Barney Root, with 248, paced the single game bowlers in the City league's stint at the bowling alley Monday night, helping to give his Roseburg Lumber teammates a 2-1 edge over Umpqua Chiefs, but over the three-game route, Dr. Mix proved to be the leader with a 175-241-185-601 accumulation.

In games played by City leaguers Monday, Active club scored 3-0 over Olympia Supply; Gilkeson's topped K. J. Lurch 2-1; and Dutch Mill led Roseburg Jewelers 2-1.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
Philadelphia — Kid Gavilan, 148½, Cuba, outpointed Otis Graham, 149½, Philadelphia (10).
Miami, Fla. — Rocky Graziano, 162½, New York, knocked out Joe Curcio, 153½, Jersey City, N. J. (1).
Newark, N.J. — Steve Bellasie, 163, New York, outpointed Germaine Cabouche, 168½, France (8).
Syracuse, N. Y. — Carmen Basilio, 142, Canastota, N.Y., outpointed Lew Jenkins, 140, Sweetwater, Tex. (8).

San Francisco — A scheduled 10-round fight between Benny Walker, 151, Oakland, Calif., and Tommy Lee James, 152, Los Angeles, ended in one-round draw when Walker accidentally butted James. Bout terminated under rules.

Sutherland Card Sets Coast Boxers

Another evening of amateur boxing is listed for Douglas county fight fans when Sutherland-Oakland punchers trade blows with a visiting Coquille aggregation Friday night at the Sutherland Legion hall, starting 8 o'clock.

Ted Smith, 132, Sutherland, is listed to oppose Coos county's amateur boxing champ in the 137 pound class Bob Groves, in the main boxing event.

Alvin Russell, 164, Sutherland, who defeated Les Meyers of Bandon last weekend at Coquille, will trade blows with Dick Parrish, 168, of Coquille in a semi-windup.

Eddie Frobost, 128 pound Oakland boy, will battle Billy O'Neil, 136, who holds the amateur featherweight championship in Coos county.

In another bout, Alan Kendall, 115, Oakland, who lost a decision to Mel Drew, 115 pound Coquille lad last Saturday, is listed for an opportunity to even the score this weekend, when both lads meet in a return engagement.

Several other matches are also listed to be fought. All will be over the scheduled three-round route, said Floyd Porter, promoter.

In 1949, harness race driver's licenses were issued to 7,199 horsemen, and 3,720 persons actually drove in races.

Ohio State Still Holds Second Spot

NEW YORK, March 7 — (AP) — The Braves of Bradley university were an overwhelming choice today as the nation's No. 1 college basketball team in the final Associated Press poll of the season.

Now all the classy club from Peoria, Ill., has to do is show the basketball public that the nation's sports writers and broadcasters were right in hoisting them to the pinnacle via the ballot.

Bradley, with a 27-3 record, gets its chance to do just that in the national invitation tournament beginning Saturday at Madison Square Garden. In addition, the Peoria lads have further opportunity to cement their claims in National Collegiate Athletic association competition.

Bradley will meet the winner of the Big Seven conference title—either Nebraska, Kansas State or Kansas—March 30 at Kansas City for the right to represent district 5 in the NCAA western regional tourney March 24-25.

Bradley Vote Up
With a total of 206 votes cast—largest number of the season in the weekly AP poll—Bradley topped 99 first place ballots and a total of 1,802 points. A week ago the Braves got only 42 votes for first and 1,214 points.

Ohio State, which captured the Big Ten crown and wound up with a 19-3 record, remained in second place with 1,435 points. Ohio State comes to New York for the eastern NCAA regional tourney, March 23-25. The eastern and western winners tangle March 28 at Madison Square Garden for the national NCAA crown, won by Kentucky last year.

Kentucky, moving fast now after a shaky start this year, moved into third place in the final poll. Kentucky was fourth last week, and in a close point battle with Holy Cross, dumped the Crusaders from third to fourth. Kentucky (24-5) and winner of the Southern conference tourney last week, received 1,294 points, compared to 1,238 for Holy Cross, which dropped its only game of the season Saturday to Kentucky after running up 26 straight victories. Kentucky won the 1949 AP poll after compiling a 29-1 record. Ohio State was 20th in last year's final poll.

Same Teams On Top
All of the teams in the top ten last week stuck there this time, but there were some other shifts in position.

North Carolina State, which blasted through to its fourth straight southern conference tournament championship last week, moved from eighth in last week's balloting to fifth. The Wolfpack wound up with a 24-5 mark.

Duquesne, (22-3) upset by Akron and Baldwin-Wallace last week, fell from fifth to sixth; U.C.L.A. (22-5) which split with Southern California last week, dropped from sixth to seventh; Western Kentucky, (24-5), went down a notch from seventh to eighth. St. John's of Brooklyn (22-4) took ninth spot, trading places with La Salle of Philadelphia (20-3). St. week, was the only outfit in the top 10 which didn't receive a first place vote.

Rookie Goes To Center
ORLANDO, Fla., March 7 — (AP) — Hoping to lick some of the Washington nationals' outfield problems, Manager Bucky Harris is putting his $70,000 rookie, Irvin Noren in centerfield.

While Harris watched, Noren drove five batting-practice homers out of the park yesterday, clearing the 15-foot right field wall, 350 yards from the plate, very neatly.

"Even if Noren flops," Harris said, "I'll always believe he would have been a great ball player."

Coast Training Camps

LOS ANGELES, March 7 — (AP) — Having enjoyed a day of rest, the Hollywood Stars will tangle with the University of Southern California's baseball team in an exhibition here today.

Yesterday, the Hollywood B team blanked the California institute for men, 11 to 0, in an eight-inning game at the Chino prison. Gus Stathos homered for the Stars.

FULLERTON, Calif., March 7 — (AP) — The Los Angeles Angels go after their fifth successive exhibition victory here today, tangling again with the Sacramento Solons.

The Seraphs collected hits in the first six innings and beat Sacramento, 3 to 1, at Anaheim. Catcher Nelson Brubrick drove in two of the runs with a pinch single.

Rich, also a catcher, and a rookie, brought in the other with a double off the left field wall in the seventh inning.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., March 7 — (AP) — Paul Richards, manager of the Seattle Rainiers, is on the casualty list today, his nose having lost an argument yesterday with a pitched ball.

Richards was demonstrating bunting technique when the ball bounded up off his bat and bloodied his head. Two teeth were also loosened.

Seattle plays the San Francisco Seals here again today in the third exhibition in their series of eight.

Ruggier Arizola, Al Gerbeauer and Fred Schmidt will pitch for San Francisco.

RIVERSIDE, Calif., March 7 — (AP) — Red Lynn, Vince Dibiasi and Jack Creel are scheduled to take the mound for Portland today in a exhibition game with the San Diego Padres.

Creel, a 16-game winner for Houston last season, is a newcomer to the club. Catcher Johnny Ritchey arrived in time for yesterday's workout, but he probably won't see action today, says Manager Bill Sweeney.

Shortstop Frank Austin is due in today from Panama.

ONTARIO, Calif., March 7 — (AP) — Manager Del Baker of the San Diego Padres will start southpaw Roy Welmaker against the Portland Beavers tomorrow in the game at Riverside.

Baker plans to work Mel Kneovich or John Marshall the last four innings. Yesterday, the Padres went through a long batting practice.

Before leaving for San Diego, club owner Bill Starr announced the purchase of shortstop Joe Bache from Laredo, Tex.

YMCA Volleyball Hour For Tuesdays Canceled
The YMCA volleyball hour for men will not be held on Tuesday nights from now on, according to John Ulrich, "Y" program chairman. All men of Roseburg are invited to attend the hour which is held from 5:30 p. m. to 6:30 p. m., on Thursday night, Ulrich added. There are two courts available and this room for many more to take part in this program.

PETERSEN IN TOWN
PORTLAND, March 7 — (AP) — Big Bill Petersen arrived here yesterday to start training for the defense of his claim on the northwest heavyweight boxing title against Joe Kahut of Woodburn. They meet in a March 14 bout.

NIT Has Full Tourney List

By The Associated Press
The national invitation basketball tournament had its round dozen teams today—an imposing array that includes six of the nation's top ten and nine of the first twenty.

Seeds and the draw are the only preliminary requirements left for the big dribble derby opening Saturday afternoon at Madison Square Garden.

The invitation completed its star-studded lineup by lassoing a couple of teams from around home—upstate Niagara and CCNY — and reaching all the way across the continent for Arizona, ranked 15th nationally.

Already in the fold were Bradley, No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll; Kentucky, No. 2; Duquesne, No. 6; Western Kentucky, No. 8; St. John's of Brooklyn, No. 9; and LaSalle, No. 10.

From the second ten in the national rankings were plucked San Francisco, defending champion at 12th, and Long Island university, No. 13, to go along with Arizona.

The remaining contender, Lew Anderson's "silver anniversary" quintet from Syracuse university, like Niagara and CCNY, failed to place in the first twenty.

The fast NCAA championship tournament, beginning March 23, also is drawing heavily from the select bracket.

Although the eight-team field is not nearly complete, second-ranked Ohio State, fourth-placed Holy Cross and No. 5 North Carolina State already are chosen—and U.C.L.A., No. 7, is a good possibility.

The regular season, meanwhile, is about to run its course.

Brigham Young defeated Denver, 75-50, last night to take the Skyline Six title, finishing with a season's record of 21-11. Arizona clinched the boarder crown, trouncing Hardin-Simmons, 63-41.

Columbia won second place in the Ivy league standings by stopping Cornell, 60-35. St. Louis sewed up a runnerup spot in the Missouri Valley by defeating Tulsa, 72-53. La Salle whipped Boston College, 83-41. Minnesota toppled Iowa, 64-49.

Indian Seniors Defeat Juniors

In a final inter-quad basketball game, the senior members of the Roseburg varsity basketball team defeated the juniors, 46-22.

The juniors, without the services of Frank Olson, who suffered a cash over his eye in an unorganized basketball game Thursday, led at the half, but the seniors, paced by Dexter Garey and Bill Van Horn, fought back to take the lead at the end of the third quarter and held it to the end of the game.

Kee Briggs and Larry Freeman were high point men for the juniors, while Garey and Van Horn were high for the seniors. Garey led all scorers with 21 points. Lineups:

Willamette, Portland Clash in NAIB Tonight

WILLAMETTE, PORTLAND — (AP) — Willamette and the University of Portland clash tonight for the district 2 berth in the national association intercollegiate basketball tournament.

Willamette defeated Northern Idaho College of Education, 52 to 49, in last month's first round play. Portland eliminated Southern Oregon College of Education, 59 to 47, in the other game to hold its favored-team status for the trip to Kansas City.

STEPS UP — Joe Ruets (above), line coach at St. Mary's College in Moraga, Calif., has been named head coach for the Gael grid team, filling the post made vacant by the resignation of Joe Verducci. Ruets, 33, Notre Dame All-American in 1928, signed a two-year contract.

Two Ohio State Hoopers Named To Big 10 Team

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO, March 7 — (AP) — Champion Ohio State appeared two berths and Buckeye Dick Schmittner and Wisconsin's Rehfeldt were unanimous picks on the 1950 Associated Press all Big Ten basketball team.

Selected today after a poll of conference coaches, the honor quintet also included Minnesota's Whitey Skogg, Indiana's Lou Watson and Bob Donham, Schmittner's Ohio State running mate.

Skogg and Watson each missed a sweep in the balloting by only one first team vote. Donham four first team votes and 11 of 18 possible points. None of 15 other players in the balloting received more than one first team vote.

Average 6' 3"

The bristling No. 1 combination, averaging 6-foot, 3-inches and 185 pounds per player, had three hold-overs from the AP's 1949 all-loop team. They were 6-6 Rehfeldt, league scoring champion for the second straight season, 6-5 Schmittner, runner-up in scoring; and fiery Skogg, the "shrimp" of the team at 5-11.

The 6-4 Watson, a slick shot and play-maker, moved up from second-team ranking last year, while cond-team ranking last year, while honorable mention. Excepting junior Skogg, the all-star team is composed of seniors.

Second Team
The second all-star combination included Ray Ragelis of Northwestern and Iowa's Franklin Calsbeck at forwards; Wally Osterkorn of Illinois, at center; and Purdue's Howard Williams and Indiana's Bill Garrett at guards.

It was Osterkorn's misfortune to have the center position of Wisconsin's Rehfeldt. The clever Illinois pivot finished in brilliant style to take over third in conference scoring with 212 points.

Rehfeldt ended with a 12-game

Drain Plays Monmouth In Opener

By The Associated Press
Garibaldi will be host team for the state class B high school basketball tournament opening at Astoria Thursday, but for once this will not be as enviable a position as you might think.

Garibaldi was the last team to qualify for the tourney, downing Tillamook Catholic for the district 1 title last night, 53 to 39.

Host teams normally rank high in tourney ratings, but there are two differences this time. For one thing Garibaldi is not too familiar with the Astoria court where the tourney will be played.

More important, Garibaldi will have to face Union, the defending champion, in the opening round. Union is the hottest school in class B. It has won nearly everything in sight.

In the past year it captured its state basketball, track and football crowns. It was runner-up in baseball. There appears to be no let-down. Union swept through eastern Oregon hoop teams this year without much trouble, and won the district 8 title.

Other games in the first round will see Monmouth (district 2) against Drain (4); Condon (6) against Rogue River (5); and Prairie City (7) against Alsea (3).

Three Idaho Hoopers On WSC Coach's Team

PULLMAN, Wash., March 7 — (AP) — Idaho rated as a pretty good basketball club in Coach Friel's mind when he picked the 10 best players with the opposition in the northern division.

The Washington State college coach chose three Idaho men and two University of Washington players for his first five: Bob Pritchett, Dick Geisler and Bob Wheeler from Idaho, and Washington's Don Henson and Tom Soriano.

Friel's second quintet included: Frank Guinness, Washington; Dick Ballantyne, Oregon State, and Will Urban, Mel Krause and Jack Keller, all juniors at Oregon.

Fourth place Idaho was the only team in the league to beat the championship W. S. C. club twice.

W. Virginia Coach Dead

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., March 7 — (AP) — Basketball Coach Lee Patton, 47, of the University of West Virginia, died suddenly today at his home here.

Patton was injured in an automobile accident on the Pennsylvania turnpike Feb. 14 but apparently was recovering.

The university's medical director, Dr. Samuel F. Morris, said the veteran coach probably died from a heart attack caused by a blood clot as a result of his accident injuries.

He said Patton suffered an attack about 3 a. m. and died about three hours later.

His wife and two daughters were at the bedside when death came.

count of 265 points, only seven shy of the all-time Big Ten mark of 272 held by Murray Wier of Iowa.

Krause One Of Five UO Lettermen At Practice

EUGENE, March 7 — (AP) — Oregon baseball Coach Don Kirsch counted 38 candidates for the university's baseball varsity today as spring training opened.

Kirsch's problem is to build practically a new team. His last year's team was almost cleaned out by graduation last June. The only lettermen on hand were pitchers Mel Krause and De Wayne Johnson, catcher Hal Torkelson, third baseman Ken Kimball and outfielder Ray Stratton. Johnson, however, did not pitch last season.

There were 13 bidders for pitching spots, but only five had had previous experience on the mound here.
