World War Claims Should Be Filed By March 2

SALEM, Feb. 28. — (AP) — Persons having World War II claims must file them by March 2, the adjutant general's office says.

Forms can be obtained from the adjutant general's office, State Veterans department, or from county veterans service officers.

Those entitled to claims include business men who suffered financial loss because of the war, any person interned by a military government, the next of kin of persons who died in the custody of enemy governments; any person who was injured, tortured, suffered ill health or loss of wages while held by the enemy; persons who were in hiding to avoid capture, persons who lost property, or persons who had their money seized.
