KDND DIAL-LOG

TONIGHT: Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R), of Wisconsin, who has charged in public addresses that card-bearing Communists are still in government employ, will hold the press conference on the air during "Meet the Press" (7:00-7:30 p. m.). Studio session with Lou Franco and his "Happy Valley Cowboys" (7:30-8:00 p. m.) and another Pacific Coast conference basketball game between Oregon and O. S. C., beginning at 8:00 p. m.

SUNDAY: Don Lee's "Hopalong Cassidy" series—formerly aired on Thursdays—will move to Sundays in the 1:00 to 1:30 p. m. time slot effective tomorrow. Bill Boyd, star of the "Hopalong Cassidy" series, prizes an unusual letter he received from a young fan. The youngster asked the cowboy star to send along an imprint of "Hopalong Cassidy's boot in a cement block, so that he could start a western-type Grauman's Chinese forecourt in his own backyard. Boyd plans to do it—if he can figure out ways and means to mail a block of cement! . . . Robert Stack will portray the part of a young American captain in the drama of "The Spy" for the "Family Theater" broadcast in commemoration of George Washington's birthday (4:30-5:00 p. m.). Stage and screen star Faye Emerson will be the guest panelist for "Twenty Questions" (8:00-8:30 p. m.).

For the second successive year, Mutual-Don Lee will broadcast the music of the winning male quartet in the annual All-Northwest Barber-shop Ballad Contest. The program will originate from Forest Grove, Oregon. This is the fourth annual event, and features leading quartets from all the Pacific Northwest (Sunday, 8:30-9:00 p. m.). Jerome Kern's musical comedy, "The Cat and the Fiddle," will be aired for the first time by the "Chicago Theater" Sunday night at 10:30. Lyric soprano Nancy Carr and baritone Bruce Foote will be co-starred in the leading roles. Col. Robert M. McCormick, editor, publisher and world historian, will be heard speaking from Europe and Asia during the next five "Chicago Theater" broadcasts. On February 26, Col. McCormick's intermission discussion of a timely topic will originate from Madrid, one of his first stops in his tour of the Middle East and Asia (Sunday, 10:30-11:30 p. m.).

MONDAY: After that little man or little gal in the family has had his or her busy day . . . you can send 'em off to bed in a happy and contented frame of mind after they've heard KRRR's new "Sleepytime Tales" slated to begin Monday night, and Monday thru Friday thereafter (7:00-7:15 p. m.).

Azalea
 By ILA QUIRKE
 Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morgan visited friends and relatives at Azalea during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McBee of S. ingfield visited friends here, including the Ed, Leland and Rollin Johns families recently. The McBees formerly lived in Azalea.

Miss Peggie Sanderson entertained 14 of her friends at her home Saturday on her 12th birthday. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Recent visitors at Azalea and Medford were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. A'ams of Redmond. Adams, in the seed business at Redmond and Malin, claims to have come up with an answer to the permanent pasture grass question in the form of a new type clover.

Ellis Bushman of Azalea has returned to his home "much improved" following treatment since last August at the Roseburg Veterans hospital.

Mrs. Romtvedt, teacher for Azalea school 127, headed an interesting Washington birthday program at the school this week.

Rodrick Head entertained 11 of his playmates Saturday at his 11th birthday party. An afternoon supper and party at Grants Pass was the treat for his guests.
