CHICAGO, Feb. 24 — (P) —
Theodore Marcinkiewicz, 41, slight and balding after serving more than 18 years in prison of a 99 year sentence for murder, was freed in criminal court yesterday.

One of the first persons to greet Marcinkiewicz upon his release was Joseph Majczek, who was convicted with him in the slaying of Policeman William Lundy in the attempted holdup of a delicatessen. Majczek, after serving 11 years, was pardoned in 1945 when he was d 'lared to be innocent. Two years later he was awarded $24,000 by the Illinois legislature as damages for unjust imprisonment.

M jczek, whose fight for freedon was protrayed in the film "Call Northside 777," now is an i surance salesman.

Chief Justice Thomas J. Lynchruled that Marcinkiewicz's constitutional rights had been violated in that he had not been given a fai. I. He said that a statement to police by the owner of the delicrtessen, Mrs. Walush Kasulis, was suppressed but if produced by the state might have had a "very good influence on the jury."

Mrs. Kasulis had idnetified Marcinkiewicz as one of the slayers, But assistant Public Defender Erwin Block told Judge Lynch that before the trial Mrs. Kasulis had told police in a statement that she could not identify the slayer.

— A man accused of threatening a girl here exchanged shots with police last night, then apparently took his own life.

Police said they found the body of Robert McIntyre, 46, Negro, plumber's assistant, in a shed in the Broad street negro district, where they had chased him after answering a girl's call for help.

Dr. George H. Adler, county coroner, said McIntyre apparently had shot himself through the head with a 38 caliber revolver.

Patroiman Carl Kelley said he and patrolman Bud Switzer went to the scene when a 17-year-old girl. Troy Mae Peters, reported McIntyre had threatened her with the gun. The man fired a shot at them, then ran for the shed, Kelley said.

Senators Trying To Find Reds in State Dept. Ired By Truman's Attitude

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—(P)—Republicans today threatened a court fight to get secret loyalty files into the hands of a Senate committee ordered to hunt down any Communists in the State department.

That cast some doubt on whething or Senator (McCarthy (R-Wis) will furnish the committee with a full list of the all persons he said are Communists who either had been or are now working for the department.

MCCarthy said he doesn't know whether it will be worthwhile to go ahead with the investigation if the files remain locked up. The group sent word to Sen. Guy Cordon (R-Ore) that it considers the dams a death sentence for salmon runs in the Snake.

The commission also said it could mot sell an acre of ground at the mouth of Herman creek to army engineers for use as an Indian fishing site, since it would destroy the value of a fish hatchery on the creek. The engineers sought the site to replace sites flooded by Bonneville dam.
