Rose Heavies and Fullerton Pee-wees became champions of the City grade school basketball league in their respective divisions following wins over Riverside and Benson, respectively, in games played at Benson gymnasium last Saturday. With all positions cinched in both divisions following Saturday's games, the final rounds, which were slated for next weekend, were called off.

called off.

The Peewees had already assured themselves of top position after last week's games, but had Rose lost this week, in the Heavies division, a game next week might have resulted in two championships for the Fullerton teams.

Final scores Saturday put Fullerton Heavies over Benson 32-19, Fullerton Peewes over Benson 28-8, Rose Heavies over Riverside 46-13 and Rose Peewees over Riverside 18-2.

The grade school teams will par-ticipate in a two-day tournament, date for Tuesday and Wednesday,

The Bruins won both games, 60 to 58 and 52 to 49, but they had to throw their high speed offense into overdrive in order to roll past the scrappy Cougars.

Friday night's victory was effected by a storybook shot in the last three seconds, and drew justifiable groans from Washington State supporters. The Cougars outplayed UCLA during the second half, but lost the game when bespectacled Ralph Joeckel, a reserve forward, swished in a 50-foot desperation heave as the final gun sounded.

Dodgers' Injuries Upped

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 13

— (P) —The Brooklyn Dodgers' injury list—already bulging—h a d three new members today.

Infielders Eddie Miksis and Eddie Hicks and pitcher Morrie Martin were injured over the weekend to make a total of eight injured Dodgers.

Miksis suffered a bruised left chin; Hicks a bruised nose, and Martin a sprained left knee. The Dodgers took a 15-11 decision from the Boston Braves yesterday.

Wrestlers Scofield, St. Onge Place Fourth In State Meet

Roseburg's heavyweight wrestler Glen Scotield and Dick St. Onge. 168 pound class, both garnered fourth place wins for the Indians in state tournament wrestling at Corvallis Saturday.

These two were the only two Roseburg finalists, out of a team of seven that participated after qualifying in district 4 competition at Klamath Falls one week earlier.

Scofield got as far as the semifinals, after defeating West Linn and Newberg high school opponents, both by falls. Scofield was beaten in the semi-finals by Patrick of Springfield, a boy Scofield had beaten twice before, this season. Scofield came back in the consolation event, heating Garda of Grants Pass, for a crack at Engier of Salem in the finals, to decide the third and fourth place winner.

St. Onge beat Smith, Molalla, in the first round of the tourney and Blair, Canby, in the see and round, but Heilman, Oregon City, stopped St. Onge by a decision. In the consolation heat, St. Onge decisioned Elliott, Albany, for a crack at third place honors, but he lost to Luckt, Mollalla, by decision, and was relegated to fourth place. Other Roseburg wrestlers had lesser luck. Tom Vance, 176, pinned Canagon, Lebanon, then lost to Guyer, Klamath Falls, in the first two rounds of the tourney, then lost out against Jarrell, Hillshoro, in the consolation rourd. Jim St. Onge, 155, lost to Steppard, Salem, in the first round. Steppard got to the semi-finals, then lost, automatically stopping St.

District 4, of which Roseburg is a member, copped both first and third positions.

PORTLAND, March 13./P)—Joe Kahut and Bill Petersen took it easy today while waiting for to-morrow night's 15-round boxing bout here for the Pacific Northwest heavyweight title.

Kahut of Woodburn, said yesterday as he finished training that ae wants this bout "more than any other." If he wins it will be his 50th ring yictory since he entered pro other." If he wins it will be his 50th ring victory since he entered pro boxing in 1942.

"I want that number 50. I want the title and I want to even up my loss to Petersen two years ago. I'm confident I'll beat him," Kahut asserted.

Petersen, formerly of Seattle and more lately of Chicago, claimed the Northwest heavyweight title after his previous victory over Kahut.
