

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd North

Against a background of pastel flowers and lighted tapers Miss Dorothy Morberg and Lloyd North, both of Roseburg, were married in a double ring ceremony by the Rev. W. A. MacArthur, Sunday, Feb. 5 at 3 p.m. The rites were read in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends at the Pine Grove Sunday school.

The wedding setting was decorated by the ladies of the South Deer Creek Grange and on either side of the altar were large baskets of daffodils. White tapers in tall candelabra were lighted and tissue flowers, made by the community ladies, formed a pastel background for the wedding party.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Morberg, wore a wedding gown of white Manchurian silk, fashioned by her aunt, Mrs. T. E. Buskirk of Cottage Grove, from material brought to America by the bridegroom. The princess-type gown was styled with long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist, a net yoke was complemented with a deep full collar.

She carried a heart-shaped bridal bouquet of chrysanthemums and blue and white hyacinths outlined with daffodils. A satin bow and streamers tied with tiny flowers completed the floral bouquet. In her hair she wore a band of blue and white hyacinths.

Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Miss Shirley Buskirk who wore an aqua gown with pink carnations. The bridesmaids were lighted by Miss Carmen Cox who wore a blue and pink gown with gardenia corsage.

Miss Sylvia Leverick played "Because" which was sung by Mrs. Katharine Rarher and also provided traditional wedding music. Both wore yellow gowns with white gardenias.

Best man was J. T. Evans of Springfield, nephew of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother selected an aqua afternoon length dress. A cor-

Miss Madeline Michel, exchange student from the University of Oregon, from Paris, France, was guest speaker at a benefit tea, sponsored by the Yoncalla Women's Study club, at the Epworth hall of the Methodist church, Saturday afternoon, Feb. 11th.

Miss Michel's topic was "Education of Young People in Post War France." Her talk was interesting and educational, bringing out the highlights in the difference in schools and universities in this country and France.
