made the presentation of the past honored queen's pin to the retiring queen, Miss Taylor. Many brief talks by those in attendance highlighted the successful work of the retiring officers.

This public meeting was closed by the "Book of Gold" with little Katy Cunningham acting as the angel for the ceremony. Soloist for the evening was Miss Harriet Booth, who is spending the holidays in Roseburg with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Booth. She is a student at Willamette university.

You can prepare a fruit cup for a crowd easily: mix a quart of cubed oranges with a cup of canned pineapple cubes, (including the pineapple syrup), a cup of sliced bananas and a half cup of drained maraschino cherries; sprinkle with a half cup of sugar and a few tablespoons of lemon juice. Serve with crisp cookies.

CHRISTMAS BALL IS ENJOYED BY SORORITY CHAPTERS FRIDAY NIGHT

Alpha Chi and Beta Gamma chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority members and their invited guests enjoyed a charming Christmas ball at the Roseburg Country clubhouse Friday evening.

Fir boughs, huge pine cones, mistletoe, two Christmas trees, holly and festive candles decorated the ballroom. Lovely refreshments were served. Music was furnished by Mrs. Leon Hughes. Mrs. Robert Elliott was chairman of the decorations.

BOBBY REED HONORED ON SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Bobby Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Reed, entertained a group of his friends at a birthday party, December 14, when he was six years old. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which Bobby received many gifts from his friends.
