MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAS MEETING FRIDAY

The Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met Friday evening in the Friendship room. A spirited discussion as to ways and methods of improvement followed by the business meeting, was led by the regular president, Mrs. Fay Clark. After the usual reports were given the announcement and invitation was read for the state wide convention to be held the weekend of Feb. 17 in the Mallory Avenue Christian church in Portland. Discussion of possible representation was made.

A new penny-jar was initiated and filled. The means supplies funds for local needs.

Mrs. Bryce Robinson conducted very inspiring devotionals, using the 37th Psalm.

Mrs. Ackert presented the program study on Japan, emphasizing locational word study, including some early Christian church study of that country.

Mrs. John Hodson presented Missionaries, particularly the Martin clarks who were well known to several. Mrs. Fay Clark read excerpts from the Christian Church in Japan by C. M. Youcum.

Mrs. Bryce Robinson spoke on the early church thought.

The following ladies were in attendance: Mesdames, Leona Cays, Althea Amon, Sally Leep, Veilean Bridgess, Valetta Taylor, Estelle Harmon, Amy Richardson, Edith S. Ackert, Pearl Anderson, Emma Beckley, Betty Robinson, Eva Hester, Antoinette Crenshaw, Fay Clark. The next meeting is to be a potluck dinner with most of the program around the table. The devotionals, business meeting and remainder of program will be held in the Friendship room after a recess. We invite all our friends to enjoy this evening with us, March 10th '50, 6:30 p.m.

TENMILE LADIES CLUB TO MEET AT POTLUCK

The Tenmile Ladies club will meet at a noon potluck luncheon at the Tenmile church Wednesday. All members are requested to be present.

EVERGREEN GRANGE INVITED CANDIDATES TO JOIN IN INITIATION

George Butler was installed as steward at the Evergreen grange meeting Friday, Feb. 10 with 100 percent attendance of officers. A ballot was taken on three applications for membership. Master Rubie Bloom presented the past master's pin to Charles McCord. At the Feb. 24th meeting all granges in the county are invited to bring their candidates for the initiation to be held that night. The first and second degrees will be exemplified. Ladies are asked to bring sandwiches or cookies.

Jessie Thomas, lecturer, presented a program relating to Valentine's day. A Valentine game was played first with all members participating. Several piano selections were played by Stanley Harriman and a game with Garnet Folmsbee assisting and a reading by Olivia Lander.

A potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. will precede the next meeting, Feb. 24 and members are urged to bring pot holders and dish towels for the display table or contact Nell Lander.

Refreshments were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. William Heinbach, Mr. and Mrs. John Lander, Jr., and Jessie Thomas.

VALENTINE PARTY IS INTERESTING AFFAIR

A lovely Valentine party was sponsored Tuesday evening by the Youth Temperance Council at the home of the counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh, in Lookingglass. Clever games had been arranged by the committee in charge which included the Misses Winifred Williams, Lorraine Jacoby, Lois Swift and Don Harmer and Kenneth Swift. Group singing was also enjoyed with Miss JoAnn Voorhies at the piano.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed lace covered table which was lighted by tall tapers and centered with a Valentine motif. Mrs. Walter Munger and Mrs. Arthur Marsh poured and Mrs. Arthur Marsh served the cakes. Present for the occasion were: the Misses Dolores Doyle, Shirley Anderson, June Meyers, JoAnn Voorhies, Lorraine Jacoby, Winifred Williams and Kenneth Swift, Victor Munger, Neal Meyer, Jr., Don Harmer, Melvin Green, Carl Ellenwood, Duane Harmer, Harvey Buckle, Mrs. Walter Munger, Mrs. J.
