

Dillard Scouts' Activities Told

By ROSA HEINBACH
Boy Scout Troop 36 attended the Dillard church services Sunday with their scoutmaster, Allan McLennan, and presented the prize to the service for "Go to church" Sunday for all the scouts of America. Kenneth Mahoney stood on the stage with Rev. Appleyard, and the flag bearers, Barton Hult, and Richard Anderson marched in. They were followed by the leader and the remaining scouts, who took the seats reserved for them, gave their salute, and retired the flag. Rev. Appleyard presented his talk on citizenship.

The Dillard Boy Scout Troop 36 is planning to hold a bean feed at the Dillard school Feb. 7, at 6:30 p.m. Proceeds from the affair will go toward furnishing necessary equipment for the local troop.

The Boy Scouts furnished a display in the windows at the Howards Hardware, Winston, as part of the Boy Scout Week activities. The boys also participated in the sidewalk demonstrations in Roseburg, Saturday afternoon. Dillard Scouts showed techniques of outdoor cooking.

It has been announced that all Cub Scouts who are eligible will receive bob cat badges at the next pack meeting Monday, Feb. 20, at 7 o'clock.

Cub Scouts, den 2, held their regular meeting Tuesday, Feb. 7, at the home of Mrs. Allan McLennan, den mother. The Cub Scout leader reports "the new meeting day is working out quite success-

Dillard

By ROSA HEINBACH
Word has been received in Dillard from the Egbert Ferguson family, former residents of Dillard, who moved to Camp Mongold, Detroit, Ore. six months ago, where Mr. Ferguson is employed as an engineer. It is reported that he is very ill and in a Portland clinic for medical observation and treatment. Mrs. Ferguson, known as "our Betty," is well-known in the community for her loyal work in the church, being president of the Women's society for two years, and second vice-president of the Parent Teachers association. Her activities in the community are well applauded. Son, Terry, was in the fifth grade and the daughter, Kathleen, was in the third grade of the Dillard school.

The mumps epidemic has been worse this year in the community than anyone can remember. So many grown-ups have had it, and some for the second time who declared it wasn't possible. Judy Barnes has recently taken sick. Mrs. Belle Clark has recovered from her second attack.

Little Pamela Laurance is very sick at the present with the mumps.

The George McDowell family have all been sick. Their two boys, Allac and Eddie, both have had the mumps.

E. O. Nickerson who has been confined at the Mercy hospital where he had an emergency appendectomy returned to his home on Willis creek, Saturday. It is reported he is recovering satisfactorily.

Bert Laurance has been ill with an ulcerated tooth, for the past week.

The women's society of the Dillard church will make another attempt to hold their regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 6, for pot-luck dinner at 2:30. Frozen water pipes and bad weather conditions have postponed the meeting three times this year. We sincerely hope to have a good "turnout."

Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Cooper and son Robert of McMinnville, have been visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper, in Dillard for the past week. Terrell Cooper is the manager of the McMinnville Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Heinbach and children, Ina Lee and Warren, journeyed up to Cottage Grove and London Springs over the week-end to visit the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Chris O. Pfaff and son, Robert, who moved there recently from Los Angeles. It was amazing to see the damage done all along the way to the fir, oak and especially the alder trees during the recent silver thaw thru that area. As far as one could see the tops and huge branches were broken off the beautiful trees. Damage was heavier around London Spring where residents reported 109 inch of snow during the month of January. There is still 12 inches of snow along the ridge between Yoncalla and London Springs. However, the county road is in very good condition.

Japan 49th U. S. State?

TOKYO — (AP) — Masao Kume, a leading Japanese novelist, said Monday Japan should be annexed by the United States and become the 49th state.

Writing in the magazine Sekai Shunju, Kume said U. S. annexation would be better for the country than independence through a peace treaty.

He said Japan does not have the ability to maintain her independence let alone permanent neutrality. Kume said Emperor Hirohito could be kept under the American president as a "symbol of devotion."

Following the business meeting, the cubs worked on their projects of making toy drums and assembling scrapbooks. Mr. Dunlap, parent of one of the Cub Scouts, took the boys home.

Those attending were: Ray Dowdy, Claire Beaudoin, Arlie Husbands, Jackie McLennan, Allan Dunlap, Frederick Snow, Eugene Fisher, Larry Bismontette, David Glen and Den Chief George Mutler.
