Frank Olson Leads Year's Indian Scoring

Junior center Frank Olson led the scoring on the 1949-50 Roseburg high school basketball team which ended its season with an 8-15 record, but tied for the sub-district championship with Reedsport and was second to Siuslaw in the sub-district tournament.

Olson scored 136 counters on 49 field goals and 56 foul shots. Dexter Garey, senior guard followed with 129 points on 47 field goals and 35 foul tosses.

Olson also led in fouls with 83 charged against him. Garey was second in this department with 65.

Coach Jack Newby will lose six seniors from this year's squad, including Garey, Ron Strickling, Bud Mathews, Bill Van Horn, Tom Johnson and Larry Henninger. There will be nine players returning next year, however, including Olson, Kee Briggs, Larry Freeman, Mickey Coen, Roy Van Horn, Dale Black, Jerry Sconce, Gordon Conley and Don Campbell. Season scoring is as follows:

Two Portland Teams Gather District Titles

(By The Associated Press)
 Dallas jumped into the state class A high school basketball tournament lineup last night but the surprise was a finish in the Portland league that awarded two district titles.

Roosevelt high claimed the district 15 crown and tournament berth by dumping Cleveland, 70 to 40, as expected. On another court, the Jefferson Democrats—who had been tied with the Rough Riders—went down before cellar-dwelling Benson, 42 to 33. The Democrats picked up the district 16 crown in the defeat while rival Roosevelt wore the city championship.

Dallas went into the tournament by defeating Dayton, 45 to 33, in the district 8-A playoff final. Newberg, the team favored for the crown earlier in the season, took consolation third place by wallowing Salem Academy, 72 to 36.

These decisions left only one district crown and state berth in question. Salem plays Mt. Angel in district 11's final tonight with the Vikings favored to go to Eugene next week for the 32nd annual rounds.

Heavyweights promise plenty of action when the 13th NCAA boxing tournament is held at Penn State March 30-April 1.

Duck Mentor To Speak At JC Hoop Banquet

Affair Will Honor Indian Basketweavers

Jim Aiken, left, head football coach at the University of Oregon, will be the featured speaker at the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored basketball banquet, dated for Monday night, March 13, starting at 6:30 p.m. in the junior high school auditorium.

Hailed as an entertaining speaker as well as a top-flight football coach, whose Oregon teams tied for second place in the conference this first year at the "U" and tied for first place his second year there, Aiken is expected to deliver a talk spiced with laugh-provoking anecdotes and inspiring words to players of Jack Newby's Roseburg Indian hoop squad, at which time they, with their fathers, will be honored guests of the Jaycees.

Two trophies, donated by Jaycees, will be engraved with the names of the most inspiring player on the varsity squad and the player who potted the most free throws during the past season. The winners will be announced by Jaycee president George McIntosh.

The Indians, who would up the season with a tie for first place in sub-district play and finished second to Siuslaw in the sub-district tournament, will lose five basketball players in June. They are Dexter Garey, Tom Johnson, Bud Mathews, Ronnie Strickling and Bill Van Horn. Johnson, Garey and Mathews will wind up their sports career here on Norm West's varsity basketball team; Strickling will play his fourth year of tennis for Al Hoffman, while Bill Van Horn will be back on the high school track squad, following a two-week rest from basketball.

Other varsity basketweavers to be honored at the banquet Monday night include juniors Kee Briggs, Don Campbell, Mickey Coen, Gordon Conley, Frank Olson, Jerry Sconce, Roy Van Horn, and Harry Freeman.

Mayor Albert G. Fiegl will be included among the distinguished visitors expected to be present at the banquet.

HEADS JAYCEE PROGRAM MONDAY—Jim Aiken, University of Oregon football coach, will be the featured speaker at the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored basketball banquet, honoring players and fathers of Jack Newby's 1950 varsity team, 6:30 p. m. Monday, March 13, at the junior high school auditorium. Tickets may be purchased at Lawson's Jewelers, Local Loan Co., Horn's Super Creamery and members of the Jaycees. YMCA League Second Half Is Tight Race

It looks like a race to the finish to determine who wins the second half toga in YMCA basketball play.

Both Umpqua Plywood and Roseburg Jaycees, racing neck-in-neck with five wins and one loss each in second half play, won their games last night. Plywood did it to National Guard's five, 49-29, while the Jaycees, making a poor second half showing after leading 12-5 at the half, won by a bare 20-16 count, over Christian church.

The plywood quint, paced by high-scorer Stan Walley, who accumulated 30 points, forged ahead to a 26-14 lead at halftime. Bill Benson, Plywood center, loomed along for a 10 point contribution to his team's total. Guardsman Parson was high pointer for the losers with eight.

Scoring in the Jaycee-Christian church game was fairly evenly distributed, with Bud Parsons, Jaycee reserve, leading on six counters.

Next week, the second half crown will be determined in the early game, when Jaycees face the Plywood team starting 7:30. If the Jaycees win, they meet Plywood again, to decide the champion for the entire season. Plywood won the first half crown.

Lineups:
 Ump. Plywood (49) (29) Nat. Guard
 Long 1 F 3 Wescott
 C. Walley 4 F 8 Parson
 Benson 10 C 4 Harrison

Medford Boxers Slate Contests With Roseburg

Medford's Black Tornado boxers will visit Roseburg Friday night for a scheduled 36-rounds, starting 7:30 p.m. at the junior high school auditorium against Ray Brown's clever aggregation of punchers.

This is the first year Medford has ever fielded a boxing team, and if the visitor's enviable record in other sports is a revealing sign, Brown's boys, who have won four and lost one team session this year, should have their work cut out for them.

The Roseburg contingent has won over Grants Pass twice, over Reedsport once, and split even with Springfield. Medford has split a pair of fights with Grants Pass, Brown reported.

In their most recent encounter against Grants Pass Saturday night, Brown's boxers won 29-19.

Jim Fosback, 132 pound pride and joy on the local team turned in the only TKO of the card. He had his opponent, Kelly Adrian, 136, reeling on the ropes in 45 seconds of the first round. The referee called a halt at that point.

Odds Favor Bradley U. In Tourney

By The Associated Press
 Bradley university's Braves are a 7-2 favorite to win the national invitation basketball tournament opening at Madison Square Garden Saturday.

The odds makers today conceded a couple of blue grass entries—Western Kentucky and Kentucky—the best chance to derail the pride of Peoria's march to new honors.

Western has rated a 4-1 choice and sophomore-laden Kentucky was figured at 5-1 in the early line. Odds on the other nine teams spread from 6-1 for St. John's and Duquesne to 30-1 and up for Arizona.

Like other favored combines, the Braves are spared opening day action and will not swing into play until next Monday night. Kentucky was seeded second, followed by Duquesne and St. John's of Brooklyn.

Semi-finals will be staged Thursday, March 16, with the finals March 18.

Meanwhile, the NCAA filled an but three of the eight brackets in its tournament starting March 23.

Brigham Young, the Skyline Six champion, was chosen to represent district 7 and Baylor, co-champs of the Southwest conference with Arkansas, was picked to represent district 6.

They will play in the western regional playoffs at Kansas City March 24-25. The eastern playoffs are scheduled here March 23, 25, with the finals at the Garden March 28.

Three berths in the eastern field are filled—Holy Cross, No. 1; North Carolina State, No. 2, and Ohio State, No. 4. The district two spot is still wide open with Duquesne, St. John's, LaSalle, CCNY, Niagara and Princeton in the picture. Kansas moved into a tie with Nebraska for the Big Seven lead by thumping Kansas State last night, 79-68.

Dick Button Wins Third Straight Skating Crown

LONDON, March 8 — (AP)—Dick Button of Englewood, N.J., won his third straight world figure skating crown today at the 1950 world championships in London. He defeated his nearest competitor, Ede Kiraly of Hungary by a wide margin.

On the basis of unofficial calculation Button scored a total of 1420-25 points in combined compulsory and free skating.

Kiraly scored 1345.02. The other two American competitors, Hayes, Jenkins and Austin Holt appeared certain to finish in the top six.

Ken Gilkeson First Hestness Handicap Winner

Ken Gilkeson, president of the Roseburg Rod and Gun club, is the first winner of the Chris Hestness handicap trophy, but his was not an easy win.

In Sunday's trapshoot contest for the new trophy, Gilkeson, Forrest Solomon, Perry Thiele and Dr. Dean B. Buhrer finished the first round in a four-way tie. Gilkeson won a closely contested shoot-off.

The handsome trophy recently was provided by Chris Hestness, oldest member of the club and an enthusiastic sportsman. The prize will be posted once each month to be won by the victor in a special shoot. The first shooter to win the trophy three times will gain permanent possession. Winners' names will be engraved on the trophy.

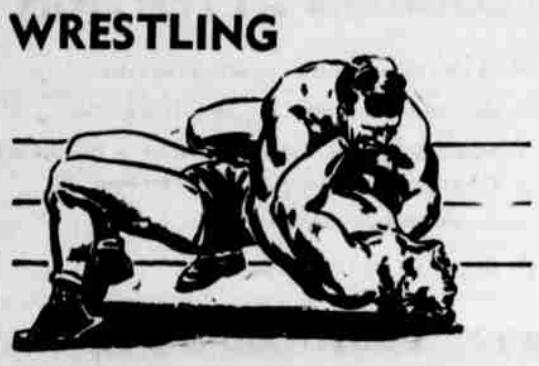

The Roseburg club made a team score of 73 in the first round of the state telegraphic shoot, sponsored by the Oregon Journal. Kelly Bros was top gunner with a score of 24. Perry Thiele, Charles Klingler, Ken Gilkeson, Joe Davis, Irvin Davis and Ted Rice each shot 24.

Thirty gunners participated in a special warm-up shoot, a 50-target 16-yard event. Charles Klingler won the B-class with 47 out of 50. Ted Rice and Bill Anderson tied in C-class with 46, and Rodney Hague won D-class with a 45. A ham was awarded the winner in each group.

Despite rain and gusty wind, large attendance marked Sunday's shoot. Announcement was made the first registered shoot for the season will be held March 26.

WYOMING, DENVER TIE
 LARAMIE, Wyo., March 8 — (AP)—Wyoming gained a second place tie with Denver by winning its final Skyline Six basketball game last night from Colorado A & M, 50-41.
