

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER and BETTY ALLEN

NOTICE

Social items submitted by telephone for the society page must be turned in before 12 o'clock Monday through Thursday and by 10 a. m. Friday at which time the social calendar and Saturday's society page are closed weekly.

FRIENDS OF MUSIC GROUP TO BRING CONCERTS TO ROSEBURG

A Friends of Music group is being organized in Roseburg to sponsor three concerts featuring Oregon artists. All music lovers of Douglas county interested in becoming patrons and patronesses for these three concerts are requested to telephone Mrs. W. J. Hutch at 439-L, this week.

Robert Hord, pianist from University of Oregon school of music and graduate of Juillard in New York, will be the first artist to present a concert March 19, at the First Baptist church.

The second concert will feature the Faculty String Quartet, April 16th, under the leadership of George Boughton. This concert will also be at the First Baptist church.

The third concert will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Allon, organist and violinist, whose concert will be presented April 27, at the First Presbyterian church.

No tickets will be sold for these three concerts. A silver offering will be taken at each concert. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MONDAY BOOK CLUB MEETS REVIEW OF "AMERICAN JUDGMENT" AT MEETING

"American Judgment" was the title of the book review given by Mrs. Jack Strawn at the regular meeting of the Monday Book club at the home of Mrs. Charles Pruden in Canyonville. The book on socialism was written by Pearl S. Buck and Eslanda Goode Robeson.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Don Clark, Mrs. Robert Bordeaux, Mrs. Chris Daniels, Mrs. Robert Proctor, Mrs. Jesse Stout, Mrs. Jack Season, Mrs. Hal Schlitz, Mrs. Jack Strawn, Mrs. Claud Wilson and Mrs. Elmer Worth.

The April meeting will be held with Mrs. Jack Season.

For "Tops"

on Drainsboards
See Phil Durnam
Linoleum Laying and Venetian Blinds
920 S. Main 1336-J

Window Shopping with Corinne

Are you ready for Spring? Gardens ready for seedling, houses cleaned and freshly decorated, new outfits complete for Easter wear? If your answer is "No," then here is the place to read about new things for yourself and your home. Check the items you still lack, and when you're in town this next week make it a point to get them. What we tell you about is all first grade merchandise. You can depend on the quality and you'll be pleased with the prices.

You are cordially invited to visit
Ken Bushey's New HARMONY HOUSE
at 230 N. Jackson St.

There you will find the finest selection of records, radios, phonographs and combinations, in 33 1/3, 45's, and 78's. Right next door to Herman's... drop in this week.

This week, of course, it's Pieschke ice cream for St. Patrick's Day parties. Get yours at the ICE CREAMERY, right downtown and less than half a block from the bus stop. Going to the "Kiss the Blarney Stone Dance" at the armory? It's next Friday night, March 17, dancing from 8:30 to 12. During the intermission, drop over to the Ice Creamery for your ice cold refreshments... sodas, malts, sundae, or just Cokes. And who gets a FREE quart of ice cream, this week? Destiny says it's Herbert Lindner, who lives on Sunset Lane. Clip the coupon out of Window Shopping, Mr. Lindner, and take it to the Ice Creamery for a quart of your favorite flavor, absolutely free.

Hot Cross Buns, Hot Cross Buns, one a penny, two a penny... Buy them either plain or filled with lemon sauce, and generously frosted, from CLEO'S QUALITY BAKERY, 314 N. Jackson. Give your Lenten menus a lift with hard rolls, butter rolls, or potato rolls, freshly baked at Cleo's. And for a Sunday morning treat, try Cleo's brown-n-serve coffee rolls, fresh and hot from your own oven. Or her brown-n-serve dinner rolls for Sunday dinner. You, too, will say, "Mmmm, good!"

It's time, now, to have your portrait made for Easter, by CLARK'S STUDIO, 105 S. Jackson. Portraits of pretty little girls or glamorous big girls in their colorful Easter outfits will be lovely done up in heavy oils and nicely framed. Give Dad and Mom a large oil portrait for the wall of the living-room, a portrait of their very own pretty daughters and handsome sons. They will glow with pride, and their memories of you when you're grown and gone from home will be more vivid. For those you love, a portrait of you is always most welcome... the most personal gift you can give.

Have you seen the new Manica dolls, with real hair? Chen-as are your daughter has seen them, and wants one. Go with her to YOUNG'S DOLL & TOY SHOPPE, 104 S. Main, and see these lovely dolls. There are Brides done up in white satin and tulle. Party Girls in pink argandine with blue ribbons, and Schoolgirls in red and white dress and undies. Each doll comes with her own comb tied to her wrist. Additional clothing for complete doll wardrobes can be bought at Young's Doll & Toy Shoppe, too, or you can have them made to order. You'll be delighted with the original designs and dainty fabrics, and surprised at the low prices. The young lady will spend many happy hours with her Manica doll, a doll that doesn't have to spend its days on a shelf to stay pretty.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Riversdale Grange met Friday night at the hall with all officers in attendance and sixty-six members present. Lester Spencer, master, was in charge. Eleven applications for membership were referred to the committee. The road committee advised all members to be on the watch for persons dumping garbage on county roads.

The smorgasbord was announced for Monday, March 13, at 6 o'clock at the hall, to be followed by a social hour of cards. The public is invited.

The quarterly birthday potluck dinner will be held March 17, at six-thirty o'clock at the hall. Garden Valley ladies will be in charge with Mrs. Nellie Madsen as chairman. Those attending are asked to bring their table service. Ray Deamond is the captain of the degree team, which will confer first and second degrees on candidates. All subordinate Granges in the county having candidates for these two degrees are invited to bring them to this meeting.

RIVERSIDE P.T.A. ENTERTAINED MONDAY

Riverside P.T.A. was entertained by Cub scouts, Bluebirds and Camp Fire girls Monday night at an interesting program at the school. Delightful skits were presented under the leadership of Gus Koellner, Mrs. T. E. Lindbloom and Mrs. S. L. Groshong.

The growth fund was approved to be shown to sixth graders at a later date.

Open house is planned for March 20 from 6:30 to 9 p.m., so the public can see the new building. Teachers will have displays in rooms and the executive board will sell refreshments in the lunch room as well as other parts of the building.

Nomination of officers was held. Officers will be elected and installed at the next meeting, April 10, at eight o'clock. Dad's night will also be observed at that meeting. Mrs. Spackman's room won the attendance prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the Cub scouts, Bluebirds and Camp Fire girls.

The next executive meeting will be held March 16, at 1:30 o'clock at the schoolhouse.

AZALEA HOUSE BENEFIT TEA TO BE EVENT OF RIDDLE HOMEMAKERS

The Riddle Homemakers will hold their annual Azalea House benefit tea in the Guild hall March 17.

Newcomers are especially invited to get acquainted at the St. Patrick's Day affair and familiarize themselves with the work of the home extension unit and the Azalea House project.

Mrs. Don Clark is general chairman of the tea.

The group will hold their next regular meeting on March 14 at which time Corinne McTaggart, county demonstration agent will be guest speaker, her subject being "Family Business and the Law." A potluck luncheon will be served with hostesses, Mrs. Harry Dayton, Mrs. William MacDonald and Mrs. Wendell Haverly in charge.

W.S.C.S. OF LOOKINGGLASS PLANS FELLOWSHIP DINNER, HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president Mrs. Corvin Heard in Lookingglass. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Mae Green, closing with prayer by Mrs. Flora Lowden. Mrs. Green read the prayer of Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane prior to the crucifixion, as recorded in the 17th chapter of St. John's gospel and followed the reading with studied remarks for meditation.

Mrs. Heard conducted the business session. Plans were made for a fellowship dinner at the church in the near future, commensal and full arrangements to be announced at the next regular meeting. A letter from Rev. and Mrs. Gene Elliott of Hope, Alaska was read expressing appreciation for the interest of the society in their missionary project. Rev. Mr. Elliott was formerly pastor of the local church and sent greetings to his many friends here. Following the suggestion of the Elliotts regarding possible needs of the Jesse L. Hospital in Seward, Alaska, the society decided to contact the Hospital and offer assistance.

A report was made of the programs sponsored by the society on the World Day of Prayer on Friday, which included a meeting of the prayer circle at the church in the afternoon and presentation of the Children's Program arranged by the United Council of Church Women. The latter was given at the school house at the invitation of the local school board of directors as a prelude to the meeting of patrons of the school to consider the budget for operation of the school during the ensuing year.

The program was a candle light service participated in by intermediate members of the Sunday school and directed by a committee from the youth fellowship including Miss Lois Swift, Miss Jo Ann Voorhies, Don Hamer and Kenneth Swift. A free will offering was accepted for missions.

The president appointed a nominating committee for the election of officers for the ensuing year to be held in April, including Mrs. Mae Green, Mrs. Milton Vance and Mrs. Bessie Wylie. Action on the asking of the state finance committee was deferred until the next meeting. Acting on the suggestion of the district secretary of Children's work, the president appointed Mrs. Marsh to serve as local secretary. A total of 47 calls in the interest of social service was reported. Mrs. Willene Elliott was welcomed as a new member in the society.

The hostess was assisted in serving by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alvin Heard, Mrs. Dorris Matthews and Mrs. Carl Ellis. In attendance were: Mrs. Jack Mathis, Mrs. Roy Buell, Mrs. Bessie Wylie, Mrs. Velma Jacoby, Mrs. Mildred Pillion and daughter Betty Jo, Mrs. I. B. Howard, Mrs. Cliff Harner, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, Mrs. Darol Hickman and small daughter Marsha, Mrs. Mae Green, Mrs. Esther Harbaugh, Mrs. Carl Ellis and sons Butch and Tommy, Mrs. Dorris Matthews and son Clark, Mrs. Flora Lowden, Mrs. George Marsh and children Billy and Judith Ann, Mrs. Homer Elliott, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. Willene Ellis and small daughters Carol Ann and Cindy Lee, Mrs. Alvin Heard and sons Jimmie and Billy, and the hostess Mrs. Corvin Heard.

Mrs. Cliff Harner invited the society to meet at her home on April 5.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB PLANS SPRING PLANT SALE, MARCH 25 AT E.G. HIGH OFFICE
Friendship club members were entertained at the home of Grace Helvey and made plans for a spring plant sale to be held March 25 at the E. G. High Insurance office. Following the business meeting the evening was spent at needlework and visiting.

Mrs. Helvey, assisted by Mrs. Edith Marshall and Mrs. Lewilyn, served refreshments in a St. Patrick's day motif to Mrs. Marion Bolsinger, Lela Kuykendal, Gladys Frenette, Doris Lauer, Happle Guerin, Mattie Jackson, Bertha Bayliss, Ida Firman, Elizabeth Gardiner, Gene Mollett, Bessie Walker, Minnie South, Elma Friday, Ingrid Anderson, Ethel Skavdal members: Alice Sheldon Edith Ingrid Anderson, Ethel Skavdal members: Alice Sheldon, Edith Marshall and Mrs. Lewilyn were guests.

Treasure Chest!

YOUR HOME furnishings may be worth thousands. Yet a few dollars can protect them! Make an inventory and see what a big investment you have in furnishings and personal effects. It's well worth protecting, with insurance!

Ask today for free Hartford Inventory Booklet.

R. O. YOUNG

Phone 417
205 W. Cass St.
Roseburg

Eldest Officers
Eldest Camp Fire group met at the American Legion hall and elected new officers. Joan Leach will serve as president; Sylvia Rand, vice-president; Leola Lorenzen, secretary; Dorothy Finn, treasurer and Shirley Pinard, scribe.

Plans were made to complete the birthday honor. The girls will have their pictures taken during March and the girls also planned to attend the practice for the Camp Fire Pageant to be held March 25. Shirley Pinard served refreshments to Leola Lorenzen, Beverly Nickell, Dorothy Finn, Joan Leach, Sylvia Rand, the guardian, Mrs. Sidney Domenico; and a guest, Merri Jean Wilson.

Many Activities

Monahabee Camp Fire Girls elected Carmen Ford president at a recent meeting. Bonnie Lent will be vice-president; Mary Lynn Homes, secretary and Clayre Carter, scribe.

The girls made nut cups for the county home; place cards for the father-daughter banquet by flowing ink on white paper. The girls and their fathers attending the banquet were Toni St. Onge, Clayre Carter, Marilyn Springer, Carmen Ford, Dr. Carter, Eugene Springer, Kenneth Ford, Mary Lynn Holmes and Bernice Lounsbury.

The girls are working on their birthday project and upon completion will have it exhibited with their pictures in a downtown window.

Plan Hike

Cantawasteya group of Camp Fire Girls at Winchester is working on the birthday project and have planned a hike which will include architectural points of interest.

Officers were elected recently and include Carolyn Jackson, president; Gail Davidson, vice-president; Jo Ann Deister, secretary and Dixie Sall, scribe.

The girls prepared five foreign dishes and served these to their fathers at the Father-Daughter banquet held last month. Attending were Betty Ferbert, Mr. G. Dodge, Sandra Van Horn and Mr. Van Horn, Dixie Sall, Mr. Sall, Carolyn Jackson and her grandfather, E. T. Jackson, Gwenn Foster and her brother, Mylon Foster, Roseanna McCarty and her brother, Mahlen McCarty, Jo Ann Deister, Mr. Deister, Gail Davidson, Evelyn Bolton and the guardian, Mrs. Dale Sall. Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. Foster and

at Penney's

SHEEN GABARDINE SUITS

And if we hadn't told you... you'd easily take that rayon gabardine for a far more expensive wool... it's that good-looking! They're every bit as well made as many a costlier suit, too... imagine finding rayon crepe linings and bound buttonholes at this price! And the styles... well, take a look! They're new... and good. In many clear spring colors... sizes 10-18.

All Wool Gabardines at 24.75 in similar styles and colors.

Mrs. Van Horn assisted with the serving.

FRIENDLY BLUEBIRDS ENJOY SKATING PARTY

Sixteen "Friendly Little Bluebirds" enjoyed a skating party at the Rolletts Skating rink Saturday, March 4th. All girls belonging to this organization are second graders and heading the organization are Mrs. Mary Fisher, leader, and her assistant, Mrs. Dorothy True. Both ladies furnished cars to transport the group to the rink.

Those attending were Cecelia Weakley, Leona Shepard, Judy Minor, Jean Prussia, Terry Martin, Dian Davidson, Lois Williams, Diane and Susie Trobough, Mary Hult, Lorraine Fisher, Mary Mitchell, Dona Heely, Karen and Helen Goodwin and Barbara Swenson, Bluebirds, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. True.

The Dillard school Camp Fire groups were well represented at the second annual meeting of the Roseburg Camp Fire Council on Monday night at the First Methodist church.

Parents, guardians leaders, and sponsors from the Dillard-Winston area were: Mrs. Oscar Amundson, guardian of We-To-Ma-Chick group, sponsored by Linger Longer Club, represented by Mrs. Cecil Callahan; Mrs. Mary Fisher, leader, Dorothy True assistant, of the Friendly Blue Birds, sponsored by Community Club. Busy Blue Birds, leader, Mrs. Clarence Walker, sponsored by PTA, Mrs. Mardi McCord and others: Appadenska, guardian, Mrs. Lila McKean, Dillard W.S. of C.S., Mrs. Rosa Heinrich Mrs. Emily Fosback and others: Lo Tou Blue Birds leader Mrs. George Roberts, sponsored by Dillard church, by Rev. and Mrs. Walter Appleyard.

The following quotation was taken from the monthly news sent one of the leaders: "You have, perhaps been wondering what the gold star is doing here; well, it is for the Winston and Dillard Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups who had the most wonderful delegation. They had sponsors, parents, interested members, and guardians and leaders there. We surely were proud of them." Barbara Lou Kitt, Executive Director.

The Busy Blue Birds of the Dillard school third grade held their regular Thursday afternoon meeting this week. The election of new officers was conducted with the following elected: Merlyn Konkin, president; Verna Streight, song leader, and Jean Leasher, monitor. Hiking and wild flower picking had been planned for the afternoon, but the plans had to be cancelled because of the rain. Lunches were served in the school building instead of outdoors as had been planned. Later group singing and a number of games were enjoyed. Those present for the meeting were Judith Roberts, Suellen White, Doris Wicker, Bertha Dunlap, Joyce Cook, Wilma Barron, Ella Mae Rowe, Verna Streight, Carol Frey, Carol Ann Carter, Merlyn Konkin, Marjorie Leining, Barbara Houghton, Shannon Drake and the Blue Bird leader, Mrs. Mary Lee Walker of Winston.

Elephants and lions are found on the lower levels of Mt. Kilimanjaro, Africa.

YONCALLA LEGION AUXILIARY TO ASSIST IN CELEBRATION OF 31ST BIRTHDAY MARCH 17
Yoncalla American Legion auxiliary unit No. 174 met at the Roy Curl home, Saturday evening. The ladies planned to help the Legion with their birthday dinner, which will be held at Halo Hall, Friday, March 17. This is the 31st birthday of the American Legion. All veterans and their families are invited. After the business meeting, Mrs. Curl served refreshments.

MELROSE H. E. C. TO SPONSOR TAMALES SUPPER
Melrose Home Economics club has invited the public to attend a tamale supper to be served from six-thirty to eight o'clock Saturday night at the Grange hall. Cards will be in play during the social hour.

Fit Your Figure
for today's fashion

Mold your figure into the new spring silhouette with a Curtis all nylon girdle. Easy to step into, these come in the straight and party girdle style. In sizes small, medium and large they come in colors of all white or pink and blue with black lace front panels. For complete comfort, try these today.

$3.95

Luverne's
124 N. Jackson Phone 565-J

It's a Small World... and We Have the Things to Furnish It!

BARGAINS for BABIES

Real bargains for diaper-size kings! We have the modestly-priced furnishings to invade the little one's small world with comfort, safety and happiness! Finely finished — sturdy — dependable!

Real bargains for diaper-size kings!

BABY'S CHIFFOROBEE 54.95

DROP SIDE CRIB 15.95

Modern Stroller $16.95

Folding Play Yard 14.95

Modern Drop Side Crib from 15.95

Sturdy Hi-Chair from 12.95

Baby's Carriage 34.95

CAREFUL, FREE DELIVERY

Courteous Service Always

117 W. Cass Phone 10