Flash Fire in Tenement Kills Woman, 3 Children

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Jan. 20 (AP)—Four persons died today in a flash fire which swept through a crowded three-story tenement in the downtown section of Jersey City.

The dead were a woman about 37 years old, two girls between 10 and 12, and a child of about three. All were Negroes.

Hospital authorities said two of the eight injured were in critical condition.

A 33-year-old mother clasping her eight-month-old baby in her arms jumped from a third story window at the height of the blaze.

The child was reported uninjured, but the mother, Mrs. Anna Henry, was taken to the hospital with a possible fractured skull and leg injuries.

Canadian and American scientists have cooperated on studies of arctic mosquitoes in the Hudson's Bay area.
