WOMAN'S CLUB GUEST DAY AND SCHOLARSHIP LOAN FUND TEA-TUESDAY
Guest day will be observed at the annual scholarship loan fund tea to be held by the Roseburg Woman's club at the Methodist church parlors next Tuesday at one-thirty o'clock. A silver offering will be taken for the fund, which benefits a Pan-American scholarship.

Members and friends are also asked to bring articles to be sent in the box to Denmark, a project which was started at the last meeting and was held over to this meeting to allow more members to contribute to the box. Anyone desiring further information on the articles to be sent are asked to telephone the President, Mrs. J. M. Boyles at 181.

Mrs. Ruth Chandler, Hillsboro, state president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. James Gault, Corvallis, district president, plan to be present for this meeting.

The tea table will carry out the Panama theme and will be in charge of Mrs. Horace C. Berg and Mrs. L. G. Twoby, co-chairmen. Mrs. Clyde Carstens will have charge of the program. All members are asked to invite guests and enjoy this annual tea and program.

SHIPS NEAR NORMAL

BRUSSELS —(AP)— Belgium's merchant fleet has almost recovered prewar dimensions. Until Sept. 30, 1949 one hundred ships were flying the Belgian tricolor with a gross tonnage of 414,779. This compares with the 101 ships in the fleet as of May, 1940, when Belgium was invaded. They had a gross weight of 433,000 tons.

bonds and paying the interest will total $89,054,865.

The sale assures payment of the multi-million dollar bonus to Washington veterans. Another $10,000,000 bond issue will be sold later if the $70,000,000 issue is insufficient to meet all bonus payments.

Window Shopping with Corinne

What can you do to keep the kids happy indoors on stormy days? Why, you can take them to LESTER'S GIFT AND MODEL SHOP and choose a hobby kit. Les has all kinds of wood and plastic model kits for making everything from mechanical models to jewelry. A new one is the Model-Craft hobby kit for making statuettes of plaster. The kit contains rubber molds, model powder, and paints and brushes for the finishing touch. The accompanying catalog shows the results you get from Disney or Western molds, and from molds for cars or Christmas characters. You can buy other molds separately, for only 50c each. Have fun, kids!

Is filling Dad's lunch bucket a problem? Then CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY, 314 N. Jackson, has the solution. There are luscious fresh apple turnovers for a wholesome dessert, and a variety of home-baked breads for nutritious sandwiches. Dad will be especially pleased with sandwiches made with good, rich home-made milk loaf. Or get one of his special favorites, like American or Russian Rye, Dutch Crunch or French Sourdough bread, Potato bread or 100% wheat. All of them have that grand home-made flavor, and are fresh from Cleo's own ovens. Stop in at Cleo's this weekend for anything you need in bakery goods now and the first of the week.

Keep your face to the sunshine and you cannot see the shadows.

Free!
Yes, that's what Mac at the ICE CREAMERY said! He'll give a quart of his own home-made ice cream to some lucky person each week. If you aren't the lucky one this week, you can buy a quart to take home for an out-of-season dessert that will be a welcome change for your family. Of flavors, there are all the old favorites, plus butterscotch, lemon custard, butter pecan, black walnut, and cherry garden. It's hand-packed, too, and "high-packed" for generous measure. The lucky winner of the free quart of ice cream is James O. Stone, who lives on Shenandoah Avenue. Clip this coupon out of Window Shopping, Mr. Stone, and present it to Mr. McDonald any day next week, for your free ice cream.

It's time now for that Valentine portrait you'll want to give to a dear one this year. Go to CLARK'S STUDIO, 105 S. Jackson, for your sitting. They'll make a lovely portrait and mount it or frame it suitably and to your taste. Don't forget your parents, your children, your husband, wife, or sweetheart, on February 14th. And don't forget that the sweetest way to say "Be my Valentine" is with a "speaking" likeness of yourself. That's the kind you get at Clark's. Better see about it soon, now, with Valentine's only a month away.

You'll be telling your P. T. A. about this. It's a child's record-player and you must see it right away at MILLER'S RADIO RECORD SHOP. Made by RCA Victor and especially designed for children, it plays 45 rpm recordings. It's not a tiny toy. This record player has all the features of any other $39.95 model, including built-in speaker. Comes decorated with your choice of Western or Disney characters on white background, and an album of children's records is given free with your purchase. Ken Bushey says to tell you, too, to watch for the new Yogi Yorgesson recording, "The Birds and the Bees." Sounds like a dilly.

Too many persons live in a vacuum, blind and deaf to the loveliness of nature.

"Something new has been added" by JOSSÉ'S Decorating Department. It's a new service for all of us homemakers who enjoy fixing things up to look nice. Don't we all have a favorite lamp base that needs a new shade? Now we can take the old shade frame to Jossé's and have it re-covered to match the base. The shade can be made any way you like, either frilly or tailored, from any cloth fabric, lined or unlined, and in any color combination. It will be hand done, and will require about 30 days for completion. And what a satisfaction to see your favorite lamp back in use again!

LUVERNE'S has new wool suits by Pettit, specialist in designing clothes for hard-to-fit Junior figures. A 4-button jacket of pastel tweed in blue, rose, or sunny yellow, is trimmed with four patch pockets. The jacket is fully rayon lined, and the matching skirt has a stitched fly front. Wool gabardine in blue or gold has a double row of self buttons, concealed pockets with semi-circular flaps, and narrow cuffs on the close-fitting sleeves. A gracefully flaring skirt goes with the fitted jacket, which has a soft flare over the hip and a soft shawl-type collar. Hurry, hurry to Luvérne's, while these lovely Pettit suits are still available in your size.

If you are loaded for bear, don't waste your ammunition on chipmunks.

How about that New Year's resolution to improve yourself? Isn't it about time you did something about it? Something like coming 'round to the STUDIO OF DANCE ARTS, on the second floor at 220 N. Main, for the new dancing class that is forming right now. Only one more week to enroll for this series of five lessons, you know. The class meets every Wednesday evening at eight, with Mickey Hard instructing. Whether you are already able to find your way around a dance floor, or not, you'll be perfectly at home with the rest of us novices. Mickey will teach us the fox trot, rhumba, samba, and waltz during the course of these lessons. Call him at 1517-Y after 6 p.m. any evening, and ask about the fee. It's very reasonable.
