Wreck Victim, Leg Broken, Wife Dead, Crawls Mile

YREKA, Calif., March 8. — (AP) — Dragging his broken leg, and harassed by other injuries and grief, Robert L. McGuire, 45, crawled almost a mile along a deserted road for help.

Late Sunday night John Tractor, far up on Beaver creek, heard the man's cry.

Tractor ran to his side. "I think my wife is dead at the car," McGuire said.

She was dead of a broken neck, Mrs. Frances McGuire, 39, and her husband were en route to their home Saturday night when the car skidded over a 500-foot embankment. The woman was thrown clear.

It took McGuire almost 24 hours to crawl to the roadway, and then inch his way another three-fourths of a mile to the Tractor place.

Friends said the McGuires formerly had a liquor license in Bellingham, Wash., and have relatives, whose names weren't known here, at Fremerton.

McGuire has been employed for the Fruit Growers Supply Co., a cooperative producing boxes.

Lieutenant Harvey Olson of Seattle, Washington, piloted the first Marine Corps plane to land on Iwo Jima after capture of Motoyama Airfield No. 1 by Leathernecks.

The Forest Veneer mill is still closed while a crew is busy fixing the pond. Piling has been put in the revetment work adjacent to the railroad tracks, thus making the spillway and enlarging the pond. As soon as the work is completed and the pond is full, the mill is expected to start operations, nine hours a day, seven days a week.

Attention is called to the budget meeting, as posted, set for March 13 at 8 p.m. at the school house. Everyone in the community is invited to attend and hear the business to be discussed.
