Casanova Will Pilot Pittsburgh University

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 15 — (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh today announced the appointment of Len Casanova as head football coach.

The former Santa Clara grid mentor succeeds Mike Milligan who resigned last month when he was offered a one year contract renewal.

Casanova quit his California job last night. His resignation was accepted during a hectic session of the Santa Clara board of athletic control.

Casanova had two years to go on his $10,000 a year contract at Santa Clara. It is understood he will get more than $15,000 a year

Roseburg Wrestlers Again Beat Grants Pass Matmen

Roseburg wrestlers came out on top for the second time this season against Mel Ingram's Grants Pass Cavemen, this time by a 40-14 score, at Grants Pass last night.

But in so doing, the Indians suffered a serious setback in their tournament aspirations, when Dennis Hayden, 125 pound senior, broke his forearm while wrestling his opponent, Lee Fifield, who won the match by default.

Hayden was rushed to a Grants Pass hospital, where he remained overnight. Coach Cece Sherwood said Hayden would return to Roseburg sometime today.

The Indians entertained little trouble in keeping ahead of their host-opponents. Roseburg matmen took five matches on falls, three on decisions, drew two, lost two.

Grants Pass won one on a fall and the other by default.

In eight exhibition matches, Roseburg came out on top in six; lost one and tied one. Lynn Spicklemier, Roseburg, won his first match, when his opponent Cliff Broumblow, Grants Pass, suffered by a sprained wrist.

Glen Scofield, Roseburg high school's number one wrestler, referred the matches, when Grants Pass couldn't produce a qualified third-man-in-the-ring.

at Pitt on a four-year contract.
Casanova was a backfield star with the Santa Clara Broncos of the early twenties.

Babe Didrickson Zaharias Outstanding Woman Athlete

By TED SMITH
NEW YORK, Feb. 15 — (AP) — For twenty years a slender American girl of Norwegian blood has dominated women's sports internationally. So it was to be expected that Babe Didrickson Zaharias would be overwhelmingly selected as the greatest female athlete of the first half of the twentieth century.

Eleventh and last of the sports-titan chosen in the Associated Press midcentury poll, the Babe is unchallenged in versatility.

She won world fame at the 1932 Olympic games by taking two gold medals and losing a third on a technicality. In 1947 she became the first American to win the British women's golf championship.

Goes Right On
She was noted even before 1932; she has gone right on winning after 1947. Out of 361 first place votes cast by the nation's sports writers and sportscasters, she received 319. Only 34 rated her in second place, and five in third.

On the basis of three points for first, two for second, and one for third, the Babe amassed a total of 1,030. Helen Wills Moody, the tennis immortal, was second with 394; Stella Walsh, the track star, was third with 136, followed by the Dutch Olympian, Fanny Blankers-Koen, with 107.

Babe Didrickson came along at the close of the fabulous twenties, and she is still a top golf contender—one of the few direct competitive links with the decade called sports.

Four times previously she has won AP polls, being chosen as outstanding woman athlete in 1932, 1945, 1946, and 1947, the only quadruple winner.
