ROSEBURG REBEKAH LODGE HAS FINE MEETING TUESDAY

The regular Tuesday night meeting of the Roseburg Rebekah lodge took place at the I.O.O.F. hall, Helen Davis, State Rebekah Vice-President and a member of the Ramon Rebekah Lodge No. 222 of Seaside, and Etta L. Kellar, a member of Winona Rebekah Lodge No. 361 of Chambers, Nebraska, were visitors.

The committees for the new term were appointed. Finance committee: Ollie Drueger, Mary Alice Mortensen, Ona Williams; visiting committee: Golda Nickell, Ollie Drueger, Nora Frauen-dienner, Minnie South, Ethel Bailey, Maggie Dent; press correspondent: Elizabeth Winn; flowers and cards: Mary Curtis; good of the order: Lena Poole, Bertha Bayles, Stella Gilbert; courtesy committee: Gertrude Hatfield, Florence Klatt, Evelyn Fredrickson; fraternal press: Lilly Petty; community service: Ethel Swazy.

The commission for appointing Blanche Marr new advisor of the Alpha Zeta Theta Rho girls was received. Louise Dimmick has recently resigned this post.

V. Vivian Logsdon was nominated and elected by acclamation to the office of Degree Captain. Miss Logsdon suggested that, if the weather would permit, officers and interested members visit the Eugene Lodge at its next meeting on February 1 when the President of the Assembly will be visiting there.

A collection was taken for the March of Dimes and $13.21 was received.

A sack lunch with coffee made by Jack Dent was enjoyed in the dining room after the meeting. The next lodge meeting will be held on February 7 at 7:30 p.m. with a sack lunch afterwards. All Rebekahs are invited to attend.

After the closing of the lodge a short meeting of the Three Links Club was held with Florence Klatt, newly elected President, presiding. Other new officers of the club are: Minnie South, Vice-President, and Laverne Nickens, Secretary-Treasurer.

The project of supplying carpeting for the entrance to the ladies club room in the I.O.O.F. hall was discussed and a committee appointed to measure for and purchase the rug. This committee is Lydia Roadman, chairman, Mayme Pickens, Maggie Dent. It was decided to have a cooked food sale in the near future to raise money for the next project. Ollie Krueger was named chairman to organize the sale and was asked to pick her own committee to assist her. It was also decided to have a rummage sale soon, and Faye Jensen was named chairman of this committee with Ada Hanna, Ethel Busenbark, and Ona Williams. Another committee was appointed to make a survey of the needs of the lodge and to suggest new projects. This committee is: Hattie Guerin, chairman, Golda Nickell, Ethel Bailey, V. Vivian Logsdon, and Maggie Dent.

Every home with children should have a set of Perma-Hue tumblers, says Les of LESTER'S GIFT AND MODEL SHOP. Made of aluminum, with extra-thick flat bottoms, these tumblers don't tip easily and absolutely won't break. The colors are IN the metal, they won't fade or chip. Subtle shades of gold, purple, flame, chartreuse, and others, are packed eight to a box of the squatties and six or eight to a box of the 14-oz. size. So light weight that even a baby can hold his own, these Perma-Hue glasses will prolong the life of your real glassware. And think of never having to sweep up glass splinters when King Baby drops his glass on the floor. Better rush right in and get a set—we'll be there, too.

MILLER'S RADIO RECORD SHOP has the

There's fun for young and old in learning the new dance steps taught at the STUDIO OF DANCE ARTS, upstairs at 220 N. Main. A new class is being planned for next month, with Mickey Hard coaching. He'll put you through the basic footwork of the waltz, samba, rumba, and fox trot in the course of your five lessons. Men, you'll trip the light fantastic with some cute girls if you join one of Mickey's classes. In the class that's in progress now there are half a dozen lovely young nurses from the Veterans' Facility. Call Mickey Hard, at 1517-Y, and ask him about these classes. You'll want to join the very next one, so call now and get enrolled.

Here at LUVERNE'S are the suits you'll want for spring, in soft, warm pastels of 100% wool Botany flannel. They're tailored by Pettl, in pale yellow, aqua, blue, pink, and bright red. See the becoming single breasted style with stitched roll-back collars, and buttons all the way to the bottom of the jacket. Four slanting slashed pockets trim the semi-fitted jacket, and the skirt has a slight, very graceful flare. Pettl, you know, is a specialist in designing clothes for the junior figure. See them this week, while your fit is still in stock.

Have you shopped JOSSE'S half-price sale of Imperial Wallpaper? You can get two rolls of answer to the portable radio-phonograph problem. It's a three-speed Decca in an alligator-grained luggage case. Plays anything—standard, 45's, and the long-playing records made by Decca, Capitol, Mercury, and Columbia. Here's a versatile phonograph, and a radio too, for only $49.50. Want to know what's hot this week? Why the new Yogi Bresson recording of "The Birds and the Bees," a new Stan Boren, "Scandinavian Hotshot," and the Ames Brothers' moptime rag or ragtime mop entitled, "Rag Mop." Ask Ken Bushey to play it over for you—the delights in such demonstrations.

There's a peculiar satisfaction in work completed, until you start thinking of what's yet to be done.

making your choice from their current stock. Yes, you can really wash Imperial papers, sponging carefully with a damp, soapy cloth. Or you may prefer to use Marigold wallpaper Cleaner to remove deeper stains. Josses have Blot-X, too, a special cleaner for grease spots. Want to waterproof your wallpaper? Use Waterlox water repellent, which coats paper, stucco, wood, and many fabrics with a colorless waterproof substance. January is just the time to spruce up your home for spring, before the garden demands all your time and attention. To match your Imperial wallpaper, order custom-mixed Martin Senour paints from the Nu-Hue Color Bar in Josses' Decorating Department.

Are the kiddies laid up with measles, mumps, or whooping cough? Too bad, but it can be much less trying if you give them ice cream frequently. Ice cream is a health food that doctors recommend for little folks who haven't lively appetites for the time being. Try some of the smooth, vitamin-rich lemon custard from the ICE CREAMERY. That should make any invalid feel a lot better. The wheel of fortune spun around to another name, this week, for a FREE QUART of that good homemade ice cream. Mr. Thomas E. Roark, of 931 Beacon Way is the winner. Well, we always did say the Irish have all the luck! Clip this coupon, Mr. Roark, and turn it in to Mr. McDonald at the Ice Creamery. You can have a quart of your favorite flavor absolutely free, freshly made and hand-packed in generous high-packed portions.

Surprise Dad on Valentine's Day with a beautiful heavy oil portrait of the family, made by CLARK'S STUDIO, 105 S. Jackson. Nothing would please him more. For his desk, a portrait framed in gold filigree. For the wall of his room, velvet frames with gold filigree edges. Or for the wall of his office, a big portrait in a wood frame like the one in the window at Clark's, displayed on an easel. He's deserving of such thoughtfulness, and Clark's would like to make the picture for you in their cheerful studio. Their prices are moderate, and their skill is unsurpassed. Arrange for your Valentine portrait now.

Most of us keep one eye on the temptation we pray not to be led into.

With all the parties that you'll be having in the next few months, you'll appreciate the help of CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY in planning and organizing each one. Don't forget to call Cleo, 981-J, for any help you need. She will fill special orders, too, for bread sliced lengthwise for rolled or open-face sandwiches. Order one of her individually decorated cakes, cup cakes, and sheet cakes for your party dessert. Valentine's Day is a grand occasion for a party to announce an engagement, when the happy bride-to-be can wear her new ring for all to admire. Make it the gayest party you ever had, with Cleo's help. Call her now, and get an early start with your plans.

Something else for Valentine's Day—diamonds from ASHCRAFT'S, diamonds that anyone can afford. You may have been engaged for several weeks, but haven't given your girl a ring, et. You couldn't find a nicer time to present it than Valentine's Day, the most sentimental day of the year. We looked at Ashcraft's ring, yet. You couldn't find a nicer time to present it with 18K white gold facings to make the diamonds look larger. On each side of the solitaire center diamond are two flowers which form the setting for anniversary diamonds that you will give her in the years to come. There are three of these flowers on the wedding band. You wouldn't believe the price if we told you, so you'd better go in this week and look at it yourself.
