DIAL-LOG

Frank Hemingway, ace newscaster heard on the Don Lee network Monday through Saturday at 7:00 a. m. and 4:15 p. m., is telling the story about the two psychiatrists who ran into one of their neighbors while walking along the street. "Good morning," beamed the neighbor. Whereupon one of the psychiatrists turned to the other and said, "I wonder what he meant by that?" . . . Which brings to mind another pair of psychiatrists who met on the street one day . . . and one says 't' other feller 'e says . . . "You're fine. How am I?"

Norvell Gillespie, whose "Garden Guide" programs are heard over KRNR each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 9:15 a. m., received his early training under the late John McLaren in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. In 1935, invited to become garden editor of Sunset Magazine, Gillespie organized the department and wrote garden copy until 1942. During the first 18 months of the war, he was in charge of horticultural camouflage for the Pacific Coast. Later he concentrated on home food production (remember the Victory Gardens?) and broadcast as Garden Director of the eleven Western states. An authoritative fellow is Mr. Gillespie, whose programs are designed to disseminate information that will be of help to flower and vegetable growers. He concentrates on timely information, discussing seasonal planting and plant care.

TONIGHT: A young couple enter into a suicide pact from which the girl escapes. To George Valentine the case bears all the earmarks of murder, and the evidence points at the girl. Will anyone believe that she changed her mind at the last minute and that another was guilty of the murder? "The Man in 306" titles tonight's "Let George Do It" mystery-drama (8:00 - 8:30 p. m.). Gift-certificate give-away feature on "You Name It" (8:30 - 8:45 p. m.) simply by identifying correctly three mystery tunes. . . . Special shot at 10:45 featuring Oregon's coach Jim Aiken speaking before the assembled high school basketball banquet guests. Bob McCarl will handle descriptions and introductions. (10:45 - 11:15 p. m.).
