Grid Player's Tackle

Saves Girl From Bandit
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13 — (AP) — A Washington university football player used a flying tackle yesterday to rescue his girl friend from a masked man who was dragging her down a lonely country road.

Police reported James Grieg, 180-pound athlete, braved gunfire to tackle the man, then beat him into submission and delivered him to police.

Neither Grieg, 23, nor his girl friend, Charlotte Obal, 19, former homecoming queen at the university, were injured.

Acting police Lt. Gus Teu identified the masked man as Kendall Leonard Morris of St. Louis, a laborer and former convict.
