Matmen Will Enter K-Falls District Meet

Cecce Sherwood's matmen travel to Klamath Falls to participate in the first district meet ever for wrestling, Friday and Saturday nights.

Because of the increased number of schools throughout Oregon that are turning out wrestling teams, it has become necessary to hold district eliminations so that the Oregon State College wrestling arena can handle the anticipated number of mat delegates from Oregon high schools.

The state has been divided into four wrestling districts. Springfield, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Burns and Bend are included in this area.

The meet will feature 12 weight classifications, with schools allowed to bring two men for each weight class. Roseburg will take 11 men, as there is a vacancy in the 121 pound class on the local team.

Those slated to travel, with Sherwood, Klamath Falls this week-end include Warren Nicholson, 96; Mike Keeney, 104; Bill Morgan, 113; Marvin Sigfridson, 128; Bill Palmer, 133; John Gaffney, 139; Norman Smith, 146; Jim St. Onge, 155; Dick St. Onge, 166; Chet Rowe or Tom Vance, 176 and Glen Scofield, heavy weight.

Only those wrestlers who place in the district meet will participate in the state tournament. The high school teams having the most number of winners, will have an edge at capturing the state mat toga.

'Hotstove League' Ends; Big League Teams In Training

The "hotstove league" ended today as major league baseball clubs began spring training in Florida, Arizona and California.

The first league games will not be played until next month, but millions of fans immediately started following the camp doings of both veterans and rookies.

The fans recalled with enthusiasm the exciting 1949 pennant races when both the American and National league flags were decided on the last day of the season.

The world champion New York Yankees and the National league pennant winner, the Brooklyn Dodgers, both will train in Florida where Commissioner A. B. Chandler asserted yesterday that 1950 would be the "greatest season baseball has ever had."

"I am happy to say that things are reasonably quiet just now in the administrative end of baseball," the commissioner said at West Palm Beach, Fla. where he visited Connie Mack, venerable manager of the Philadelphia Athletics.

"I've never made predictions on the pennant races, but I'll predict this will be our biggest year. Never have we approached a season with fewer major problems to be solved."

Tennis Coach Extends Call For Raquetees

Among the harbingers of spring in the sports world is the game of tennis, and Coach Al Hoffman, tennis mentor, has issued a call time for a new crop of raquetees.

A meeting of tennis candidates is scheduled for Thursday at the high school. Regular practice and conditioning will start the following Monday.

Six lettermen will be back from last year's tennis team. Included is three-year letterman Ronnie Strickling and one-year lettermen Gordon Conley, Larry Henninger, Norman Queen and Dick Jacobson.

MYRTLE CREEK GRAD SCORES—OSC forward Bud Shirlcliff (34) scores a two-pointer for the Rooks in a recent game against Oregon City hoopers played at the new Gill coliseum. The Rooks came out on top 42-31. Shirlcliff, who starred in all sports at Myrtle Creek high school and in various town teams, scored four points for OSC, in the above pictured game, which was snapped by Rod Newland, freshman at OSC, and former Roseburg high school student.

60 Trackmen Start Session Of Calisthenics

Over 60 candidates were on tap for the opening day of track practice Tuesday at the Finlay field oval. Among those who were present included members of Norm West's varsity baseball team, also out for the first time Tuesday.

Both the trackmen and baseball boys will continue a two-week session of calisthenics and alternate walks and runs, getting in shape for the track and baseball season.

Larry Palmer, sprinter, was on tap as was Neil Sheets and Ed Stritake, distance men. Bill Van Horn, the other track letterman, will take a two-week rest, following his hitch with the basketball team.

The number of track prospects expected to be on hand will be boosted with the termination of wrestling and boxing and following a two-week rest for basketball players who anticipate berths on the cinder team.

Coach Frank Purdy said he would follow a policy of turning away no man from the track team. Those who can stand the pace that will be set are welcome to "come out," said Purdy.

Purdy, who vowed to make Roseburg a respected cinder center, said only a rigorous program of preliminary body and wind building appears to be the way to do it.

Every man who "sticks it out" will have an opportunity to compete, were Purdy's words; either on the varsity or junior varsity team.

Practice will continue each evening of school starting at 4 p. m.

The referee stopped the bout after a hard right to the jaw sent Gordon wobbling in bad shape. It was a fairly even bout to that point.

Portland Beaver Fielders Start Drills In Training

RIVERSIDE, March 1. — (AP) — The Portland Beavers' infielders and outfielders started drills at their training camp today after Manager Bill Sweeney put his batterymen through their final day of exclusive practice yesterday.

An exhibition game scheduled for today with Sacramento here has been canceled. The Beavers have added an exhibition game with Sacramento here March 17.

30 Baseball Players Out For Exercise

Coach Norm West counted some 30 heads, who anticipate becoming members of the Indian varsity baseball team, Tuesday during calisthenics and conditioning drills, ing drills.

The current baseball crop includes a number of boys back from last year. They will work out with Frank Purdy's trackmen for the next two weeks, after which baseball fundamentals, including infield, outfield and batting practice will commence.

West revealed positions are wide open for all newcomers. Games will be played against Medford, Grants Pass, Myrtle Creek and Sutherlin, but no contests have yet been scheduled.

The weather will be a big factor in the playing of games, said West, who added that in this area, baseball games are always scheduled on a tentative basis, in view of the unpredictability of the weather.

Back from last year are pitchers Tom Johnson, Mickey Coen, Claren Hooper, Bob Sullivan; catcher John Rauschert; infielders Glen Scofield, Buddy Mathews, Dexter Garvey, Frank Olson, Lloyd Stumbo; and outfielders Barry Kenny, Chet Rowe, Norm Smith and Gene Henry.

Frankie Stojack, Great Atlas Return To Armory Saturday

Three great wrestling matches, including a return engagement between Frankie Stojack and The Great Atlas, will be staged at the Roseburg armory Saturday. Matchmaker Elton Owen classes the show at one of the really great talent programs of the season and he anticipates the first capacity attendance in some time.

There is considerable pressure on the headliner in which Roseburg fans believe Stojack should have a chance to regain his laurels. The so-called Mr. America, who has an amazing exhibition of feats of strength during the show, defeated Stojack with a full-nelson in 26 minutes of the first fall. Stojack won the second with a giant swing and a crab hold, but in untagging the matmen, the middle right rope was broken. There was not sufficient time to have the rope repaired—and that resulted in Stojack's defeat. The former WSC athlete clamped on an airplane spin, but stumbled over the rope and went hurtling into the ringside. Stojack was dazed and Atlas remained on the ring apron to get the decision when Stojack failed to regain the ring within 20 seconds.

Stojack claimed that the match should have been stopped, and both Owen and the commission agreed—and that's the reason the two matmen will meet again.

Owen said that the muscle man from Hollywood has promised to give another exhibition—but only one of his tricks—during Saturday's show.

Andy Truman, the great Texan on leave from the Border Patrol, will meet Pierre LaBelle, French-Canadian stylist, in a three-fall semi-final bout. Ted Bell, the sensational Jersey City star, will meet Karl Gray of Milwaukee in the one-fall opener.

Douglas county fans are warned to make early ringside seat reservations at Powell's.

Turnesa, Stranahan Set For British Tournament

NEW YORK, March 1. — (AP) — Willie Turnesa and Frank Stranahan, both former champions, will lead Uncle Sam's assault on the British amateur golf tournament this year.

A half-dozen Americans, including crooner Bing Crosby, have signified intentions of competing at the historic Royal and Ancient club of St. Andrews May 22-27.

Turnesa, who won the British crown in 1947 between a couple of U. S. amateur triumphs, announced this would be his only foreign venture in 1950. The rest of the time, he said, will be concentrated on U. S. events, particularly the open.
