MISSIONARY WOMEN HOLD INTERESTING MEETING ON FRIDAY

An evening potluck dinner marked a very interesting meeting of the Missionary society of the First Christian church Friday. The program listed on folder was placed around the table led off by group singing, directed by Lena Poole, assisted by Jeannette Boucock at the piano. The invocation was given by Emma Beckley. The Crusade and Week of Compassion was presented by Mrs. Ackert. Mrs. Sally Leep gave a constructive discussion on the value and strength of prayer. Mrs. Elsie Coffel discussed the work of church building in Korea as projected by Missionary John T. Chase, who visited here Sunday, March 12. A beautiful new sacred duet was sung by Lena Poole and Jeannette Boucock. Mesdames Gladys Coates, Hazel Ray and Errol Osterloh gave excerpts on distribution of Bibles in the needy fields, from the Bible Record, the magazine published by the American Bible Society. Mrs. Veldean Bridgess talked on the Kiamichi Mission at Tahiti, Oklahoma, which is ministered to by A. B. McReynolds, having 12 or 14 assistant missionaries. She pointed out their need for coat-hangers for their relief department, and received several dozen hangers to be sent to them soon.

A picture of Melba Palmer Rees and her family was shown. Melba Palmer left for mission service in China, four or five years ago, from Fairmont church in Eugene. She married Missionary Wm. (Bill) Rees a British subject. After serving a few uneventful years in China, they have now gone to Kimberley, South Africa.

After recess, the women met in the Friendship room for a short business meeting, at which time a project was developed for the April meeting, namely to pack a supply of home remedies for the foreign field. Specific destination not yet decided. Another project adopted was a pledge to pay $5.00 monthly to the Kiamichi Mission. Signers to pay 25 cents each.

Mrs. Valetta Taylor, chairman of the dinner committee used lovely decorations of pastel ribbons, spring flowers with favors of tiny colorful Japanese fans. This was enjoyed by the following ladies: Miss Majorie Jewett, a guest, Mesdames, Lena C. Poole, Jeannette Boucock, Elsie Coffel, Eva Hester, Mildred Hodson, Emma Beckley, Gladys Coates, Hazel Ray, Veldean Bridgess, Errol Osterloh, Sally Leep, Edith S. Ackert, Etta Wilson, Valetta Taylor.

The next meeting date is April 14 at which a foreign picture is to be shown. All friends are most cordially invited to enjoy these meetings.

KELOGG GRANGE HAS MEETING SATURDAY

Thirty four members were in attendance at Kellogg Grange Saturday evening, March 11th. Master Grant Madison presided, and roll call found 2 officers absent. George Madison, Agricultural Chairman reported on Conservation work and Chairman announced the clubs regular meeting Mar. 16, with a shower honoring Mrs. Hoyt Esmond in the afternoon. She appointed Elmer Schad, Vinnie Schad, Warren Schad and Laurence Madison on the refreshment committee for next Grange Meeting.

After a snappy Lecturer's program, a birthday treat of cake and ice-cream was enjoyed after which Grant Madison and Eldon and Gene Fisher showed many interesting films to an appreciative audience.

Juvenile Grange was presided over by Master Darlene Madison. Nineteen members were present. The juveniles also enjoyed the Lecturer's program in the Subordinate Grange.
