Idaho Vandals Invade Oregon State Tomorrow; Ducks Lose To St. Mary's

(By The Associated Press) The scrappy Idaho Vandals invade Oregon State tomorrow and Wednesday to ring in another week of hostilities in the Pacific Coast conference basketball race.

The Vandals weren't considered too hot until last Friday when they potted off first place Washington State with a slick ball-thieving trick in the last 10 seconds of the game. Sophomore Sam Jenkins swished in the crucial shot from out in the keyhole and gave Idaho a 51 to 50 victory.

This Friday and Saturday, the Vandals move in on the Oregon Webfoots at Eugene, while Washington State faces second place Washington at Seattle.

The Webfoots are in the division cellar now, even though they laced their traditional rival Oregon State, by 45 to 34 Friday before the largest basketball turnout—3119—in the state's history. Oregon whipped St. Mary's, 61 to 53, the following night in a non-league contest.

Washington, meanwhile, split an intercollegiate series with University of Wyoming, losing by 49 to 29 the first night but winning by 37 to 36 Saturday on Frank Guiness' two gift throws.

In the southern division, all eyes are focused on Trojan Bill Sharmen's efforts to crack Hank Luisetti's all-time PCC scoring record of 232 points. With six conference games remaining on the 12 game schedule, Sharmen now has 138 points to his credit. Luisetti, Stanford's all-America, had 116 points at the halfway mark in 1938.

The sharpshooting USC forward boosted his average considerably over the weekend. On Saturday, he led the Trojans to a 59 to 45 triumph over Stanford with a 23 point barrage. Against California the night before, Sharmen tanked 25 points, although his team lost, 59 to 54.

California and Stanford play USC and UCLA again, this time in Los Angeles. The Bruins took over the division lead last weekend by dropping both of them—the Indians by 85 to 55 and Cal by 54 to 47.

Ghosts Defeat JVR Hoopers By 44-37 Tab

Douglas Fives To Clash Here Feb. 22 To 25

Roseburg JVRs again bowed to a traveling basketball club, this time by a 44-37 tab, at the hands of the Colored Ghosts.

The game, played at senior high school Sunday afternoon to a fair-sized crowd, was marked with clever ball handling and shooting by the spirited Ghosts, although they somewhat failed to measure up to the Globetrotters, who preceded them here a short while ago.

JVRs Lead Several Times

Roseburg was ahead by slim margins on several occasions, but the visitors, sparked by Hod Hood, guard, and Randy Hand, forward, who hit for 15 points each, managed to take the lead again after the half, even as they cut up on the court.

John Bates, forward, and Bill Benson, center, puled up the points for Roseburg, getting 10 and eight counters respectively.

Better This Game

The locals looked much better against the Ghosts than when they played the "Trotters," getting off some snappy pivot shots and fakes that seemingly took the touted visitors by surprise.

This is the last game of the current season for the JVRs. Manager Jeff Jeffries said that because his boys lacked adequate practice facilities during the season, they would forgo an invitation to participate in a tournament series with Myrtle Creek Firmco Riddle and Sutherland Pastime.

Lineups:

Roseburg (37) (44) Ghosts
Hood 6 F 15 Fields
Bates 10 F 8
Benson 8 C 15
Benson 8 C 4 Garland
Schindler 2 G 2 Finch
Atterbury 2 G 2 Fincher
Reserves: Roseburg—West 2, McKee 2, Blank 3, Piper 4.
Officials—Ray Brown and Hod Turner, both Roseburg.

Two tournament trophies will go to the first and second place winners. These are to be donated by Roseburg merchants.

The following persons, representing their schools, were at the meeting: Siuslaw—Jerry Medcalf, principal; Reedsport—Jack Flagg, superintendent; Harry Rose, athletic director; Norm Olson, basketball coach; Sutherland—Wm. Riddleberger, superintendent; Orrin Hills, coach; Myrtle Creek—Ray Karp, principal; B. Dellar, superintendent; Forrest Loghry, coach; Roseburg—Paul Elliott, superintendent; George Erickson, principal; Cecil Sherwood, athletic director and Jack Newby, coach.

Riddle, Elkton Beat Jayvees

Norm West's Warrior Jayvees suffered twin losses in games played over the weekend, first dropping one to Riddle, 24-19, at Senior high Friday afternoon, then losing out 50-31 in a hoop action at Elkton Saturday night.

The Jayvees set a pattern for victory against Riddle, by doubling their score at the quarter marks; unfortunately, they failed to double in the last quarter and hung up the loss.

Riddle led 9-3, 20-6 and 21-12 at the end of the first three quarters. Roseburg held their opponents to one free throw in the third quarter and a field goal and free shot in the final quarter.

Riddle's Buckley sparked the winners with six counters; Leroy Elting of Roseburg was next best with five points.

Herzberger Shines

In the Elkton tilt, Jim Herzberger, guard, paved the way to a win for the B club hoopers with 13 points netted. Leroy Elting again led the Roseburg boys with 12.

Tomorrow night, Glide plays the Jayvees at senior high, starting at 8 o'clock. Eddy Wyatt's eighth graders are dated for a preliminary against Riddle, starting at 6:15.

The game will be the last this season for the jayvees.

Lineups:

Roseburg (19) (24) Riddle

Reedsport Tips Sutherland Five

One basket spelled the difference between a win and a loss Saturday night at Oakland, when the Reedsport Braves and Sutherland Bulldogs tangled in a Douglas division tilt that ended with the Braves on top 32-30.

It was a close battle throughout, although Reedsport took a 5-0 lead that set Coach Orrin Hills to scrambling, and though the visitors were ahead 10-6 at the quarter, the Bulldogs fought back and knotted the score 15-all just before the half. Three quick buckets by the Braves put the halftime count at 21-15.

In the third quarter, Hills' boys held the visitors to a lone basket, and in the fourth, the game was again tied up, as Sutherland bounced back.

Sutherland failed to click at the free throw line, after chalking up seven gift shots in eight attempts in the first quarter. After that, the Bulldogs made only three free throws good in 11 tries.

Reedsport connected 10 out of 22 times at the free throw line. Merly Buck sparked the Sutherland effort, getting 13 points, to top Reedsport's high scorer Leggett, who accumulated 12 points.

Reedsport: Leggett, 12; Buck, 13; Erickson, 8; Johnson, 4; Perry, 4; Kyles, 2; Pinion, 2; Rose, 2; Van Orden, 1.

Sutherland: Buck, 12; Erickson, 8; Johnson, 4; Perry, 4; Kyles, 2; Pinion, 2; Rose, 2; Van Orden, 1.

Finances Blamed In Plan To Drop Football At UP

PORTLAND, Feb. 13 — (AP) — Finances and schedule troubles were blamed today for the decision of Portland university officials to drop out of the football picture.

The school, boasting an enrollment of 2,000 students, now is engaged on a large-scale building program. Lack of a stadium made it a virtual impossibility to draw top-notch teams as opponents.

Announcing their decision Saturday, school officials indicated the sport would be reinstated when conditions permit.

Colorful Jim Thorpe Greatest Athlete

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Feb. 13 — (AP) — There are a thousand good stories—some of them true—about old Jim Thorpe, the greatest all-around athlete of the past 50 years.

And, in the nearly 40 years since the muscular Sac-Fox Indian first flashed to athletic fame at Carlisle Indian school, it has become increasingly hard to tell where the truth ends and where excusable exaggeration begins.

James Francis Thorpe is not merely a legendary figure in American sports. He's the kind of man about whom legends grow. And Thorpe himself seldom hesitated to add to the fable of old Jim.

Taking fact and fable for what they're worth, the sports writers and broadcasters of the United States, participating in the associated Press poll, voted Thorpe the outstanding male athlete of the first half of the 20th century. They put him far ahead of Babe Ruth, Jack Dempsey, Ty Cobb, Bobby Jones and Joe Louis—all great athletes about whom some colorful yarns also have been told.

Babe Ruth Next

Of the 393 voters, 252 named Thorpe first, 45 named him second and 29 third. Ruth drew 85 first place votes, 118 second and 45 thirds. Dempsey was ranked third with 19, 67 and 55.

In other ballots, the experts also chose Thorpe—now 61 years old—as the outstanding football player of the 1900-1949 period and ranked him second only to Jesse Owens in track.

According to legend, Thorpe was virtually indestructible; the kind of guy who'd ask: "Who could get hurt playing football?"

Yet Jim was hurt more than once playing football. In his first big season, 1911, he was on crutches most of a week before he led a 16-0 route of Pennsylvania and his legs were heavily bandaged the day he kicked four field goals, the last 48 yards to upset mighty Harvard.

There's a legend that Thorpe was a one-man track team who once beat Lafayette single-handed in a dual meet. Harold Anson Bruce, then Lafayette coach, has a different version in which Carlisle brought four men to help Thorpe. All Jim did that day was finish second in the 100-yard dash and win the pole vault, high jump, broad jump, shot put and low hurdles.

Couldn't Hit Curve

And there's a legend that Thorpe couldn't hit a curve ball, a weakness which finally forced him out of the major leagues. Yet Jim was good enough to remain in the majors six seasons and to draw a $7,500 salary when $7,500 really meant something.

His "lifetime" major league batting average was .252, but in 1919, his last season, he hit .327 for 62 games. Eddie Roush won the National league championship that year with .321 for 133 games. In the next two seasons Jim batted .360 for Akron in the International league and .358 for Toledo in the American association.

Pointing to those figures Thorpe asks: "Does that show I was a sucker for a curve?"

The established facts are almost as incredible as the fiction.

Playing football for a little school that usually was outmanned and outweighed against the strongest of the big eastern colleges, Thorpe scored 25 touchdowns and a 198 point total in 1912. That same year he had won both the pentathlon and decathlon at the Stockholm Olympic games, winning four events in each competition.

Later when his medals and trophies were taken from him because he had violated the strict Olympic code of amateurism by playing professional baseball for $60 a month, his defeated rivals refused to accept them. They insisted: "Thorpe won them fairly. He is the greatest athlete in the world."

Broke One Record

Rediscovers records of Thorpe's Olympic feats, superb as they were at that time, show that he wouldn't be considered any great shakes by modern standards. In only one event, the high jump, did he surpass Glenn Morris' 1936 world-record decathlon. By the same scoring system, Jim would have finished about even with 17-year-old Bob Takes Top Honors—Jim Thorpe, That Almost Legendary Figure of the Sports World, at 61 Gives a Drop-Kicking Exhibition at the Polo Grounds, New York, Sept. 26, 1948. Previously voted the No. 1 football player of the past 50 years, "Old Jim" became the only double winner in The Associated Press poll when 252 out of 393 sports writers and radiobroadcasters named him greatest male athlete of half-century. Mathias when he won in 1938. But in his specialties, the sprints hurdles and broad jump, Thorpe wasn't far from the 1912 world records.

Thorpe also starred in baseball, basketball and lacrosse at Carlisle and had a fling at wrestling. When he later tried golf, he learned to shoot in the 70's. In his prime, Jim was a perfectly co-ordinated 185-pounder standing 6 feet 1 1/2 inches in his moccasins.

Added to his all-around ability was a magnificent laziness—a disinclination to train or to exert himself more than was necessary—and a notable weakness for firewater that has become the subject of more than one Thorpe legend.

Steve Owen, coach of the New York football giants, tells of playing against Thorpe when Jim was the unpredictable star of the Canton Bulldogs pro football team. Steve was a tackle and when Thorpe, playing wingback, didn't block him on the first two plays. Owen decided the Indian didn't feel like playing that day.

Thorpe Ignored

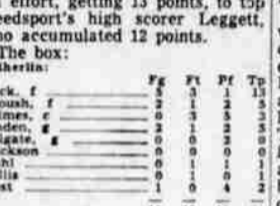

"So on the third play I ignored him and shifted wide for a real tackle," Owen relates. "I landed exactly on top of my head when he hit me. Then as Jim dragged me to my feet, he said: 'Young man, never take your eyes off the wingback.'"

One of Thorpe's little-known feats was breaking up the only double-no-hit game in major league history. He was in right field for Cincinnati in May, 1917, when the Reds' Fred Toney and Jim Vaughn of the Cubs pitched hitless ball for nine innings. In the tenth Larry Kopf singled and went to third when Fred Williams muffed Hal Chase's fly. Then Thorpe beat out a slow hit to bring in Kopf with the only run of the game.

How Thorpe's baseball feats have been magnified is shown by a clipping on file in the National league office.

It tells how Old Jim spun a yarn about hitting three home runs into three different states during a spring exhibition in the state-line city of Texarkana. The first, he said, was inside the park, which was entirely in Texas. The second went over the right field fence into Arkansas and the third over the left field fence into Oklahoma.

The item concludes: "Thorpe is rated the greatest all-around athlete who ever lived. He must have been to hit that last home run,
