EDUCATORS AND P.T.A. WORKERS TO MEET AT CONFERENCE JAN. 19TH

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth. Leading educators and national experts in parent-teacher-community relations will confer with Oregon P.T.A. officers at the first Oregon College Conference on Parent-Teacher Cooperation here Jan. 19. Purpose of the conference is to bring about adoption of a community study course in every teacher-training college in the state.

Mrs. H. H. Hargreaves, Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers president, and Dr. H. M. Gunn, the state director of elementary teacher training and president of OCE, will be hosts to the conference.

Attending will be teacher training directors and delegates from every Oregon college now training teachers. One of the top national experts to speak at the morning session is Dr. Eldridge T. McSwain, famous for his work in community relations at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Dr. McSwain was a speaker at the Oregon Education Association Convention in Portland last spring.

Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, a pioneer worker in the movement for this added factor in teacher education, will preside at the conference. Mrs. Moorhead, of Eugene, is first vice president of the Oregon Congress.

Dr. Ray Hawk of W. Washington Teachers College, Bellingham, Wash., and Supt. of Schools George Corwin of Monmouth-Independence will be speakers at workshop sessions in the afternoon. Both attended the Northwestern summer school under Dr. McSwain as delegates from Washington and Oregon P.T.A. congresses. Corwin won his scholarship for his outstanding professional work with the pilot community study course at OCE, where this work has been a part of the curriculum for two years. The conference will offer a definite program for proposed study of community cooperation between parent and school, and advocate adoption of such study into the curriculum of all of Oregon's teacher training colleges.

Leaders in education expected to attend the conference include: Dr. Rex Putnam, State Supt. of Public Instruction; Dr. A. L. Strand, president, OSC; Dr. Harry K. Newburn, president, U. of O.; Mr. Roben Maaske, president, EOCE; Dr. Elmo N. Stevenson, president, SOCE; Dr. Harry Dillin, president, Linfield College; Rev. Theodore J. Mehling, president, U. of Portland; Sister M. Rose Augusta, president, Maryhurst College; Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president, Lewis & Clark College; Dr. Stephen Epler, Vancor Extension Center; Mr. Viron Moore, Director of State-Wide Classes, Extension Division; Dean Ava Milam, OSC; Dr. Franklin Zeran and Dr. F. A. Gilfillan of OSC's School of Education; Dr. Theodore Kraft and Dr. R. W. Leighton of U. of O.; Miss Martha Shull, president, OEA; Mr. Cecil Posey, OEA Secretary; Miss Jan Robb, Secretary, National Ed. Association; Dr. Paul Rehms and Dr. V. D. Bain of the Portland school system, and many more.
