

Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Briggs

Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Briggs returned to their home at 360 Terrace, Roseburg, this week, following a most enjoyable trip to Honolulu and back.

Seeing them off on the trip from San Francisco were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Briggs of Roseburg. The vacationers sailed on the luxury liner, President Cleveland, Feb. 3, and arrived in Honolulu, Feb. 8.

Mrs. Briggs found the travel by boat most delightful and preferred traveling that way, while Mr. Briggs was enthused much more by the trip back to the States on the new Stato-cruiser, Mainliner, which made the trip back in just a trifle more than eight hours. A large number of vacationers were on the boat going over to the Islands. Dancing, games, movies, concerts and church services were provided on the boat.

The boat was met in Honolulu by an orchestra and residents of the Islands bearing leis to the vacationists. While in Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Briggs had a cottage at Niemalu. They enjoyed a trip by boat to Pearl Harbor. Their sight-seeing tour included a visit to the M room temple, which is reputed to be one of the finest temples in the western hemisphere; a visit to the $45,000,000 veterans hospital and a tour of the Dole pineapple plant.

Hibiscus flowers were blooming profusely during the time the Briggs' were in Hawaii. Islanders and vacationers alike go hatless every day. A great many women wear colorful flowers in their hair in addition to wearing the flower leis.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Briggs report the vacation trip to Hawaii was even better than their expectations. To those planning a trip by boat to Pearl Harbor, their sight-seeing tour included a visit to the M room temple, which is reputed to be one of the finest temples in the western hemisphere; a visit to Sidelights..

Here and There

The Coble girls, three strong, Leslie Ann, Linda Jean and Lynn Sue, captured the hearts of the Jay-C Eites, visiting and local, Saturday at the fashion show which featured a luncheon at Carl's Haven.

Just starting to walk, they cautiously made their way out of the dressing room in organdie dresses, pink, blue and yellow, with matching personal feminine attire.

If one wonders how they and their shoes are kept apart it is interesting to note that their names are written on the back of each tiny shoe. The last part of their long walk among the luncheon tables was given a boost by Jay-C Eites who carried the toddlers.

The fashion show wasn't limited to the young generation however. Many of the ladies took the opportunity to wear new spring chapeaus and ensembles.

Gladly Hart, who welcomed the guests at the door, wore a pink suit with matching accessories and a corsage. Fashion show chairman Mrs. Leo Sevy was attractive in gray check and Mrs. Crook wore a brick red ensemble. Helen Scott, new prexy for the local feminine JCs, wore a navy outfit.

Adding color and conversation were the blue name badges worn by the group. Half of the Jay-C Eites, note that their names all agreed it was fine to know the names of all concerned.

Clover Taylor acted as narrator for the fashion show in her capable manner, and a corsage was presented to Paula Antleron, from Miller's children's department, by the club. The young models were not forgotten either, each receiving a gift of candy.

George Washington, the father of our country, garnered his share of attention Wednesday, as the day was set aside as a legal holiday. Many clubs and organizations drew from this holiday for their table decorations at social events during the past week.

Community chest participants will have an opportunity to learn the activities and progress made during the past year by the Camp Fire organization in Roseburg Monday. The second annual meeting, open to the public, will begin at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church. Reports on the activities of the council will be given.

And along comes another beloved American's birthday, that of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Monday, Feb. 27. He was born in 1807 and during his 75 years gave the world a "dear to the hearts of young and old."

And on more doings for the coming week we'll take a cue from Longfellow:

"Don't cross the bridge 'till you come to it."
Is a proverb old and of excellent wit."
