The county road workmen have started construction of a new bridge to replace the old one across Champagne creek at Melrose. The present bridge was built in 1932.

Mrs. Walter Kruse was honored on her birthday last week when Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Conn and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith called at her home. The evening was spent playing cards.

Dillard

J. W. Stoner and daughter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Evans and three small boys from Shelton, Wash., visited Stoner's mother, Mrs. Mary Stoner, of Lookingglass and sister Mrs. Lee Barnes, and family in Dillard. They report eight inches of snow in their yard yet in Washington. In contrast, Mrs. Lee Barnes reports her rare camellias, primroses and bulbs burst into full bloom these last few days.
Mrs. J. E. Evans entertained her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Bab, of Deer Park, Wash., for several days.
Mr. and Mrs. Milford P. Little of Brockway have returned from Los Angeles, and Glendale, Calif., and report a grand trip. Little has procured employment there and they expect to sell their home place and move down there right away. They moved to this vicinity from Los Angeles four years ago.
Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Shockley drove to Eugene and Springfield Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Davidson and three children have moved to Dillard from Finn Rock, on the McKenzie river. He is the brother of Mason Davidson and an old time resident of this community. Their two children, Keith and Carol Lee, are attending Dillard school. Melody Sue is just three. Two children are attending Blue River school and residing with Mrs. Davidson's parents and will come down when school is out.

Rupert Davidson, a resident of this community for 30 years, who moved to Sutherlin a year ago, was in Dillard visiting at the home of his son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Mason Davidson last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Lindstrom of Dillard received the news of the birth of a new grandson born Feb. 28, to their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith of Ashland, named James Loren. Ray Smith formerly worked at a Hult's Dillard mill but is now attending pre-dental school at Ashland. He is the son of Grant Smith, now residing in Dillard.

The Dillard Tenmile - Winston youth held their monthly roller skating party Friday night at the Killeeta rink in Roseburg. They held the record of having the largest reserved night at the rink this year. They were sponsored by Rev. W. W. Appleyard and driven there in the school bus by Jess Nelson. They were also accompanied there by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mrs. Eva Laker, Mrs. Isme Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Haumeser, Mr. Oscar Amundson, Jr. Elmer Hunter, Mrs. Cora Evans, Mrs. Walter Middlestadt, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mahoney.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Shockley drove to Coos Bay last Sunday and visited Mrs. Shockley's aunt, Mrs. Edna Nelson.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cooper of Dillard were surprised Saturday morning when their eldest grandson Jimmy Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Clark of Coquille, arrived here enroute to his home for a ten-day leave. He is a hospital corpsman in the medical laboratory of the navy, stationed in Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. Gordon Mead of Eugene has been the house guest of her aunt Mrs. O. D. McAllister of Dillard for the last week.
