KDND DIAL-LOG

TONIGHT: "Cisco" and "Panche" become involved in the risky business of transporting gold during the mystery of "The Golden Anvil" on "The Cisco Kid" (7:30-8:00 p. m.). Tune in the second in the new series of "Answer Man" programs tonight at 9:45 when an appropriate question might be: How many inches of snow make an inch of rain? And he'll tell you that "Approximately ten inches of snow equal one inch of rain."

Marvin Miller's pet peeve—persons who mispronounce the titles of classic literature and music or the names of their authors—prompted his radio career some years ago. The "Behind the Story" narrator (MDL, week-days, 4:30-4:45 p. m.) was a student at Washington university in his home city of St. Louis, when he heard a local station announcer mispronounce the name of the opera, "Samson et Delilah," and its author, Saint-Saens. He visited the station to remonstrate with the manager—who asked if he, Miller, could do any better with such tongue-twisters. He said he could—and even offered to do a one-man show. His offer was accepted—and he's been in radio ever since.

SATURDAY: Massenet's "Scenes Pittoresques" will make up the second half of the concert by the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra under the direction of Alfred Wallenstein. The program also includes Sibelius' march from the "Karelia Suite"; "Passacaglia on a Theme of Handel," by Halvorsen, and the fourth movement of Johannes Brahms' Symphony No. 4 in E Minor (10:30-11:30 a. m.). With the final game in the series of Pacific coast conference basketball played last Saturday, "The Happy Valley Cowboys" and "Meet the Press" move once more to their original listening time. "H. V. Cowboys" at 8 p. m. ... "Meet the Press" (8:30-9:00 p. m.). This week's guest is Senator Guy M. Gillette (Demo.) of Iowa.

Belgian Congo Missioner Dated At Baptist Church
Rev. Chester Jump Jr., on furlough from the mission field in the Belgian Congo, will speak Sunday at 11 a. m. at the First Baptist church. The Rev. Mr. Jump, who has just come out of that section of Africa where thousands of people have become Christians in a great mass movement, will tell about some of these experiences.
A missionary in the American Baptist Foreign Mission society, he has more than 20,000 students under his care and supervises 22 mission stations. The Rev. Mr. Jump is a graduate of Columbia university.
H. P. Sconce, Baptist pastor, says that the First Baptist church is cooperating Sunday with 100,000 local churches in the U.S. in "One Great Hour of Sharing."
