R. H. S. Quintet Victor Over Myrtle Creek

Indians Post Triumph By 35-27 Score After Three Quarters' Close Playing

A fired up Myrtle Creek Viking five nearly tripped coach Jack Newby's vaunted Indians, but in the fourth payoff quarter, the locals lumbered out of their lethargy and went on to win, 35-27, here last night.

The surprising squad from Myrtle Creek caused Newby no little worry for most of three quarters, with the score separation too close for comfort.

Frosty Loghry's Vikings started out with a bang; built up a neat 5-2 lead before the Indians could sink a basket.

Sparked by the dazzling court work of tiny Tim Corrigan, speedy freshman guard, the Vikings all but laid the Indians low during the district 4, Douglas division tilt.

The diminutive Irishman slammed in all three Viking field goals in the first frame, but the Indians were able to struggle their way to a 9-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Myrtle Creek again launched the scoring in the second quarter, with George McDaniel, forward, pushing one in from the side. Two more quick buckets, one each by center Tom Rise and Corrigan, put the visitors ahead, 11-9 before the Indians could get to gittin'.

Roseburg's high scoring Ronnie Strickling entered the game, started laying them in and racked up six points before the halftime horn sounded, with the Indians leading, 19-16.

A very slow third quarter appeared to be in the offing, with four minutes gone before either team could find the bucket.

Finally Frank Olson, Indian center, slipped one in, but each Roseburg effort was equalled by the visitors.

McDaniels made five of Myrtle Creek's seven points this quarter, and a quick shot at the horn put the Vikings just one point under Roseburg with the score at 24-23. Olson scored four of Roseburg's points in the third; Bill Van Horn made the other bucket.

The Indians livened up in the fourth quarter, sank five baskets to Myrtle Creek's none by the time the officials took their time out.

With a comfortable lead in their hip pocket, Roseburg grew careless, let the ball change hands several times during the last three minutes and the two teams each garnered two field-goals apiece.

Roseburg took 92 shots to Myrtle Creek's 55, from the field.

The Indians collared five out of eight from the gift stripe and Myrtle Creek sank seven for 15.

Basketball spirits were kept high by 10 members of the high school band, who taxed their lung power and the fans' ears. The Pep squad girls looked good, during the halftime.

Changes In 1950 Collegiate Football Rules Told By NCAA

PINEHURST, N. C.—(AP)—College football, 1950 version, will not be changed drastically as far as the man in the stands is concerned, but coaches and players will note some differences in the fall.

The football rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic association came up with two rather important changes and several lesser ones as it concluded three days of deliberations.

A substitution and offensive blocking rules were the two topics receiving the most attention.

Coaches Pointed Way

In following the leads of the coaches' association which last week recommended both changes, the committee indicated that it believes the two-platoon style of play is more than a passing fancy. In addition it moved to curb the illegal use of elbows.

The number of free timeouts allowed a team was raised from four to five for each half. In addition, free timeouts are now available to substitutions from the bench. Such changes may be made without penalty while the clock is running until a team's allotted five free timeouts are exhausted. This will permit insertion into the lineups of specialists, such as kickers, which last year called for a five-yard penalty.

Game Speeded Up

To speed up play, however, the clock will be started when the ball is "spotted" for play by the officials rather than when snapped as before.

Retiring Chairman William J. Bingham of Harvard said the offensive block rule was a result of a unanimous demand by the committee for such legislation.

Under the new rule if a hand or forearm is used in blocking an opponent it must be kept below the shoulder of the man blocked and in contact with the blocker's body throughout the block. Just what will happen when the man opposing the blocker charges in low affording the small target below the shoulders remains to be seen.

Tough Rule

Bingham acknowledged that it is a "tough" rule. "Sure it is tough," he said. "We want it that way. We want to eliminate the tendency toward visciousness which has no place in the game."

Other action saw the elimination of provisions regarding the fair catch, flying block and flying tackle which the committee said have fallen into disuse in the past ten years. While this would seem technically to legalize flying block and flying tackle the committee showed no concern on that score. It took the position that that style of play is obsolete.

Ball Holder Protected

The previously little noticed man holding the ball for a point after touchdown kick came in for attention and protection. If he is roughed on the kick and it is unsuccessful his team will be given another opportunity to kick. If he is roughed and the point is made the offending team will be penalized 15 yards on the next kickoff.

The pre-game toss of a coin, heretofore a major ceremony shortly before the kickoff, will be made well in advance of the game's start to enable an earlier announcement to be made of starting lineups.

On rule infractions where the refusal or acceptance of a penalty is a foregone conclusion the official no longer will consult the team captain for his decision. The official will mark off the penalty if that is the obvious thing to do and play will go on without interruption of an unnecessary conference.

Indians Take On Pointers Tonight

Roseburg Indians receive their severest seasonal test tonight at senior high school, when they face Myrtle Point, as yet undefeated in basketball play.

The game will be a scouting campaign for both clubs. Should they wind up winners in their respective divisions, they would meet for the district playoff, to decide the tournament entrant.

The Pointers are hailed by coach Jack Newby as powerful contenders for Marshfield's stranglehold in this area's basketball setup.

Newby predicts a tough hustle for the Indians tonight.

Game time is 8 o'clock for the varsity affair.

Roseburg grade school basketball clubs are tentatively listed for preliminary tussles, starting at 6:15 p.m.

Sugar Ray Favored To Defeat Bratton Tonight

CHICAGO, Jan. 20. — (AP) — Johnny Bratton, winner of six straight battles by knockout, will be seeking an upset triumph over lightweight champion Ike Williams tonight in their 10 round non-title bout in Chicago stadium.

A victory for the hard punching Chicago welterweight over the champio will put him in line for a title shot at Sugar Ray Robinson, 147-pound champion. After Williams and Bratton finished their drills yesterday, odds favoring the champion were lowered from 8 to 5 to 9 to 7.

Williams will be after his sixth victory in a row, two of them successful defenses of his 135-pound title.

ARENA TENNIS SET

PORTLAND, Jan. 20 —(Special)—Jack Kramer, world professional tennis champion, and Pancho Gonzales, United States amateur king, will head the world championship professional tennis matches at the Portland arena, Tuesday night, Feb. 7, it was announced by Harry Shipstad, general manager of the arena.

Beavers Face Stiffest Test 'On The Road'

Orange Set For Four Games In Five Nights Against Idaho, WSC

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 20. After winning two out of its first three conference games at home, Oregon State's defending PCC championship basketball team faces its stiffest test of the campaign—the gruelling four - games - in - five-nights invasion of the Inland Empire.

The Beavers, who looked by far their sharpest of the winter in whipping Oregon, 65-49, here last Friday, open their road trip with a return series against powerful Washington State at Pullman tonight and Saturday. From Pullman, coach Slats Gill and his men will move over to nearby Moscow for the initial series against Idaho next Monday and Tuesday nights.

Split with W.S.C.

In the league openers here two weeks ago the evenly matched Beavers and Cougars split, W.S.C. taking the first game, 42-38, in a defensive battle and the Orange coming back the second night for a tight 54-53 decision. Biggest problem confronting the Beavers is how to stop Gene Conley, W.S.C.'s sensational 6 foot, 8 inch sophomore center. He collected 33 in the first series.

Idaho is likely to be just as rough as the Cougars on its home floor, Gill figures the Vandals were Oregon State's stiffest competition in its march to the title last winter. Chuck Finley's club trounced the Orange, 51-39, in the opening encounter at Moscow last year and fought the Beavers to the wire in the other three contests.

Gill Pleased

Gill was highly pleased with the showing of his team against Oregon. He used a starting lineup with three guards that proved blazingly fast. Tommy Holman, normally a guard—he's only 5-10—was moved to forward to team with Bob Payne. Len Rinearson and Ray Snyder alternated at center and Dick Ballantyne and Bill Harper spearheaded the attack from their guard spots. Whether Gill will stick with this comparatively short quintet against the tall Cougars remains to be seen.

After three stiff workouts at home, the Beavers departed for the Palouse country Wednesday night, arriving Thursday in time for a practice session on the Cougars' court.

Snead Tops Golfers Thus Far At Long Beach

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 20 —(AP)—Sam Snead, sizzling with two victories in a row in the new 1950 golf wars, looked like the man to beat today as the better known professionals headed into their first round of the $10,000 Long Beach open.

The lesser knowns launched Long Beach's second annual tournament yesterday and veteran Bob Connolly of Seattle led the way home with a two under par 69 for the par 35-36-71 Lakewood Country club course.

Other scores included:

Woody Lamb, Bend, Ore. 36-37-73.

Ray Honsberger, Klamath Falls, Ore., 38-35—73.

Star of today's show was Snead, who defeated Ben Hogan Wednesday in a belated playoff for the Los Angeles open crown, and just previously tied for top honors, with no playoff, in the Bing Crosby pro-amateur shindig at Monterey, Calif.

Al Szasz, Ted Bell To Meet In Special Wrestling Match

LEO WALLICK — He faces Maurice LaChappelle Saturday night at the armory in a match to decide who will meet Al Szasz for the coast junior heavyweight title.

Douglas county wrestling followers are interested in the postponed meeting between Leo Wallick of Denver and Maurice LaChappelle of France, to decide who will meet Al Szasz for the coast junior heavyweight title, but fans are also awaiting the debut of Ted Bell at the Roseburg armory. Bell, the Jersey City sensation, will meet Szasz in the special match of the regular Saturday night show.

Great Reputation

Bell comes here with a great reputation—a matman who recently was a star before 18,000 fans in New York's Madison Square Garden; a wrestler who has been good enough to win two straight "battle royals" against a classy field in Salem and Albany; a grappler who is rated the best newcomer to appear in the Northwest in the past two years; a performer who has astounded fans with his talent.

It has been said there is "nothing new under the sun," but that doesn't take in Ted Bell. He has already shown more new holds than any collection of matmen to appear in the West for a year. His "iron cross," a combniation of a reverse deathlock and surfboard, and his backward body drop and rolling keylock holds have already been imitated by matmen now appearing in the Northwest—and LaChappelle has already added the "iron cross" to his numerous maneuvers.

Formidable Foe

Bell will be a formidable foe, and Champ Szasz isn't too sure that he hasn't over-matched himself for the lone purpose of looking over a future opponent.

The two one-hour matches are certain to provide some of the most interesting action seen here in many months.

The Bell-Szasz opener will get underway at 8:30 p.m. Although an outside referee had previously been booked, Elton Owen may referee both bouts.

Knocked-Out Fighter Comes To In Hospital

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 20 — (AP) —Heavyweight Henry Jones of Detroit was declared in good condition today after being rushed to Allegheny County hospital from a bout at Aragon gardens.

Jones was knocked out by Bob Baker of Pittsburg at 1:41 of the first round of the scheduled eightround main go.

When Jones failed to regain consciousness immediately, he was ordered taken to the hospital. Doctors there said he came to within six minutes.

Jones apparently sustained a concussion when he was knocked down and his head struck the floor of the ring.

The win was professional victory number 12 for Baker without a loss. He weighed 196 and Jones 184.

Joe Page Given Babe Ruth Award

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 — (AP) — Joe Page, whose relief pitching led the New York Yankees to the world baseball championship last year, is winner of the first Babe Ruth award for World Series stardom.

The award was established this year by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers association of America. A plaque will be presented the Yankee ace early in the season.

The 32-year-old southpaw Page worked in three of the five world series games against Brooklyn, getting credit for the third game victory. The Yankees won the series, four games to one.

The association said it decided to name the award for the late Ruth because the home run king was "by far the outstanding ball player in World Series history."

The baseball writers give two other awards—the William J. Slocum trophy for long service to the sport and the Sid Mercer award to the outstanding player of the previous season.

Cal Ray 2nd In Handicap Shoot

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 20 —(AP)—The great Southern trapshoot winds up its three-day competition today with the annual handicap event.

C. B. McDowell, 56-year-old hotelman from Alma, Neb., yesterday succeeded George Fairchild of Reading, Pa., as doubles champion. McDowell smashed 89 out of a possible 100 clays released from the trap two at a time.

Cal Ray of Eugene, Ore., who had won everything in sight up to yesterday, was right on McDowell's heels with an 88 to capture second place.

Tied for third were Barr Carlisle of Salt Lake city and G. J. Creeden of Orlando, Fla., with 87's.

Mrs. Cal Ray was high woman with 82.

The introductory handicap was won by Ben Baldridge, another member of the crack Eugene, Ore., outfit. Burdened with a 19-yard handicap, he broke 96 of a possible 100 targets.

U. Of O. Said Bidding For Karam, Little Rock Coach

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 20—(AP)— Offers from three West coast schools—one of them believed to be the University of Oregon—enticed Jimmy Karam west today.

Karam, coach of the Little Rock junior college, Little Rose Bowl football champions, said he doubted if any of the three "can make it attractive enough for me to leave Little Rock."

None of the schools was named. Speculation idenitfied them as Oregon, Southern California and a smaller school in the San Francisco area. The reported offers involved only a job as backfield coach.
