Noted Baritone Dated Here In Concert Series

Walter Cassel, above baritone star of concert, opera and radio, will be the second in order of appearance on the Roseburg Community Concert Assn. series. He is slated to appear Wednesday, Feb. 1, at junior high school auditorium, starting at 8:15 p. m.

Cassel is one of a selected few native-born artists who received all of their musical education and subsequent artistic recognition in this country. Born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and educated in Omaha, Cassel in his singing reflects the strength and vigor of America's great Midwestern background. His musical career dates back to the day when he received a trumpet as a birthday gift. Encouraged by the many contests he won with his trumpet with his school band in Council Bluffs, Cassel might have realized his childhood dream had he not also joined the glee club in his last years at school and discovered an even greater talent—singing. He entered the Iowa state contest and won first prize.

After several years of work, with singing as his main objective, Cassel received his first real impetus in 1933, when he met and sang for Lawrence Tibbett, then appearing in a concert in Omaha. Tibbett praised Cassel's renditions and urged the talented young baritone to even more intensive study to perfect his voice. A year later he went to New York, where he made his first radio appearance. His rise to fame in the entertainment field was rapid from that day on.

Elkton

By Phyllis A. Smith
Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Fisher visited recently with relatives in Seattle.

Telephone and electric services are almost non-existent in the ELKTON AREA. Repairs are at work constantly trying to keep the lines open in the face of some of the worst storms this area has ever seen. Schools have been closed and social activities have been held to a minimum.

School was held Monday, Jan. 23, but was closed again Tuesday on account of the lack of power.

Called home on account of the last illness and death of their brother, Robert M. Smith, were Mrs. Morris Kessler and children, Pamela and Carolyn, of San Francisco, Mrs. Tony Cocciola of Colma, Calif. and Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Smith of Coquille. Mrs. Roy B. Wright of Exeter, Calif., mother of the widow also came to Elkton for the funeral. Other relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hugas of Monmouth and Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baker of Astoria.

Congratulations are in order for the birth of a new daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Murlison, of the Campbell ranch of Kellogg Jan. 17.

The Douglas Electric Cooperative, Inc. will hold its annual meeting at the K. of P. hall in Roseburg, at 1:30 p. m. Feb. 6, to amend the by-laws of the cooperative and to elect directors. Candidates of the Elkton area and Miller's—a result of snow ball fights by some of the big boys. Just didn't know their own strength.

Mrs. Ruth McDonald has been ill.

Mrs. Lester Riley and children and Mrs. Arthur Mode were able to come home last Thursday after being marooned in California for more than a week. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sawyers and family at Sharp Park, Calif.
