Youth Injured In Leap From House To Escape Flames

One youth was injured and another escaped unhurt in a leap from a second story window to escape the flames that enveloped the W. T. Harbour home at Glendale early Saturday.

Donald Harbour sustained cuts on the face, an injured eye and shoulder injuries, when he jumped from the upstairs of the two-story frame house. He was taken to a Grants Pass hospital.

Donald and Dale McDermid, staying with the Harbours, woke up about 6:40 a. m. to find the house ablaze and their escape cut off. They were forced to jump from the window.

Donald's parents, his brother, John, and Ruby Dierick, staying in the home, all escaped. Two dogs, however, suffocated.

Fire Chief J. R. Cox reported it took 30 minutes to get the flames under control. Vic Hayes, a volunteer fireman living nearby, turned in the alarm. Origin of the fire, which started in the rear of the first floor was undetermined. The house, badly damaged by the blaze, was partially covered by insurance.
