

Hemmerling-Correll Wedding Takes Place

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Hemmerling

Miss Alvina Correll and Gifford Hemmerling of Roseburg were married at ten o'clock the evening of January 28th in the Methodist church at Medford. Rev. Mr. Grove, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony. Two large baskets of carnations formed the decoration.

The bride was lovely in a brown shawl suit with white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was two white orchids. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Laurene Deen, of Medford, was matron of honor, and wore a grey suit with an orchid corsage. Kenneth Hemmerling of Medford was best man to his brother.

Others present were the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. W. E. Correll of Roseburg and Mrs. H. D. Yates of Sutherlin; the bridegroom's parents, Mrs. E. C. Sivall and Floyd Hemmerling of Medford, and Mrs. Jack Bertrand, Medford, sister of the bridegroom.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's father, after which the couple left for Oakland and San Francisco on their honeymoon. They are now at home to their friends at 735 Bogard street in Roseburg. The bride is employed as cashier at the Roseburg Safeway store and the bridegroom is assistant manager at Safeway's, having been transferred here six months ago from Medford.

Fashion Show Features Jay-C-Ette State Board Luncheon

ALL READY FOR BEDTIME are three young folks, Kathy Morris, Sharon Lambeth and David Britnell as they model sleepwear at the Jay-C-Ettes fashion show last Saturday. Paul Jenkins, News-Review photographer, caught the three as they promenade between the luncheon tables. Mothers of the trio are respectively Mrs. Carl Morris, Mrs. Bob Lambeth and Mrs. Walt Britnell.

Roseburg Jay-C-Ettes were hostesses at a noon luncheon and fashion show at Carl's Haven Saturday, Feb. 18 honoring visiting Jay-C-Ettes, in Roseburg with their husbands for the state board meeting.

The guests were welcomed at the door by the club president, Mrs. Charles Hart, Mrs. Wayne Crooch and Mrs. Mel Heggie. The luncheon tables were decorated with heather and the programs carried out a yellow and blue theme. Daffodils and spring flowers were arranged on the coffee table by the fireplace.

Following the luncheon a style show of spring fashions for the younger generation was given by Miller's children's department, with Mrs. Paula Anderson and Rod Nevue in charge.

Average priced spring styles in sleepwear, bathing suits, dresses, coats, hats and playtoys were modeled by a group of children. Taking part were Danny and Kenny Baker, Richard and Sherry Lambeth, Dianne, David and Judy Britnell, Caroline Fredrickson, Donnelle Hart, Johnny Sevy, the Coble triplets, Kathleen Scott, Kathy Morris and Dianne Pugh. Mrs. Clarke Taylor was narrator for the fashion show and was introduced by the president, Mrs. Hart. Arrangements for the show were in charge of Mrs. Leo Sevy assisted by Mrs. LeRoy Inman, Mrs. Bob Lambeth and Mrs. Duane Baker. Decorations for the luncheon were in charge of Mrs. George McIntosh and Mrs. James Decker and Mrs. Don Gum made arrangements for the luncheon.

Over sixty were in attendance with 31 from out-of-town. The ladies also attended the welcome party at the Shamilar Friday evening and the banquet at Kennedy's Saturday evening.

The Naomi Scott quartet provided music during the luncheon and fashion show at Carl's. Members of the quartet are Mary Alice Wolford and Naomi Scott, Beulah Roach, and Jean Marr.
