

Marry At Impressive Ceremony Feb. 14

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton D. Atterbury

Miss Nancie Jeanette Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sutton, of Roseburg, became the bride of Clinton D. Atterbury, son of Jesse Atterbury and the late Mrs. Atterbury of this city, St. Valentine's evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, pastor of the First Christian church, performed the impressive ceremony by candlelight in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

Baskets of daffodils and candelabra holding tall white tapers formed the improvised altar. Miss Alice Sutton, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore a two-piece brown dress and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Paul Geddes played the wedding music on the piano and solovox.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a beige-color suit with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Bill Benson, wearing a brown dress and a pink rosebud corsage, was matron of honor and Mr. Benson was best man. The bride's mother wore an ice-blue dress with a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut. Serving refreshments were Mrs. Lowell Atterbury, Mrs. Edwin Myers and Mrs. Bill Benson. Miss Phyllis Sutton, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury was in charge of the gifts.

Following a honeymoon to coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Atterbury will reside in Glendale, Calif., where the bridegroom will enter college to study foreign trades. Both the bride and bridegroom formerly attended Roseburg high school. The bride has been studying dramatics in southern California for the last year and a half.
