Footprints Give Away Location Of Culprits

PORTLAND — (AP) — Footprints in the snow led to the citation of two 17-year-old youths on a charge of turning in a false fire alarm.

After firemen responded to an alarm only to discover no fire, police looked at the alarm box. Footprints led to a house four blocks off.

The officers said two boys in the house admitted setting the alarm.

FRENCH TROOPS ROUTED

BANGKOK, Thailand (Siam), Jan. 14. — (AP) — The Vietnam republic's office here asserted today French forces "annihilated" 18 French posts, killed 402 French soldiers and wounded 158 in a recent offensive in northern Indochina.

Dedication Held At Green School

Green school was dedicated Friday evening, Jan. 6, following the P.T.A. meeting. John Clark was master of ceremonies. The program was followed by open house and a social hour. Arrangements for the evening were in charge of Mrs. Russell Steinhauer, Green P.T.A. program chairman.

Mary Lynn Holm presented an instrumental solo, "America The Beautiful," followed by the fifth grade students giving the flag salute. Mrs. John Cornilser, president of the P.T.A., welcomed the audience and a brief history of Green school was presented by Clyde Fullerton and Robert Adams.

Features of the new school were discussed by Cleo Jenkins, architect. The keys were presented by Elmer Lander, chairman of the school board, and a response given by W. E. Stonebraker, principal of the school. A Bible was given the school from the Gideon organization by Otto Jones followed by a vocal solo, "Bless This House," by Helen Taylor, sung by Elwyn H. Pocock, accompanied by Nona Hayes.

Congratulations were extended the Green school district upon its new school building by the Douglas county superintendent of schools, Kenneth Barneburg, Rev.
