Pirates Show Fine Form In Hitting Basket

Local Team Keeps Up Enthusiasm, Despite One-Sided Contest

The Roseburg Indians chalked up their sixth loss in seven starts this season, when the Marshfield Pirates dumped them 66-40 Friday night at the senior high gymnasium.

However, it must be said that the Indians looked good to the fans in losing. Not once did the nearly-full section of seated fans display a "lost cause" attitude over the local's continued inability to gain the lead—or come anywhere near tying up the game.

The orange and black-clad lads fought the visitors under the baskets and up and down the court, displaying a good sense of timing and aggressiveness all the way.

A battery of sharp-shooting Pirate talent continually pecked away at the bucket, ringing up point after point. The Indians on the other hand, showed up to be an eager, but highly inaccurate group of basketeurs.

Time after time Roseburg shooters failed to connect after repeated shots at the basket. The Indians' loss could not be charged to lack of headwork. It boiled down simply to lack of aim.

But not so the Pirates. It made little difference if a visiting thud was under the net or 30 feet out; the ball sailed unerringly through the hoop.

Sparking the visitors were Barney Holland, who totaled 19 points, including three free throws; Wayne Frostad, with 11 points, and Milt Schultz and Ron Robbins, each with 10.

Roseburg's Dexter Garey led the locals with four free throws and five field goals, for a total of 14 points. Two desperation tosses from near-midcourt by Garey brought down the house as the ball twanged the twine.

Ronnie Strickling continued to be the top-notch tussler under the boards, while Frank Olson, the only man to foul out, and Buddy Mathews made themselves known to the visitors in this area.

Both clubs committed 20 fouls apiece. Marshfield made 14 free throws good to Roseburg's 12.

Marshfield took the initial lead from the starting jump, held it for the duration of the game. Roseburg trailed miserably at the end of the first quarter, 24-8. The Indians sneaked up before the half ended and were behind only 37-21 during intermission.

The visitors roared ahead again in the third frame, widening the gap in the score to 58-20. In the final stanza, the Indians picked up somewhat against the visiting second team and came within 26 points of tying up the game at the final gun.

Tonight, the Indians attempt to repay the Pirates back in kind. They will travel to Coos Bay to do it. According to informed sources, it will be impossible for Indian fans to gain admittance at the Marshfield gymnasium, due to the expected large local turnout there.

Roseburg's JVR Team Wins Over Oakland 66-40

Roseburg JVR's launched their 1950 basketball career by defeating Oakland town team 66-40 Thursday night at Oakland.

The JVR's built up a 14-9 lead at the end of the first quarter, parleyed it into a 30-19 lead at the half, then roared ahead 49-24 as the third quarter ended.

John Bates, brilliant JVR forward, sparked the local team in the scoring department, getting seven field goals and two free throws for 16 points.

Garey Piper, JVR reserve guard and Oakland's Rice, each with 13 points, were runners up for scoring honors. Bill Benson with 11 and Bob Schindler, with 10 points, respectively, also helped the JVR's pile up their big win margin.

The JVR's sponsored by J.V. Sporting goods store and Rainbow cafe, will next play the famous Red Heads, a traveling all-girl team scheduled to hit Roseburg the night of January 16.

This red-hot tussle will be played at senior high school and all proceeds over costs will go to one of the school sports programs in the city.

Charlie Grimm Resigns To Manage Dallas Club

CHICAGO, Jan. 7 (AP)—Charlie Grimm, an affable Dutchman who has been virtually an institution with the Chicago Cubs, may not as high as $50,000 yearly as the new manager of the Dallas baseball club of the Texas league.

After a conference with Cub owner P. K. Wrigley, Grimm resigned yesterday as the club's vice president—a "brief case" job that threatened to add a wrinkle of worry to Grimm's usually bright and smiling face.

Grimm said he belonged on the field, not in a swivel chair. Dallas' millionaire oilman owner, Dick Burnett, is will to grant his wish. The two will meet in Dallas Jan. 13 to certify the deal.

Burnett seems willing to top "Cholly's" club salary reported at about $25,000. Grimm also will receive a percentage of the gate and conduct an annual baseball school. Dallas set a Texas league attendance record last season of 404,000 in a fifth place finish.

Put it all together, and observers believe the Dutchman's take might be near $50,000.

Junior Varsity Loses To Pirates

North West's junior varsity warriors fared none too well against Marshfield junior varsity last night at senior high school in a preliminary game to the Indian-Pirates varsity clash.

West's lads lost by a convincing 55-28 count. Marshfield held a decisive lead all the way with quarter scores reading 61, 17-8 and 38-19.

Lloyd Hoffine and Spike Hillstrom of the visitors paced the scorers, with 10 points apiece, while Roseburg's Leroy Elting led the locals with nine points.

The warriors were good on eight out of 19 free throws, while Marshfield Jayvees sank seven out of 10 at the gift line.

Garey Piper and Bob Schindler officiated, called nine fouls on Roseburg and 15 on Marshfield. Roseburg JV 28 Marshfield JV 55

Robinson-Fusari Now In Making

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP)—A Ray Robinson-Charlie Fusari welter title match is in the making unless somebody backs down.

"I'll fight Fusari for half the purse," said Sugar Ray, the welter champ, last night. Robinson was in a name-calling mood because of charges of "runout champ" from the Fusari camp.

"We'll be there to sing," said Vic Marsilio, Fusari's manager. The Fusari party leaves tonight for Detroit where the Irvington N. J. boxer meets Tony Janiro Wednesday.

The meeting is supposed to take place today at Madison Square Garden. One or both may not show up after they've slept on it.

Marsilio started the "feud" when he charged Robinson with being the "runout champ" in a radio interview. Sugar Ray listened and burned.

After George (Sugar) Costner, 147 1/4, Fusari's Camden, N. J. stablemate, whipped Gene Burton 146 1/2, Robinson's Mariem stablemate, last night at the Garden, Ray and Vic started calling names.

Robinson is signed to fight Costner in an over-the-weight scrap at Philadelphia, Feb. 22. Ray says he has been ill and hints he may not be ready. Sid Glassman, Philadelphia promoter, says he'll have Robinson before the State Athletic commission to see how sick he is.

Tumbling Team Attracts During Game Halftime

An interesting halftime entertainment, featuring Jack Newcomb's tumbling team, occupied the fans while Marshfield and Roseburg varsity basketeurs were lectured by their respective coaches between halves at last night's game.

John Gaffney and Neil Sheets proved it is nearly as easy to fly through the air, sans airplane as it is to walk about on the floor. The talented pair was supported by an equally adept cast consisting of Billy Palmer, Gordon Ross, David Burks, Doug Troy and Don Nicholson, the latter being higher than an Oregon midget.

Sailing over six of his competitors and walking up the side of a wall, using no hands, were some of the astounding feats performed.

Oregon Wins Over WSC In Close Contest

Ducks And Huskies Hold First Place Northern Division Conference Tie

By The Associated Press

Two teams low-rated by the experts in pre-season calculations—the hustling Huskies of Washington and Oregon's in-and-out Ducks—found themselves at the top of the Pacific Coast conference Northern Division heap today.

Both won the opening games of the regular basketball campaign last night. Washington, sparked by two battling guards, easily took Idaho into camp at the Husky Pavilion, 67-43. Oregon got its gears meshing smoothly to down Washington State at Eugene, 51-48.

The same foes square off in the second games of the weekend series tonight with no change of location.

The Huskies' victory was their 11th in 12 starts, including pre-season encounters. Trailing 12-11 early in the game, they came back with a rush to score 17 points while holding the outmanned Idaho Vandals to one. The margin at halftime was 37-18.

Just as they did in earlier King's-X tilts, guards Frank Guinness and Louie Soriano topped the Washington scoring. Guinness, roaming the forecourt, fired from all angles to pour in 18 points. He also was the key man of his team's defense. Soriano, nicknamed "The Bulldog" for his persistent drive, was close behind with 17. Forward Bob Pritchett and guard Dick Gelsler shared high point honors for Idaho with 10 apiece.

Washington State, picked to cop the division crown, lost its second game of the week in three starts on the road as Oregon closed with a last-minute rush to overcome a 48-46 deficit.

After leading 28-23 at the half, the Ducks fell behind with three minutes to go. From a 32-32 deadlock earlier in the second period the score was knotted six times before big Gene Conley, WSC's sophomore sensation, hooked in a field goal to put the Cougars ahead 47-6. A free throw by Ed Gayda added another point. But a bucket by the Ducks' Ed Lavay tied it again and Dale Warberg's charity toss put the Oregonians ahead for good. They controlled the ball nearly all the way for the rest of the game as the two-minute rule went into effect.

Conley was high man with 21 points. Paul Sowers, back in the lineup after being sidelined for some time with a back injury, topped the Ducks with 15.

Cold weather slows migration of fish

Cold weather has so slowed the migration of winter steelhead that "not a single fish has been seen at the Winchester counting station since Dec. 29," reports Ross Newcomb, resident game department biologist.

Continued cold water temperatures through December held the count to the lowest figure for this date during five years of tabulation. Indications are that there is a normal run of fish in the lower river, Newcomb reports, but they are not moving. Records show that migration slows appreciably when water temperature drops to 40 degrees. Few days during December have had water temperature above 40 degrees, Newcomb said. Only 154 steelhead passed through the station between Dec. 15 and 29 bringing the total to date to 489 as compared with 1274 for the same period in 1948, 1485 in 1947, 1126 in 1946 and 934 in 1945.

Osanski Resigns Post As Coach At Holy Cross

CHICAGO, Jan. 7 (AP)—It's back to dentistry for Dr. William T. Osanski, known as Bronco Bill, in his fullback playing days with the Chicago Bears.

Osanski has resigned as head football coach at Holy Cross. Three years of a five year contract, calling for a reported $12,000 annually, remained.

His resignation followed the most disastrous football season in Holy Cross history.

Oakland Defeats Canyonville Team 47-26 Thursday

Canyonville Tigers were defeated 47-26 by the Oakland Oaks in an inter-sectional basketball game at Canyonville Thursday night.

In a volleyball preliminary, Oakland girls set the tempo of the evening by edging out the Canyonville Tigresses 21-20.

Oakland led 9-8 in the basketball thriller at the end of the first quarter, then Rice and Hill, two Oakland pace-setters burned up the net with well-aimed shots and Oakland led 24-13 at the half.

Rice, with 28 points, paced the scorers. Hill turned in a 19-point mark for the evening. Tiger center Bill Hoffee and Lawrence Armstrong each scored nine points, to lead the losers.

The Oakland girls jumped into a 4-1 lead, but Canyonville bounced back to pace the visitors 14-10 at the half.

In the second half, the Oakland girls hustled ahead and kept the lead to the end.

They Ford, Canyonville, played a good game during the first half, scoring five points. Ina Mae Spencer, Betty Clark and Dana Baird also turned in good performances, although not nearly as good as in former games, according to Coach Ronald Krasky.

Dana Lee and Ruby Baily, with seven and six points respectively, were leading scorers.

Baylor Coach Woodruff Signed At Florida U.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 7 (AP)—Bob Woodruff, 34-year-old head coach at Baylor university for the past three years, is the new head football coach and athletic director at the University of Florida.

He signed a seven year contract, calling for a salary of $17,000 a year, at a board of control meeting here last night.

He succeeds Raymond (Bear) Wolf, who resigned recently under pressure after four disappointing seasons and who since has joined the Tulane university coaching staff as an assistant.

Woodruff, a native of Georgia, played college football at the University of Tennessee, where he started his coaching career as an assistant in 1939.

Champion Eagles Take Over $1,000 For Game

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7 (AP)—The champion Philadelphia Eagles got $1,094.68 per man for defeating the Los Angeles Rams in the National Football league's final championship game last month.

Each member of the Rams received $739.66. Commissioner Bert Bell said yesterday in releasing a financial statement on the game played in Los Angeles. Paid attendance for the title contest was 27,980, with gross receipts, including radio, $149,244.80.

Horticulturalists have developed a full line of midget fruit trees that grow to only a few feet tall.

Riddle Players Come Back To Beat Glide 27-23

Coach Art Brown's Riddle Irish came back from a nightmarish first half against Glide basketballers to go on and win 27-23 Tuesday at Riddle. The Riddle junior varsity didn't fare nearly so well. They dropped their fifth game this season 21-20 against Glide Jaycees.

The Riddle varsity, after trailing 15-4 at the half, started to click in the third quarter, scored 14 points to Glide's two, to take a one point lead at the half, 18-17.

As the fourth quarter opened, Glide immediately picked up a 20-18 lead, but Riddle again went ahead and won. Riddle's four points in the first half were scored on the free throw line.

Luckley, Riddle forward, was high scorer with 11 points. He was paced by Eaton of Glide, with 10.

In the jaycee tilt, the score was 20-20 with 15 seconds of play left. Hodges of Glide drew a foul shot and made it good for the winning margin. Riddle's inability to hit at the free throw line cost them the game.

Joe Louis Wins Easy Over Willie Bean Of LA

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 7 (AP)—Joe Louis was master of the situation all the way in a six-round exhibition match with Willie Bean, 21, Los Angeles heavyweight, last night.

The retired champion, suffering from a cold, didn't extend himself and kept an easy left flicking in Bean's face. Only in the sixth did the big mitt-master appear to put any steam behind his 14-ounce gloves.

Bean made a game stab at fighting back. He scaled 207 and Louis 220.
