Wedding Repeats Marriage Vows Of Bride's Parents

Mrs. Daniel R. Andrijesian

Picture by Pehly Studio, Eugene

Lorraine Adelle Robertson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace G. Robertson of Cottage Grove, formerly of Roseburg, became the bride of Daniel Andrijesian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arim Andrijesian of Drain, at the Methodist church in Cottage Grove, Sunday, Jan. 8. Marriage vows, which were said nineteen years ago by the bride's parents, were repeated in a double ring ceremony performed by candlelight by Rev. William Sutherland of the First Baptist church in the presence of 200 guests.

Tall baskets of white snapdragons and four candelabra holding tall white tapers flanked the cross centering the altar. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of ice blue heavy slipper satin fashioned with a lace bib front with the back trimmed in satin buttons. The sleeves came to a point at the wrists and were edged in matching lace. The Queen Elizabeth collar of the gown matched the Queen's cap of lace which held the veil of illusion edged in lace. She carried a heart-shaped arrangement of three orchids outlined with maine ruffling with satin streamers knotted with lilies-of-the-valley. The bride and her attendants wore rhinestone necklaces. Miss Nancy Radabaugh, Roseburg, and a student at University of Oregon, was maid of honor and wore a gown of orchid satin fashioned with a full skirt and off-the-shoulder ruffle, decorated with a black velvet bow and streamers from the neckline to the floor-length hem of the skirt.
