Elkton King's Romance With Young Girl Still Mystery

By PHYLIS A. SMITH
Bad weather forced the delay of the installation of the newly elected officers of the Elkton Oddfellow and Rebekah lodges until Jan. 21.

Telephone service and electrical service has been frequently interrupted because of the stormy weather.

At the recent meeting of the Elkton city council the outstanding bills were ordered paid. The council is still marking time until the property in the city can be reassessed this year. Plans for a garbage pickup are being discussed.

Mrs. James Gates and her two small daughters have been vacationing with a sister in Rainier, Wash.

Mrs. Arthur Mode and Mrs. Lester Riley and children, Bruce and Dixie, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sawyers at San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Lidia Palmer and son, Stanley, of Vancouver, B.C. who have been visiting with the Frank Madisons have returned home. While they were here another son, Roy Palmer of Portland also visited here.

Frances Hedden was released from the hospital Sunday.

The Kellogg people enjoyed a dance at the Grange hall last Saturday night without electricity. They lighted the hall with a few gas lanterns.

Your reporter is pleased to report that her husband is finally on the road to recovery at the Eugene hospital. Robert Smith was seriously ill when complications of peritonitis and pneumonia set in during an appendectomy last week. During his illness Mrs. Smith spent most of her time in the Eugene hospital. The grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith took care of the children.

Mrs. Donald Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arna Johnson is recovering from a recurrent attack of undulant fever.

The natives of the Marianas Islands are Chamorro, which in Portuguese means people "with cropped hair." They were so named by Magellan.

The word "volcano" comes from the Latin form (Vulcanus) of the name given by the ancient Romans to their god of fire, Vulcan.

The new office, the first of its kind at Sutherlin, was established following consolidation of two locals, 3071 and 2814, in December. The office opening followed the election by the consolidation of a business agent, Merle E. Taylor, who will manage the office.

Wise Mothers FIND NEW RELIEF!

For STUFFINESS, COUGHS of COLDS

Wise mothers know how really effective Vicks VapoRub is when you rub it on.

Now, for amazing new relief when colds cause coughing, upper bronchial congestion, or that "stuffed-up" feeling, modern mothers use VapoRub this special way, too — in steam! It brings relief almost instantly.

Put 1 or 2 good spoonfuls of VapoRub in a vaporizer or bowl of boiling water, as directed in package. Then . . . breathe in soothing, medicated vapors. Every breath eases coughing, relieves that "chokey" feeling. For continued relief—even while you sleep—rub it on, too.
